

ROOT INTO EUROPE

A man with a mustache, wearing a brown suit, a patterned shirt, a yellow and blue striped tie, and a brown fedora, is smiling and holding a newspaper. He is standing in front of the Eiffel Tower in Paris. The background shows a clear blue sky, green trees, and a paved path.

Root Into Europe Journal Fact Finding Mission:

Root Into Europe Henry Root,1992-01-01 The Normative Force of the Factual Nicoletta Bersier

Ladavac,Christoph Bezemek,Frederick Schauer,2019-06-26 This book explores the interrelation of facts and norms How does law originate in the first place What lies at the roots of this phenomenon How is it preserved And how does it come to an end Questions like these led Georg Jellinek to speak of the normative force of the factual in the early 20th century emphasizing the human tendency to infer rules from recurring events and to perceive a certain practice not only as a fact but as a norm a norm which not only allows us to distinguish regularity from irregularity but at the same time to treat deviances as transgressions Today Jellinek s concept still provides astonishing insights on the dichotomy of is and ought to be the emergence of the normative the efficacy and the defeasibility of legal norms and the distinct character of what legal theorists refer to as normativity It leads us back to early legal history it connects anthropology and legal theory and it demonstrates the interdependence of law and the social sciences In short it invites us to fundamentally reassess the interrelation of facts and norms from various perspectives The contributing authors to this volume have accepted that invitation , The Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1992 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom The War Report Annyssa Bellal,2015-12-10 This War Report provides detailed information on every armed conflict which took place during 2014 offering an unprecedented overview of the nature range and impact of these conflicts and the legal issues they created In Part I the Report describes its criteria for the identification and classification of armed conflicts under international law and the legal consequences that flow from this classification It sets out a list of armed conflicts in 2014 categorising each as international non international or a military occupation with estimates of civilian and military casualties In Part II each of these conflicts are examined in more detail with an overview of the belligerents means and methods of warfare the applicable treaties and rules and any prosecutions for investigations into or robust allegations of war crimes Part III of the Report provides detailed thematic analysis of key legal developments which arose in the context of these conflicts allowing for a more in depth reflection on cross cutting questions and controversies The Report gives a full and accessible overview of armed conflicts in 2014 It should be the first port of call for everyone working in the field A History of Global Capitalism Sambit Bhattacharyya,2020-10-31 The book sets out to explore the economic motivations of imperial expansion under capitalism This undoubtedly is related to two fundamental research questions in economic sciences First what factors explain the divergence in living standards across countries under the capitalist economic system Second what ensures internal and external stability of the capitalist economic system The book adopts a unified approach to address these questions Using the standard growth model it shows that improvements in living standards are dependent on access to raw materials labour capital technology and perhaps most importantly economies of scale Empires ensure scale economy through guaranteed access to markets and raw materials The stability of the system depends on growth and distribution and it is not possible to have one without the other However the quest for growth and imperial expansion implies that one empire invariably comes into conflict with another This is perhaps the most unstable and potentially dangerous characteristic of the capitalist system Using extensive historical accounts the book shows that this inherent tension can be best managed by acknowledging mutual spheres of influence within the international system along the lines of the 1815 Vienna Congress This timely publication addresses not only students and scholars of economics geography political science and history but also general readers interested in a better understanding of economic development international relations and the history of global capitalism

Large-scale Victimisation as a Potential Source of Terrorist Activities Uwe Ewald,Ksenija Turković,2006 Critically reviews large scale victimisation arising out of protracted conflicts in order to understand the necessary prerequisites for enduring peace making in post conflict societies and to anticipate and suggest approaches to healing victimising effects

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1993 The Politics of Marketising Asia T. Carroll,D. Jarvis,2014-05-29 Economic growth continues to transform the economic and political landscape of Asia Equally the policies now being adopted to promote private sector participation re structure state entities and reduce the presence of the state in the provision of public goods and services are tied to fundamental transformations in Asia s state society relations The global cast of contributors present a timely analysis of the impact of neo liberalism on Asia s developmental policies and the organisation of Asian states and markets Ironically the developmental state that has historically driven Asia s rapid economic transformation is now threatened by an increasingly dominant neoliberal agenda that aims to roll back the state in the name of market fundamentalism

