Philosophy and Christianity George Sylvester Morris, 1883 The Theological Project of Modernism Kevin Hector, 2015 Modernism s theological project was an attempt to explain two things firstly how faith might enable persons to experience their lives as hanging together even in the face of disintegrating forces like injustice tragedy and luck and secondly how one could see such faith and so a life held together by it as self expressive Modern theologians such as Kant Schleiermacher Hegel Ritschl and Tillich thus offer accounts of how one s life would have to hang together such that one could identify with it of the oppositions which stand in the way of such hanging together of God as the one by whom oppositions are overcome such that one can have faith that one s life ultimately hangs together and of what such faith would have to be like in order for one to identify with it too So understood modern theology not only sheds light on faith s potential role in enabling persons to identify with their lives but stands in unexpected continuity with contemporary contextual theologies This book offers clear careful readings of modernism s key figures in order to explain their relevance to practical concerns and to contemporary understandings of faith
