Roman Catholicism Evangelical Protestants Analyze What Divides And Unites Us:

Roman Catholicism John Harper Armstrong, 1994 Roman Catholicism deserves a prominent place in the library of every evangelical pastor and layperson It provides a much needed exposition and defense of evangelical Protestant beliefs placed in bold relief beside the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church By no means does the book gloss over the very real doctrinal differences that exist between evangelical Protestants and Roman Catholics Nonetheless it also seeks to underscore those doctrines evangelicals and Roman Catholics mutually affirm This is a highly recommended book It is a timely piece particularly welcome as a fresh resource to dispel the confusion stirred by recent Evangelical Roman Catholic dialogues John Woodbridge Trinity Evangelical Divinity School

Roman Catholicism, 2007 Roman Catholicism deserves a prominent place in the library of every evangelical pastor and layperson It provides a much needed exposition and defense of evangelical Protestant beliefs placed in bold relief beside the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church By no means does the book gloss over the very real doctrinal differences that exist between evangelical Protestants and Roman Catholics Nonetheless it also seeks to underscore those doctrines evangelicals and Roman Catholics mutually affirm Roman Catholicism Alister E. McGrath, John Armstrong, Harold O. J. Brown, 1994 In this collection of essays respected evangelicals such as Alister McGrath Ronald Nash and Michael Horton along with many other leading Protestants discuss the theological issues that separate Protestants and Catholics

Catholics and Evangelicals Thomas P. Rausch, 2000 A report on the new dialogue growing up between Catholics and Protestant evangelicals with an honest summary of issues that still divide them

Calvin and the Federal Vision Jeong Koo Jeon, 2009-06-12 John Calvin 1509-64 was the pinnacle of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation in Europe As we celebrate the five hundred year anniversary of his birth it is worthy to explore Calvin's covenant theology which may be one of the best windows to understand and evaluate his theology as a whole In recent years the Federal Vision has been surfaced in the American conservative Reformed and evangelical circles It has strong hermeneutical theological and practical attachment with Calvin Although Calvin was a covenant theologian he firmly maintained the evangelical distinction between law and gospel especially in his exposition of justification by faith alone sola fide and salvation by grace alone sola gratia with a balanced emphasis of believers' covenantal obedience Moreover we will find out that Calvin not only applied the distinction between law and gospel to soteriology but also in the depiction of redemptive history In Calvin the distinction between law and gospel was foundational for the depiction of biblical vision of eschatology in the Garden of Eden before the Fall and under the Old Covenant However the exponents of the Federal Vision deny any validity of the distinction between law and gospel in hermeneutics theology and practice while they identify themselves with those of Calvin In that sense we may identify the Federal Vision not with the Protestant Reformation and Calvin but as consistent monocovenantalism in which they deny the distinction between law and gospel and apply that monocovenantal principle consistently to their understandings of hermeneutics soteriology the doctrine of double predestination and sacramental theology      Justification by Faith in Catholic-Protestant Dialogue Anthony N. S. Lane, 2006-08-15 In this assessment of the recent Catholic Protestant dialogue concerning the doctrine of justification Anthony Lane begins by discussing traditional Protestant doctrine with close reference to Calvin and traditional Catholic doctrine with close reference to the Council of Trent He goes on to examine eight key documents from Hans Kung's Justification 1957 to the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification 1999 Fifteen key theological issues are then explored These include the status of theological language used by Catholics and Evangelicals the definition of justification the grounds on which a person is accounted righteous the question of sin remaining in the Christian whether faith alone can save the relationship between law and gospel the question of merit and reward the assurance of salvation and finally a discussion on the Roman Magisterium and current Evangelical responses to recent changes in Catholic theology In conclusion Anthony Lane discusses the extent to which any agreement or convergence of thinking has been achieved and its future significance      Reasoning from the Scriptures with Catholics Ron Rhodes, 2000-01-01 Anyone interested in sharing the gospel with Catholic friends or understanding where members of that denomination stand on important points of theology will appreciate this thorough yet easy to use reference Using the simple step by step format applauded by readers in Rhodes previous books Reasoning from the Scriptures with Catholics covers many theological issues that divide Protestants and Catholics including purgatory and indulgences the reverence of Mary mother of Jesus papal infallibility Catholic traditions and much more Each chapter examines a single Catholic belief or practice as taught in the Catholic Catechism and other major Catholic sources provides biblical responses and offers questions to help Catholics examine their church's readings Pastors teachers and lay leaders will find this insightful guide a must have tool for sharing the good news of salvation by faith alone with Catholic friends and family members      Fast Facts on Roman Catholicism John Ankerberg, John Weldon, 2011-06-21 What do Catholics mean when they use the words salvation justification What special role does Mary have in the church What about the Pope Does the Catholic Tradition add to God's Word How do official Church teachings affect Catholics day to day lives In their helpful question answer style noted researchers John Ankerberg John Weldon lead you through these other key issues This straightforward practical guide will help you comprehend one of the world's most prominent religious institutions the beliefs of friends family members who belong to it in light of the clear teaching of the Bible      Covenant Theology Jeong Koo Jeon, 2004-11-03 In Covenant Theology author Jeong Koo Jeon makes a much needed contribution to 21st century biblical and systematic theology He explores the debate between John Murray and Meredith G Kline placing their ideas in the larger context of Biblical studies that have had a direct influence on Reformed theology and evangelicalism Although the theologies of Murray and Kline contain significant differences they both maintain a distinction between a covenant of creation and a covenant of grace In addition they both advocate a fundamental antithesis between law and gospel giving a priority to law over gospel in the temporal and logical order of divine works Jeon sees these distinctions as hermeneutic tools that are essential for better understanding of biblical revelation as well as faith grace and atonement The 10 Most Important Things You Can Say to a Catholic Ron Rhodes,2002-01-01 Fact filled easy to understand and visually appealing this series delivers the essential knowledge you need to know to effectively witness biblical truths to people led astray by false teachings Noted Bible teacher Ron Rhodes highlights the key differences between specific cults and biblical Christianity by identifying the 10 most critical problems examining the exact nature of each doctrinal error contrasting cultic teachings with the truth found in God s Word explaining the correct meanings of Bible verses cults cite out of context reviewing basic principles of Bible interpretation that ensure accurate understanding Important points witnessings tips digging deeper sections and cautions that highlight the confusing arguments and tactics used by each organization make these books perfect for individual witnessing Bible studies youth groups and evangelism refreshers Discusses why the Apocrypha isn t in the canon the true role of tradition Catholicism s erroneous distinction between venial and mortal sins the concept of purgatory the controversy surrounding Jesus mother Mary and more

