Rosa Lewis An Exceptional Edwardian:

Rosa Lewis, an Exceptional Edwardian Anthony Masters, 1978 The story of the Edwardian woman cook upon whose life the PBS television mini series The Duchess of Duke Street was based American Jennie: The Remarkable Life of Lady Randolph Churchill Anne Sebba, 2010-12-20 A frank account of the tempestuous life of the American mother of Britain's most important twentieth century politician Brooklyn born Jennie Jerome married into the British aristocracy in 1874 after a three day romance She became Lady Randolph Churchill wife of a maverick politician and mother of the most famous British statesman of the century Jennie Churchill was not merely the most talked about and controversial American woman in London society she was a dynamic behind the scenes political force and a woman of sexual fearlessness at a time when women were not supposed to be sexually liberated A concert pianist magazine founder and editor and playwright she was also above all a devoted mother to Winston In American Jennie Anne Sebba draws on newly discovered personal correspondences and archives to examine the unusually powerful mutual infatuation between Jennie and her son and to relate the passionate and ultimately tragic career of the woman whom Winston described as having the wine of life in her veins Edwardian England: A Guide to Everyday Life, 1900-1914 Evangeline Holland, 2014-01-12 Second edition of The Pocket Guide to Edwardian England newly revised and expanded The Edwardian Era simplified organized and easy to reference Aimed towards writers of historical fiction though genealogists Downton Abbey fans and the curious alike will find this an excellent starting point for their own research Compiled from lectures and blog posts on Edwardian Promenade as well as 70% more original content Edwardian England A Guide to Everyday Life 1900 1914 poses to give a entry level but thorough look at the time period made popular by Downton Abbey and Mr Selfridge Shared Histories Virginia Dickinson Reynolds, Virginia Potter, 2011-08-15 A mother writes to her faraway daughter I keep all your letters Someday you might want to do something with them Those words foretold Shared Histories although neither woman would live to see the book This is the first known published collection of letters to include correspondence between civilian family members on both sides of the Atlantic during World War II Separated for most of their adult lives Virginia Dickinson Reynolds and her daughter Virginia Potter wrote to each other for nearly forty years This selection from their long exchange is filled with unguarded reflections on current events fashion food travel domestic life leisure and the upheaval of war Readers will also encounter various prominent English people and members of the aristocracy the American southern elite and such familiar names as Martha Graham Walt Disney and Ellen Glasgow Both women were born in Richmond Virginia and raised in privileged circumstances Virginia Dickinson Reynolds was the child of a Confederate Army officer and was also a distant cousin of poet Emily Dickinson Virginia Potter traveled widely until she married an English Army officer and settled in his country The women's intensely close bond shines through Shared Histories as from time to time do their class conscious Anglo Saxon sensibilities Sometimes poignant sometimes bristling always candid these letters portray private worlds of tradition confronted with global change      Share Trading, Fraud and the Crash of 1929 Chris Swinson, 2019-04-02 This is a comprehensive biography of Clarence Charles Hatry 1888 1965 an enigmatic and charismatic public figure Hatry was the son of Jewish immigrant parents who became a company promoter and whose companies collapsed in 1929 leading to a crash on the London stock exchange He was brought down by a desperate fraud At his trial three months later the judge said that he could not imagine a worse crime Analysing transactions in detail the book reveals Hatry's brilliance as a manipulator and a world class networker and persuader It also demonstrates his vain belief in his ability to overcome any risks and his insecurity which led him to surround himself with sycophants who would not challenge his ideas It shows how others used Hatry to make money and as he destroyed himself as a scapegoat who distracted from the City's failings Despite his deepest ambitions he remained an outsider Until now there has been no full biography of Clarence Hatry which may be attributable to the lack of records as his business papers are believed all to have been destroyed This comprehensive biography is based on examination of the memoirs of Hatry's contemporaries the archives and records which they and their companies preserved and press reports of Hatry's activities Marking the 90th anniversary of Hatry's collapse this book will be important reading for academics and researchers looking to gain a greater understanding of the context of the 1929 crash or of financial crises generally

