Rommel, the Desert Warrior Richard L. Blanco, 1982-01-01 Traces the World War II career of the Desert Fox commander of the German Afrika Corps finally defeated by the British at el Alamein Great Military Leaders William T. Worthington, 2002 Great Military Leaders A Bibliography with Vignettes The War in North Africa, 1940-1943 Colin F. Baxter, 1996-03-30 Few of the major campaigns of World War II aroused as much controversy as the War in North Africa 1940 1943 Figures such as Rommel Montgomery and Eisenhower would become world famous because of the fighting in North Africa This book opens with seven historiographical essays that evaluate and critically assess the major contributions to the literature on the War in North Africa It then includes an alphabetically arranged bibliography of the 504 entries cited in the essays The material is easily accessible with cross references between the text and the bibliography and a full index The volume includes chapters on the Desert War 1940 42 the Axis Powers in North Africa Montgomery Alam Halfa and El Alamein TORCH the Landings in French North Africa and the Tunisian Campaign Full attention is given to questions and issues historians have raised on such controversies as the Auchinleck Montgomery dispute the debate over Operation TORCH and the Darlan affair Emphasis is on English language works but the most significant Italian German and French works are cited and assessed The book has been written for use in public college university and institutional libraries and to serve general readers and military historians Rommel's Desert Warriors Michael Olive, Robert J. Edwards, 2012-11-11 Visual history of Rommel and his Afrika Korps in the desert of North Africa Great Warrior Leaders/thinkers, 1989 The Evolution from Horse to Automobile Imes Chiu, 2008 Little work has been done to explicate the motivational factors of agency particularly in cases where an artifact initially deemed ineffective or superfluous becomes an everyday necessity such as the automobile at the turn of the twentieth century Farmers saw it as a devil wagon but later adopted it for use as an all around device and power source What makes a social group change its position about a particular artifact How did the devil wagon overcome its notoriety to become a prosaic mainstream device These questions direct the research in this book While they may have been asked before author Imes Chiu PhD Cornell University brings a different and refreshing approach to the problem of newness Preexisting practices and work routines used as explanatory devices have something interesting to say about diffusion strategies and localization measures This innovative study examines the conversion of users To understand the motivating factors in mass adoption the study focuses on perceptions and practices associated with horses and motorcars in three different settings during three different periods All three cases begin with the motorcar in the periphery all three end with it achieving ubiquity This multiple case design is used for the purpose of theoretical replication Results in all three cases show that a contrived likeness to its competitor the horse contributed to the motorcar's success The motorcar absorbed the technical material structural and conceptual resources of the technology it displaced This book which includes several rare photographs will be an important resource for those who wish to study the history of transportation and technology