Our Sovereign Refuge Shawn D. Wright, 2007-10-01 Our Sovereign Refuge is a study of the pastoral theology of Theodore Beza the Protestant reformer who inherited the mantle of leadership in the Reformed church from John Calvin Countering a common view of Beza as supremely a scholastic theologian who deviated from Calvin s biblical focus Wright uncovers a new portrait of Theodore Beza Beza was not a cold and rigid academic theologian obsessed with probing the eternal decrees of God Rather by placing Beza in his pastoral context and by noting his concerns in his pastoral and biblical treatises Wright shows that Beza was fundamentally a committed Christian who was troubled by the vicissitudes of life in the second half of the sixteenth century Beza believed that the biblical truth of the supreme sovereignty of God alone could support Christians on their earthly pilgrimage to heaven This pastoral and personal portrait of Beza forms the heart of Wright s argument

Understanding Four Views on the Lord's Supper Russell Moore, 2007 Four different ways Christians understand the Lord s Supper Baptist view memorialism Reformed spiritual presence Lutheran consubstantiation and Roman Catholic transubstantiation are fairly represented and debated to provide readers with an opportunity to draw their own conclusion on this important Christian institution

Understanding Four Views on the Lord's Supper Zondervan, 2009-05-26 The Lord s Supper has been the central and characteristic action of the church at worship But there are still many ways of understanding it and many questions surrounding this meal Who should participate in the Lord s Supper How frequently should we observe it What does this meal mean What happens when we eat the bread and drink from the cup What do Christians disagree about and what do they hold in common These and other questions are explored in this volume of the fair minded informative Counterpoints series Contributors make a case for one of the following views Baptist view memorialism Reformed view spiritual presence Lutheran view consubstantiation Roman Catholic view transubstantiation All contributors use Scripture to present their views and each responds to the others essays Included are resources for understanding the topic further such as A listing of statements on the Lord s Supper from creeds and confessions Quotations from noted Christians A resource listing of books on the Lord s Supper Discussion questions for each chapter to facilitate small group and classroom use The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Understanding Four Views on Baptism Tom J. Nettles, Richard L. Pratt, 2007 Christians have long differed with one another on both the meaning and the practice of water baptism Using the classic Counterpoints forum of presentation critique response this insightful book explores four prominent views of baptism held by different branches of Protestantism Baptist Christian Church Church of Christ Lutheran and Reformed Donald G. Bloesch Paul Maher, 2007 Donald G Bloesch is among the most important American theologians of the 20th and early 21st centuries He calls himself a catholic evangelical and indeed his appeal is as wide as those terms imply His work has appeared in Catholic religious periodicals as well as many varieties of Protestant publications both mainstream and lesser known As a prolific author Bloesch's writing is scattered across a large number of journals many of which are difficult to access and reviews of his work appear in an even larger range of forums Donald G Bloesch A Research Bibliography collocates as many relevant resources on Bloesch's writing as possible The book provides a chronological listing and description of each work written by Bloesch as well as reviews of Bloesch's writing Each entry gives the title publication details and notes about the relationship of the item described to other publications Several indexes are also included giving a checklist of books by Bloesch a checklist of books to which Bloesch has contributed and a list of book reviews that Bloesch has written about other authors Finally there is an alphabetical index of titles names and periodicals cited in the bibliography making this the most comprehensive resource available on Bloesch

When I Don't Desire God John Piper, 2004 Explaining how to become a Christian hedonist a bestselling author offers guidance on how to find spiritual joy to readers who are unsure of where to seek it Christian Philosophical Theology Stephen T. Davis, 2006-03-16 Christian Philosophical Theology constitutes a Christian philosopher's look at various crucial topics in Christian theology including belief in God the nature of God the Trinity christology the resurrection of Jesus the general resurrection redemption and theological method The book is tightly argued and amounts to a coherent explanation of and case for the Christian world view Although written from a broadly Reformed Protestant perspective and although the author does not avoid controversial topics the aim is to present a merely Christian world view to adapt slightly C S Lewis's famous term That is Stephen T Davis attempts to write as much as possible from the perspective of the broad centre of Christian understanding
