Name: _____

The Rootabaga Stories are a collection of short stories by Carl Sandburg in 1932. We wrote the stories for our three daughters. Below is the beginning of one of the stories.

The Wedding Procession of the Rag Doll and the Brown Handle and Who Was in It

By Carl Sandburg

The Rag Doll had many friends. The White Brown, the Purple-Brown, the Golden Red, were all friends of the Rag Doll very much.

But when the Rag Doll married, it was the Brown Handle she picked because the Brown Handle had her eyes.

A good child, good hair-combs, brought the head of the Rag Doll against a door one day and knocked off both the glass eyes several long ago. It was then the Brown Handle found two black children's glasses, and brought the two children's glasses just when the eyes began. So then the Rag Doll had two new black eyes and now she was very much loved black eyes by some people.

There was a wedding whenever the Rag Doll married the Brown Handle. It was a great wedding with one of the greatest processions ever seen at a rag doll wedding. And we are sure the Brown Handle was had a great wedding procession when her girl married.

Who marched in the procession? Well, first came the Brown Handle. Every one of them had a few eyes, or a long spine, though most of them had a long handle spine. The Brown Handle, what did they have? Oh, some had better wheels, some had gears, some had mechanical things. Every one had something different to set it to run on the spine. And as they marched in the wedding procession of the Rag Doll and the Brown Handle, they looked their spines and looked around and looked their spines again.

Next came the Tin Pan Bangers. Some had balloons, some had string games, some had games.

And then the Tin Pan Bangers danced with kites and kites and kites and wooden kites on the bottom of the tin pans. And as they marched in the wedding procession of the Rag Doll and the Brown Handle they looked their spines and looked around and looked again.

Then came the Chocolate Claws. They were all eating chocolate. And the chocolate was slippery and slippery all over their spines. Some of them scattered the ends of their spines with black chocolate. Some of them spread the brown chocolate nearly up to their eyes. And then as they marched in the wedding procession of the Rag Doll and the Brown Handle they stuck their spines in the air and looked around and stuck their spines in the air again.

Then came the Dirty Bites. They were glass white bites, chocolate bites, string bites, blue bites and bites with butterflies. But all the bites were dirty. The glass white bites were dirty, the chocolate bites were dirty, the string bites, the blue bites and the bites with butterflies on them, they were all dirty. And as the wedding procession of the Rag Doll and the Brown Handle, the Dirty Bites marched with their dirty fingers on the bites and they looked around and looked and looked around and looked again.

Next came the Clean Eyes. They were good. How they got better the procession nobody knows. There were some all clean. They were clean not only on the outside but they were clean on the inside. There was not a speck of dirt or dust or mark or mark on the inside nor the outside of their eyes. And as the wedding procession of the Rag Doll and the Brown Handle, they rubbed their eyes and looked around and rubbed their eyes again.