Quality Control in Fact-Finding Morten Bergsmo,2013-11-16 This book discusses how fact finding mechanisms for alleged violations of international human rights humanitarian and criminal law can be improved There has been a significant increase in the use of international internationalised and domestic fact finding mechanisms since 1992 including by the United Nations human rights system international commissions of inquiry truth and reconciliation commissions and NGOs They are analysed and assessed in detail by 19 authors under the common theme Quality Control in Fact Finding The authors include Richard J Goldstone Martin Scheinin LIU Daqun Charles Garraway David Re Simon De Smet FAN Yuwen Isabelle Lass e WU Xiaodan Dan Saxon Chris Mahony Dov Jacobs Catherine Harwood Lyal S Sunga Wolfgang Kaleck Carolijn Terwindt Ilia Utmelidze and Marina Aksenova Serge Brammertz has written the Preface and LING Yan a Foreword The book emphasises quality awareness and improvement in non criminal justice fact work This quality control approach recognises inter alia the importance of leadership in fact finding mechanisms the responsibility of individual fact finders to continuously professionalise and the need for fact finders to be mandate centred It is an approach that invites the consideration of how the quality of every functional aspect of fact finding can be improved including work processes to identify locate obtain verify analyse corroborate summarise synthesise structure organise present and disseminate facts The book also considers regulatory approaches to enhance quality and professionalisation

Renegotiating Westphalia C.L.

Lim, Christopher Harding, 1999-07-01 This collection of papers addresses two main themes firstly whether there is a distinctively European contribution to or even leadership in the contemporary formation and evolution of international law secondly the extent to which non governmental actors e g NGOs international organizations companies individuals contribute decisively to the formation of international law at the present time These issues are explored within a number of different contexts of contemporary significance in particular the protection of human and minority rights protection of the environment control of transnational organized crime prosecution of war crimes and crimes against humanity the definition of statehood and the right to self determination transnational commercial and economic activity The discussion is firmly located within the theory of international law and relations and also the continuum of international history Comparisons are drawn with both global and other regional developments to test the hypothesis of a European international law The work will be of interest to teachers students and practitioners legal and otherwise in the field of international law and relations

Selling French Sex Elisa Camiscioli, 2024-01-25 Selling French Sex is an illuminating account of the cultural social and economic history of the sale of French sex It explores the discourses and experiences surrounding the early twentieth century debate on sex trafficking which mobilized various international reform movements to combat the coerced prostitution of young women abroad According to popular legend and empirical studies French women were present in brothels all over the world where they were the most desired and best paid in the business But were they trafficking victims or willing migrants In this timely book Elisa Camiscioli reconstructs the networks and mechanisms of cross border migrations for sexual labor elucidates women s motives for leaving and staying and explains why French migrant sexual labor occupied such a prominent place in the underworld of prostitution as well as in the imaginaries of anti trafficking campaigners immigration officials and ordinary consumers of vice

Hate Speech and Human Rights in Eastern Europe Viera Pejchal, 2020-04-03 Hate Speech and Human Rights Democracies need to understand these terms to properly adapt their legal frameworks Regulation of hate speech exposes underlining and sometimes invisible societal values such as security and public order equality and non discrimination human dignity and other democratic vital interests The spread of hatred and hate speech has intensified in many corners of the world over the last decade and its regulation presents a conundrum for many democracies This book presents a three prong theory describing three different but complementary models of hate speech regulation which allows stakeholders to better address this phenomenon It examines international and national legal frameworks and related case law as well as pertinent scholarly literature review to highlight this development After a period of an absence of free speech during communism post communist democracies have sought to build a framework for the exercise of free speech while protecting public goods such as liberty equality and human dignity The three prong theory is applied to identify public goods and values underlining the regulation of hate speech in the Czech Republic and Slovakia two countries that share a political sociological and legal history as an example of the differing approaches to hate speech regulation in post communist societies due to divergent social values despite identical legal frameworks This book will be of great interest to scholars of human rights law lawyers judges government NGOs media and anyone who would like to understand values that underpin hate speech regulations which reflect values that society cherishes the most Investing in Youth: Tunisia Strengthening the Employability of Youth during the Transition to a Green Economy OECD,2015-03-10 This report provides a detailed diagnosis of the youth labour market in Tunisia including a focus on vocational education and training and entrepreneurship