The Unfinished Palazzo: Life, Love and Art in Venice: The Stories of Luisa Casati, Doris Castlerosse and Peggy Guggenheim Judith Mackrell, 2017-09-05 The story of Venice's Unfinished Palazzo told through the lives of three of its most unconventional passionate and fascinating residents Luisa Casati Doris Castlerosse and Peggy Guggenheim Commissioned in 1750 the Palazzo Venier was planned as a testimony to the power and wealth of a great Venetian family but the fortunes of the Veniers waned midconstruction and the project was abandoned Empty unfinished and decaying the building was considered an eyesore until the early twentieth century when it attracted and inspired three women at key moments in their lives Luisa Casati Doris Castlerosse and Peggy Guggenheim Luisa Casati turned her home into an aesthete's fantasy where she hosted parties as extravagant and decadent as Renaissance court operas spending small fortunes on her own costumes in her quest to become a living work of art and muse Doris Castlerosse strove to make her mark in London and Venice during the glamorous hedonistic interwar years hosting film stars and royalty at glittering parties In the postwar years Peggy Guggenheim turned the Palazzo into a model of modernist simplicity that served as a home for her exquisite collection of modern art that today draws tourists and art lovers from around the world Each vivid life story is accompanied by previously unseen materials from family archives weaving an intricate history of these legendary art world eccentrics

    'Gilded Prostitution' Maureen E. Montgomery, 2013-08-06 This book examines the marriages of British peers to American women within the context of the opening up of London and New York society and the growing competitiveness for high social status In London American women were often blamed for the growing hedonism and materialism of smart society and for poaching in the marriage market They were invariably described as frivolous vain and calculating a description which

points to the simmering anti American sentiment in Britain It was even suggested that titled Americans were having a detrimental effect on the British peerage because of their failure to produce male heirs A brilliant analysis of the reasons why American women were viewed pejoratively not only in terms of anti American feeling and the social transformation of the British upper class but also the threat of women who did not appear to conform to aristocratic notions of a peeress's duties as a wife and mother Originally published in 1989 this book has unique appendices listing details of peer marriages in this 1870-1914 period Raymond Carr María Jesús González Hernández, 2013 Published in collaboration with the Canada Blanch Centre for Contemporary Spanish Studies Dining with the Victorians Emma Kay, 2015-10-15 Journey through Britain's food history and discover the fascinating gruesome and wonderful culinary traditions of the Victorians What She Ate Laura Shapiro, 2017-07-25 A Washington Post Notable Nonfiction Book of 2017 One of NPR Fresh Air's Books to Close Out a Chaotic 2017 NPR's Book Concierge Guide To 2017's Great Reads How lucky for us readers that Shapiro has been listening so perceptively for decades to the language of food Maureen Corrigan NPR Fresh Air Six mouthwatering Eater.com short takes on six famous women through the lens of food and cooking probing how their attitudes toward food can offer surprising new insights into their lives and our own Everyone eats and food touches on every aspect of our lives social and cultural personal and political Yet most biographers pay little attention to people's attitudes toward food as if the great and notable never bothered to think about what was on the plate in front of them Once we ask how somebody relates to food we find a whole world of different and provocative ways to understand her Food stories can be as intimate and revealing as stories of love work or coming of age Each of the six women in this entertaining group portrait was famous in her time and most are still famous in ours but until now nobody has told their lives from the point of view of the kitchen and the table What She Ate is a lively and unpredictable array of women what they have in common with one another and us is a powerful relationship with food They include Dorothy Wordsworth whose food story transforms our picture of the life she shared with her famous poet brother Rosa Lewis the Edwardian era Cockney caterer who cooked her way up the social ladder Eleanor Roosevelt First Lady and rigorous protector of the worst cook in White House history Eva Braun Hitler's mistress who challenges our warm associations of food family and table Barbara Pym whose witty books upend a host of stereotypes about postwar British cuisine and Helen Gurley Brown the editor of Cosmopolitan whose commitment to having it all meant having almost nothing on the plate except a supersized portion of diet gelatin Escoffier Kenneth James, 2006-08-01 The most famous chef of them all bar none including Jamie Oliver It is hard to overemphasise his importance to fine cuisine We derive the word scoff from his name of course The King is Dead, Long Live the King! Martin Williams, 2023-04-13 A Country Life Best Book of the Year 2023 The Times Book of the Week I could read Martin Williams all day He is a staggeringly communicative historian this book throws shafts of light on recent history almost repeating itself giving vivid glimpses into monarchy and the way things were and are Compulsory reading Dame Joanna Lumley A social historian and gifted storyteller

