Room For Maneuver An Exploration Of Public Policy Planning In Agricultural And Rural Development:

Room for Manoeuvre Edward J. Clay, Bernard Schaffer, 1984 Explores the roles of some of the organizations involved in the developing world and what might be done to increase their effectiveness Common instruments of intervention are illustrated with material from Bangladesh India Kenya Mauritius and Sri Lanka Room for Manoeuvre Edward J.

Clay, Bernard Schaffer, 1984 Projects with People Peter Oakley, 1991 People's participation has begun to influence the practice of development substantially This study provides an interpretation of how participation occurs uses case studies to highlight various approaches and develops elements of a strategy and a methodology Transformative Law and Public Policy Sony Pellissery, Babu Mathew, Avinash Govindjee, Arvind Narrain, 2019-10-28 This book explores the convergence of law and public policy Drawing on case studies from Asia Europe the Middle East and Australia it examines how judicial and political institutions are closely linked to the socio economic concerns of the citizens The essays argue for the utilization of both legislative and executive private and public spheres of society as vehicles for transformative social change and to safeguard against violations of socio economic rights The volume will be of great interest to both public and private stakeholders as well as professionals including NGOs and think tanks working in the areas of law government and public policy It will also be immensely useful to academics and researchers of constitutionalism policymaking and policy integration social justice and minority rights Policy That Works for Forests and People James Mayers, Stephen Bass, 2013-06-17

Since its original publication by the International Institute for Environment and Development in 1999 Policy That Works for Forests and People has been recognised as the most authoritative study to date of policy processes that affect forests and people Providing a thorough analysis of the issues options and factors that determine different outcomes and bolstered by a major annex containing tools and tactics the book offers clear and practical advice on how to formulate manage and implement policies appropriate to different contexts These are policies that result in real improvements in the governance use and economic benefits that can flow from forests to those who depend upon them This book is essential reading for policy makers forestry practitioners and academics and students in all areas of forest policy management and governance Dalits in Neoliberal India Clarinda Still, 2015-07-17 India's economic growth has brought opportunities for many but to what extent has it benefitted its ethnically shaped underclass the Dalits Have Dalits fared better in a neoliberal India or have structural economic and social changes served to magnify Dalit disadvantage This volume offers a varied picture of Dalit experience in different states in contemporary India The essays draw on factual research in rural and urban areas by experts in the field With case studies ranging from Dalit entrepreneurs in Bhopal to housewives in Tamil Nadu to ex millworkers in Mumbai the book contends that radically progressive change and advance is attended by discrimination and exclusion as well as surprising new areas of stigma With contributions by political scientists anthropologists sociologists and economists the volume will be key reading for scholars and students of Dalit and subaltern studies sociology political science and economics

Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology Wallace C. Olsen, 1991 The first of an eight volume series The Literature of the Agricultural Sciences this book analyzes the trends in the published literature of agricultural economics and rural sociology during the past fifty years It uses citation analysis and other bibliometric techniques to identify the primary journals report series and monographs of current importance to the developed industrial countries as well as those in the Third World

Bibliographies and Literature of Agriculture, 1986 The Development Dictionary Wolfgang Sachs, 2019-09-15 The original critical guide to key concepts in development studies from some of the world's most eminent critical development scholars and practitioners Each essay in this now classic collection examines one key development concept from the environment to needs and progress to production Each concept is reviewed from a historical and anthropological point of view with particular bias and intellectual flaws being highlighted Overall the authors argue that we must bid farewell to the whole idea of Eurocentric development in order to liberate people's minds in both North and South and to mobilize for bold responses to the environmental and ethical challenges now confronting humanity The result is an indispensable resource for scholars practitioners movements and students of development which invites us to recognize the tinted glasses we put on whenever we participate in the development discourse

Natural Resource Management B.W. Pandey (ed. By), 2005-01-01 Agricultural Policies and Research Programs, 1975-April 1987 Mary E. Lassanyi, 1987

Japan's Agricultural Market and Trade, 1979-March 1987 Mary E. Lassanyi, 1987 Agricultural Markets from Theory to Practice Barbara Harriss-White, 1999-04-12 In an era of globalization private markets are expected to dominate the distribution of goods worldwide Yet surprisingly little empirical work is conducted on them The sensitive and secret nature of trading information the complexity of real markets and the lack of official data other than that on price can all cause problems This book seeks to overcome these in examining arguably the most difficult markets of all agricultural markets under conditions of underdevelopment Case studies from nine countries covering all three underdeveloped continents offer a comprehensive overview of the lessons to be learnt from field experience Rethinking Research on Land Degradation in Developing Countries Yvan Biot, 1995-01-01 World Bank Technical Paper No 280 Addresses the need to improve the administration of justice in Latin America and the Caribbean and provides effective strategies for reform Judicial reform is a new area of interest for the World Bank This book addresses the need to improve the administration of justice in Latin America and the Caribbean and provides effective strategies for reform The report combines the experiences of more than 20 countries in their effort to enhance the quality and efficiency of their judicial systems The authors highlight the importance of the judiciary in economic development with a particular focus on court administration the judicial institutional framework alternative dispute resolution mechanisms procedural reforms access to justice and the role of the legal profession Arguing Development Policy Raymond Apthorpe, Des Gasper, 2014-06-23 This collection shows how policy discourses in the fields of national and international developments are constructed and operate and how they can be analysed Dominant discourses screen out certain aspects they frame issues to include some matters and typically exclude important others More generally different policy discourses construct the world in distinctive ways through language that requires deconstruction and careful review Quick Bibliography Series ,1976 Interdisciplinary Community Development Alice K. Johnson Butterfield,Yossi Korazim-Korosy,2007-09-11 Workers from various diverse disciplines such as geography public policy administration social work education public health and so on are joining together to address complex social issues such as poverty health peace building the environment and others Interdisciplinary Community Development International Perspectives is a unique look at the innovations in interdisciplinary community development around the world Leading experts from various disciplines explore the latest research programs and innovative approaches to promote strategies that enable social justice Land Degradation in Tanzania Alemneh Dejene,1997-01-01 World Bank Technical Paper No 370 Local land users and officials often have conflicting perceptions of and responses to land degradation issues This causes problems for officials in diagnosing and addressing the issue and is a major constraint on the successful implementation of policies and projects to address land degradation This study looks at the perception and response gap between officials and land users in the diagnosis and remedy of land degradation It also examines the dynamics of the loss of soil fertility and low productivity at the village level The study s findings will help shape investment programs to enhance land productivity in Sub Saharan Africa Women in Agriculture Jane Potter Gates,1992 Women in Agriculture.
