Cultivating a Landscape of Peace Matthew Dennis, 2018-10-18 This book examines the peculiar new worlds of the Five Nations of the Iroquois the Dutch and the French who shared cultural frontiers in seventeenth century America Viewing early America from the different perspectives of the diverse peoples who coexisted uneasily during the colonial encounter between Europeans and Indians he explains a long standing paradox the apparent belligerence of the Five Nations a people who saw themselves as promoters of universal peace In a radically new interpretation of the Iroquois

Dennis argues that the Five Nations sought to incorporate their new European neighbors as kinspeople into their Longhouse the physical symbolic embodiment of Iroquois domesticity and peace He offers a close original reading of the fundamental political myth of the Five Nations the Deganawidah Epic and situates it historically and ideologically in Iroquois life Detailing the particular nature of Iroquois peace he describes the Five Nations diligent efforts to establish peace on their own terms and the frustrations and hostilities that stemmed from the fundamental contrast between Iroquois and European goals expectations and perceptions of human relationships Messenger of Peace ,1925 The River Is in Us Elizabeth Hoover,2017-11-01 Winner of the Labriola Center American Indian National Book Award 2017 Mohawk midwife Katsi Cook lives in Akwesasne an indigenous community in upstate New York that is downwind and downstream from three Superfund sites For years she witnessed elevated rates of miscarriages birth defects and cancer in her town ultimately drawing connections between environmental contamination and these maladies When she brought her findings to environmental health researchers Cook sparked the United States first large scale community based participatory research project In The River Is in Us author Elizabeth Hoover takes us deep into this remarkable community that has partnered with scientists and developed grassroots programs to fight the contamination of its lands and reclaim its health and culture Through in depth research into archives newspapers and public meetings as well as numerous interviews with community members and scientists Hoover shows the exact efforts taken by Akwesasne s massive research project and the grassroots efforts to preserve the Native culture and lands She also documents how contaminants have altered tribal life including changes to the Mohawk fishing culture and the rise of diabetes in Akwesasne Featuring community members such as farmers health care providers area leaders and environmental specialists while rigorously evaluating the efficacy of tribal efforts to preserve its culture and protect its health The River Is in Us offers important lessons for improving environmental health research and health care plus detailed insights into the struggles and methods of indigenous groups This moving uplifting book is an essential read for anyone interested in Native Americans social justice and the pollutants contaminating our food water and bodies