Williams is by turns moved and amused as he reflects on the poignancy and rituals of a nation united pretty much in grief The Times adroitly written told by Williams so skilfully and with such silken prose that it is a pleasure to spend the time inside his head The Oldie delightful details to rekindle this vanished epoch Country Life Vivid panoramic skilfully written this gripping book is an insight into a time and an age Kate Williams Martin Williams has written a fascinating and absorbing account of the Edwardian era the demise and funeral of the King and the iconic Black Ascot that followed it He has brought a lost age grippingly to light Hugo Vickers witty informative and immensely readable captures the spirit of the times Miranda Seymour A tour de force Dr Kate Strasdin We tend to think that Cecil Beaton single handedly invented the Edwardian Age Martin Williams shows us succinctly and elegantly that perhaps it was the King himself Nicky Haslam moves with unflagging wit and style A fresh perspective on a brilliant life and a lost era beautifully evoked it is impossible not to be swept away by this gem of a book Pure pleasure Robin Muir a must have a wonderful and thought provoking read The Historian a book about a changed and changing world trying to cope with even more change beautifully written and timely The Catholic Herald resonates powerfully with our own recent experience of collective mourning Williams describes the king's gradual demise in evocative detail Air Mail Unforgettable as it was the public response to the death of Queen Elizabeth II in September 2022 was not without precedent When her great grandfather King Edward VII glamorous cosmopolitan and extraordinarily popular died in May 1910 the political social and cultural anxieties of a nation in turmoil were temporarily set aside during a summer of intense and ritualised mourning In The King is Dead Long Live the King Martin Williams charts a period of tension and transition as one era slipped away and another took shape Witnessed by a diverse but interconnected cast of characters crowned heads and Cabinet ministers debutantes and suffragettes artists and murderers here is the swansong of Edwardian Britain Set against a backdrop of bereavement and parliamentary crisis overshadowed by the gathering clouds of war we see a people caught between past and future tradition and modernity as they unite to bid farewell to a much loved monarch who had personified his age From Buckingham Palace to Bloomsbury and from the lying in state in Westminster Hall to a now legendary Royal Ascot enveloped in black this is a vivid evocation of a world on the brink of seismic upheaval Maud Coleno's Daughter John Dann, 2017-01-24 One woman's transformation from ingénue chorus girl to wealthy Mayfair hostess whilst hiding some dark secrets Dorothy Hartman known to her intimates as Dodo a glamorous society hostess and a successful businesswoman had a hidden past Her missing earlier life had been shrouded in mystery a deceit she deliberately cultivated The love child of a Cockney music hall artiste born in poverty during the Victorian Fin de Siècle Dodo emerged as an attractive West End chorus girl compelled to marry an army officer twice her age during the First World War Her aristocratic second husband disinherited her on his death bed following a string of affairs Dodo's next marriage secured a partnership in Lendrum Hartman the most prestigious transatlantic car dealership in London patronised by royalty including the Princes of Wales and Wallis Simpson Using her theatrical charm Dodo seamlessly moved amongst fashionable society becoming a regular passenger to America during the golden age of sea travel a renowned Mayfair hostess whose guests were drawn from the theatrical world such as Charlie Chaplin Frances Day and Valerie Hobson including business and political circles like Jack Profumo She rode with the Beaufort hunt which included Britain's top wartime spymaster Maud Coleno's Daughter contains largely unpublished material about a once well known now forgotten Mayfair hostess who succeeded in a man's world despite disadvantage of birth It throws another perspective on little known aspects of some influential British and American business people involved in the smoke and mirrors world of pre war political espionage set against country house balls and high society The book will appeal to fans of biographies and rags to riches stories
