Roma A Mano:

La lettere di Michelangelo Buonarroti Gaetano Milanese, 2014 Rome: Continuing Encounters between Past and Present Dorigen Caldwell, 2016-12-05 Few other cities can compare with Rome's history of continuous habitation nor with the survival of so many different epochs in its present. This volume explores how the city's past has shaped the way in which Rome has been built, rebuilt, represented and imagined throughout its history. Bringing together scholars from the disciplines of architectural history, urban studies, art history, archaeology and film studies, this book comprises a series of studies on the evolution of the city of Rome and the ways in which it has represented and reconfigured itself from the medieval period to the present day. Moving from material appropriations such as spolia in the medieval period through the cartographic representations of the city in the early modern period to filmic representation in the twentieth century, we encounter very different ways of making sense of the past across Rome's historical spectrum. The broad chronological arrangement of the chapters and the choice of themes and urban locations examined in each allows the reader to draw comparisons between historical periods. An imaginative approach to the study of the urban and architectural make up of Rome, this volume will be valuable not only for historians of art and architecture but also for students of cultural history and film studies. Italian Crime Filmography, 1968-1980 Roberto Curti, 2013-11-05 In the 1970s Italy, after the decline of the Spaghetti Western, crime films became the most popular, profitable and controversial genre. In a country plagued with violence, political tensions and armed struggle, these films managed to capture the anxiety and anger of the times in their tales of tough cops, ruthless criminals and urban paranoia. Recent years have seen renewed critical interest in the genre thanks in part to such illustrious fans as Quentin Tarantino. This book examines all of the 220 crime films produced in Italy between 1968 and 1980, the period when the genre first appeared and grew to its peak. Entries include a complete cast and crew list, home video releases, a plot summary and the author's own analysis. Excerpts from a variety of sources are included: academic texts, contemporary reviews and interviews with filmmakers, scriptwriters and actors. There are many on-set stills and film posters.

Giambattista Nelli and Rome Ian Verstegen, Allan Ceen, 2013 Garibaldi Lucy Riall, 2008-10-20 Giuseppe Garibaldi, the Italian revolutionary leader and popular hero, was among the best-known figures of the nineteenth century. This book seeks to examine his life and the making of his cult to assess its impact and understand its surprising success. For thirty years, Garibaldi was involved in every combative event in Italy. His greatest moment came in 1860 when he defended a revolution in Sicily and provoked the collapse of the Bourbon monarchy, the overthrow of papal power in central Italy and the creation of the Italian nation-state. It made him a global icon representing strength, bravery, manliness, saintliness and a spirit of adventure. Handsome, flamboyant and sexually attractive, he was worshiped in life and became a cult figure after his death in 1882. Lucy Riall shows that the emerging cult of Garibaldi was initially conceived by revolutionaries intent on overthrowing the status quo, that it was also the result of a collaborative effort involving writers, artists, actors and publishers, and that it became genuinely and enduringly popular among a broad public The book demonstrates that Garibaldi played an integral part in fashioning and promoting himself as a new kind of charismatic political hero It analyzes the way the Garibaldi myth has been harnessed both to legitimize and to challenge national political structures And it identifies elements of Garibaldi's political style appropriated by political leaders around the world including Mussolini and Che Guevara Carpal Tunnel Syndrome Riccardo Luchetti, Peter Amadio, 2008-01-01 Covers all aspects of CTS diagnosis management outcome assessment Abundantly illustrated Momumenta historica tum sacra tum profana Etienne Baluze, 1761 Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore Anonymous, 2025-07-30 Reprint of the original first published in 1883 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore ...
