Confessionalization in Europe, 1555-1700 John M. Headley,Hans J. Hillerbrand,2017-03-02 Confessionalization in Europe 1555 1700 brings together a closely focused set of essays by leading scholars from the USA UK and Europe in memory of Bodo Nischan They address what historians of the Early Modern period have recently come to define as the pre eminent issue in the history of the Reformation as they turn their emphases from the earlier part of the 16th century to the relatively neglected latter half of the century By the time of his death Bodo Nischan had distinguished himself as a significant contributor to this central problem of confessionalization The concept involves the practice of confession building which in relation to that of social disciplining promoted interrelated processes contributing decisively to the formation of confessional churches greater social cohesion and the emergence of the Early Modern absolute state Many religious practices earlier considered as adiaphora indifferent matters now became treated as marks of demarcation between the emerging Protestant confessional churches and at the same time politicized as the early modern state sought to impose greater social control Through the analysis of such liturgical ritual and ceremonial practices Nischan helped show the way towards a better understanding of the Reformation s engagement with the people These are the themes treated in this volume Resilient

Liberalism in Europe's Political Economy Vivien A. Schmidt,Mark Thatcher,2013-08-29 Why have neo liberal economic ideas been so resilient since the 1980s despite major intellectual challenges crippling financial and political crises and failure to deliver on their promises Why do they repeatedly return not only to survive but to thrive This groundbreaking book proposes five lines of analysis to explain the dynamics of both continuity and change in neo liberal ideas the flexibility of neo liberalism s core principles the gaps between neo liberal rhetoric and reality the strength of neo liberal discourse in debates the power of interests in the strategic use of ideas and the force of institutions in the embedding of neo liberal ideas The book s highly distinguished group of authors shows how these possible explanations apply across the most important domains fiscal policy the role of the state welfare and labour markets regulation of competition and financial markets management of the Euro and corporate governance in the European Union and across European countries A History of Law in Europe Antonio Padoa-Schioppa,2017-08-03 The first English translation of a comprehensive legal history of Europe from the early middle ages to the twentieth century encompassing both the common aspects and the original developments of different countries As well as legal scholars and professionals it will appeal to those interested in the general history of European civilisation

Minority Languages and Cultural Diversity in Europe Konstanze Glaser, 2007-01-01 This book engages critically with debates about linguistic continuity and cultural survival in relation to Europe's autochthonous minorities Focusing on Scotland's Gaels and Lusatia's Sorbs/Wends it analyses and evaluates competing assumptions, rationales and ideologies which have shaped previous and present language revitalisation initiatives and that continue to pose dilemmas to language planners and politicians in the UK, Germany and beyond

Islamist Terrorism in Europe Petter Nesser, 2018-09-01 Europe is still facing an increase in terrorist plotting This has led to growing security concerns over the fallout of the Syrian conflict and the sizeable contingents of battle-hardened European foreign fighters who are seeking to return home This book provides a comprehensive account of the rise of jihadist militancy in Europe and offers a detailed background for understanding the current and future threat Based on a wide range of new primary sources it traces the phenomenon back to the late 1980s and the formation of jihadist support networks in Europe in the early 1990s Combining analytical rigor with empirical richness Petter Nesser offers a comprehensive account of patterns of terrorist cell formation and plots between 1995 and 2017 In contrast to existing research which has emphasized social explanations, failed immigration and homegrown radicalism, this book highlights the transnational aspects It shows how jihadi terrorism in Europe is intrinsically linked to and reflects the ideological agendas of armed organizations in conflict zones and how entrepreneurial jihad veterans facilitate such transnationalization of militancy

Coastal Lagoons in Europe Geoffrey D. Gooch, 2015-07-15 Lagoons represent nearly 13% of the shoreline globally and around 5% in Europe Coastal lagoons are shallow water bodies separated from the ocean by a barrier, e.g. narrow spit, connected at least intermittently to the ocean by one or more restricted inlets and usually geographically oriented parallel to the shoreline Coastal lagoons are flexible and usually able to cope with environmental change yet nowadays they are under threat This is partly due to climate change impacts, for example sea level rise and hydro-meteorological extreme events but also due to more direct human activities and pressures The book focuses on addressing these challenges through integrated management strategies seen in a land-sea and science stakeholder policy perspective Pan-European management challenges are seen from the context of the perspectives of Policy, Environment and Modelling Four case study lagoons in different geographical locations in Europe provide examples of some of the practical experiences and results around these challenges Possible impacts on drainage basins and lagoons are introduced through integrated scenarios which were developed through a multi-science and land-lagoon science perspective combined with interactions and contributions from stakeholders and citizens Issues around climate change impacts on environmental conditions in both drainage basins and lagoons are also included The book derives from a collaborative EC-funded project entitled Integrated Water Resources and Coastal Zone Management in European Lagoons in the Context of Climate Change comprising nine
