Romantic Masculinities:

Masculinities in Post-Millennial Popular Romance Eirini Arvanitaki, 2022-05-12 This book focuses on the projection of the hero's masculinity in a selection of post millennial popular romance narratives and attempts to discover if and to what extent this projection reinforces or challenges patriarchal ideas about gender. In the majority of these narratives the hero is often presented as a hegemonic alpha male. However, hegemonic masculinity is not a fixed concept. Rather, it is subject to continuous change which allows for the emergence of various dominant masculinities. Under a poststructuralist lens and through a close textual analysis approach and a gender reading of romance narratives, the book suggests that to a certain extent the romance hero could be described as a platform onto which different forms of dominant masculinity are displayed and highlights that these masculinities do not necessarily clash, depend on or function as a prerequisite for each other.

Romantic Masculinities Tony Pinkney, Keith Hanley, Fred Botting, 1997 Examines in particular the points at which women Romantic writers anticipate, resist and intersect with the literary productions of their male contemporaries. Young Masculinities Stephen Frosh, Ann Phoenix, Rob Pattman, 2017-04-29 How do boys see themselves? Their peers? The adult world? What are their aspirations? Their fears? How do they feel about their own masculinity? About style, race, homophobia? About football? This book examines aspects of young masculinities that have become central to contemporary social thought, paying attention to psychological issues as well as to social policy concerns. Centring on a study involving in-depth exploration through individual and group interviews, the authors bring to light the way boys in the early years of secondary schooling conceptualise and articulate their experiences of themselves, their peers and the adult world. The book includes discussion of boys' aspirations and anxieties, their feelings of pride and loss. As such, it offers an unusually detailed set of insights into the experiential world inhabited by these boys: how they see themselves, how girls see them, what they wish for and fear, where they feel their masculinity to be advantageous and where it inhibits other potential experiences. In describing this material, the authors explore questions such as the place of violence in young people's lives, the functions of hardness, of homophobia and football, boys' underachievement in school and the pervasive racialisation of masculine identity construction. Young Masculinities will be invaluable to researchers in psychology, sociology, gender and youth studies, as well as to those devising social policy on boys and young men. Burgwinkle, 2004-07-08 William Burgwinkle surveys poetry and letters histories and literary fiction including Grail romances to offer a historical survey of attitudes towards same sex love during the centuries that gave us the Plantagenet court of Henry II and Eleanor of Aquitaine courtly love and Arthurian lore Burgwinkle illustrates how sodomy becomes a problematic feature of narratives of romance and knighthood Most texts of the period denounce sodomy and use accusations of sodomitical practice as a way of maintaining a sacrificial climate in which masculine identity is set in opposition to the stigmatised other for example the foreign the feminine and the heretical What emerges from these readings however is that even the most homophobic masculinist and normative texts of the period demonstrate an inability or unwillingness to separate the sodomitical from the orthodox These blurred boundaries allow readers to glimpse alternative even homoerotic readings Men, Masculinities and Methodologies B. Chowkhani, 2023-12-19 This book explores different strands of thinking about sexuality education in contemporary urban India. It interrogates the limits of sexuality education as we know it today by rethinking adolescent masculinities in middle class urban India. This book contributes to the wide gap in theorising sexuality education and adolescent masculinities in urban India. It presents an adolescent perspective on sexuality education, looks at adolescent love from the school teachers' perspective and tries to understand a teacher's negotiations with student romance. It unravels the sexual and romantic lives of adolescents and examines the circulation of sexual knowledge and sources of information on sex that adolescent boys in India have access to. This book uncovers the limits of sexuality education by examining State feminist Christian and sexological materials on sexuality education in Mumbai and Delhi. Based on detailed research and narratives from teachers, young men and women, the book explores adolescent male romance and its affective registers, adolescent male sexual knowledge and the regulation of romance in school spaces. This book will be of interest to students and researchers of education, sexuality and gender studies, masculinity studies, sex education as well as those interested in education policy, education politics, educational research and inclusion and special education. Located at the intersection of sexuality studies, education, masculinity studies and cultural studies, it will also appeal to those working in sexuality education in urban India within the complex web of the middle classes, consumerism, post feminism, romance, adolescent masculinities and cinema.

Masculinity, Marriage and Rural Men in Urban China Sarah Gosper, 2024-12-31 This book explores the conjuncture and interrelationship between three so-called crises facing Chinese society: a crisis of marriage, a crisis of masculinity and a crisis of mobility. Based on sustained ethnographic research on unmarried lower class rural men from two distinct social and class categories, namely migrant workers employed in the food delivery and express mail delivery industries and tertiary educated white collar professionals, the book reveals how the increasing socio-economic precarity of rural men and their largely unrealised desires to marry and have children demonstrates a fundamental reconfiguration of Chinese masculinity and mobility in urban China and the social impact on central Chinese institutions. The book also reveals the futile efforts to fulfil hegemonic models of masculinity in contemporary China and addresses the heterogeneity of unmarried lower class rural men as they navigate marriage, manhood and mobility. Exploring gender relations in China and contributing to global studies of heterosexual masculinities, this book will appeal to students and scholars of Chinese culture and society, gender studies and social anthropology. Becoming Male in the Middle Ages Jeffrey Jerome Cohen, Bonnie Wheeler, 2015-11-17
