Romancing The Life Work Of Henry Gre:

Romancing Jeremy Treglown,2000 Henry Green led a double life As Henry Yorke a descendant of the earl of Hardwicke and Baron Leconfield he was a wealthy aristocrat with a family fortune and an engineering plant in the British Midlands As Henry Green the pseudonym he settled on after trying out Henry Browne he wrote nine of our century s most original novels including Living Party Going Caught and Loving all of which with daringly experimental techniques capture the psychological truths of ordinary life in dramatic sometimes poignant and often hilarious ways Green also formed friendships and rivalries with many of his time s leading literary figures including Evelyn Waugh and Anthony Powell Eudora Welty and Terry Southern And he led an extravagantly messy personal life Jeremy Treglown the highly praised biographer of Roald Dahl discusses Green s novels in close connection with his life his unusual camaraderie with factory workers his sympathy for servants his ambivalence about his peers his drinking and his extramarital affairs Treglown also shows how Green s portrayal of everyday uncertainties mirrored his efforts to understand his weaknesses and the chaotic conduct of his life efforts whose literary results John Updike has said bring the rectangle of the printed page alive like little else in English fiction of this century
