Mathisen,Danuta Shanzer,2012-07-04 This volume highlights the heretofore largely neglected Battle of Vouill in 507 CE when the Frankish King Clovis defeated Alaric II the King of the Visigoths Clovis victory proved a crucial step in the expulsion of the Visigoths from Francia into Spain thereby leaving Gaul largely to the Franks It was arguably in the wake of Vouill that Gaul became Francia and that France began The editors have united an international team of experts on Late Antiquity and the Merovingian Kingdoms to reexamine the battle from multiple as well as interdisciplinary perspectives The contributions address questions of military strategy geographical location archaeological footprint political background religious propaganda consequences both in Francia and in Italy and significance There is a strong focus on the close reading of primary source material both textual and material secular and theological The Middle Ages Edward Maslin Hulme,1929 The Early Medieval World Michael Frassetto,2013-03-14

Urban Interactions Michael J. Kelly, Michael Burrows, 2020 This volume is dedicated to eliciting the interactions between localities across late antique and early medieval Europe and the wider Mediterranean Significant research has been done in recent years to explore how late Roman and post Roman cities towns and other localities communicated vis vis larger structural phenomena such as provinces empires kingdoms institutions and so on This research has contributed considerably to our understanding of the place of the city in its context but tends to portray the city as a necessarily subordinate conduit within larger structures rather than an entity in itself or as a hermeneutical object of enquiry Consequently not enough research has been committed to examining how local people and communities thought about engaged with and struggled against nearby or distant urban neighbors Urban Interactions addresses this lacuna in urban history by presenting articles that apply a diverse spectrum of approaches from archaeological investigation to critical analyses of historiographical and historical biases and developmental consideration of antagonisms between ecclesiastical centers Through these avenues of investigation this volume elucidates the relationship between the urban centers and their immediate hinterlands and neighboring cities with which they might vie or collaborate This entanglement and competition whether subterranean or explicit across overarching political religious or other macro categories is evaluated through a broad geographical range of late Roman provinces and post Roman states to maintain an expansive perspective of developmental trends within and about the city
