Sensing Transformation Poetic Reflections:

Sensing Transformation Eugene Gizzi, 2004-08-01 A Serpentine Gesture Elisabeth W. Joyce, 2024-12-15 In A Serpentine Gesture John Ashbery's Poetry and Phenomenology Elisabeth W. Joyce examines John Ashbery's poetry through the lens of Maurice Merleau-Ponty's conception of phenomenology. For Merleau-Ponty, perception is a process through which people reach outside of themselves for sensory information, map that experiential information against what they have previously encountered, and what is culturally inculcated in them, and articulate shifts in their internal repositories through encounters with new material. Joyce argues that this process reflects Ashbery's classic statement of poetry being the experience of experience. Through incisive close readings of Ashbery's poems, Joyce examines how he explores this process of continual reverberation between what is sensed and what is considered about that sensation, and ultimately how he renders these perceptions into the serpentine gesture of language.

Psyche's Yearning Gillian Ross, 2010-11 PSYCHE'S YEARNING: Radical Perspectives on Self Transformation By Gillian Ross. Humankind is being called to bring forth a new level of consciousness, a new story around what it means to be human. Gillian Ross has written a rich evocative book about the journey towards liberation. She emerges from the lived depth of her own sacred autobiography, cooked in the knowing of her heart and guided by the great books as read and understood by her wise eyes. It is both the story of us all and the story of your sacred autobiography. Read it and be inspired to realize the infinite joy, obligation, and depth of your Unique Self. Dr. Marc Gafni, best-selling author, rabbi, and teacher of Kabbalah and World Spirituality, besieged by the messages of consumerism, disillusioned with traditional religion, and faced with the possibility of planetary disaster, our souls are more than ever yearning for purpose and a sense of wholeness and holiness in a fragmented secular world. Weaving her text around the symbolic wisdom of the ancient Greek myth of Psyche and Eros, author Gillian Ross offers personally inspired guidance and inspiration on ways of transcending the pain and limitations of our alienated ego. She invites us to step into the transpersonal domain of the mystic and embrace our identity as a unique expression of a Transcendent Evolutionary Impulse. The Introduction sets the stage for this with a quotation from the popular Buddhist teacher Sogyal Rinpoche: the aim of life is to embody the Transcendent. It could be said that the rest of the book explores what that means and how it can be achieved. Beginning with her own journey of transformation, including recovery from alcohol abuse, Gillian powerfully conveys the message that an awakened consciousness is no longer the prerogative of the saint or the shaman, but a birthright we must all claim if we are to find the collective will to serve the earth community and its myriad life forms with wisdom, compassion, and joy. Psyche's Yearning is an inspirational contribution to the growing recognition of the power of meditation as a source of health and wellbeing. Dr. Samuel Sagan, founder of the Clairvision School of Meditation, is the author of several successful relaxation, meditation, and yoga CDs and two books on spiritual evolution: The Search for the Pearl and Is There Life Before Death. Gillian migrated to Australia in the sixties. She lives on a 40-acre property of great natural beauty in Northern New South Wales which she is nurturing as a place for spiritual retreats and as an educational Centre for Conscious Evolution Psyche's Yearning can be bought through on line outlets such as Amazon Books but can also be purchased directly from Gillian for 20 inclusive of postage anywhere in Australia A free download of the introduction and prologue is available from her website www.drgillianross.com The Aesthetics of Development John Clammer, Ananta Kumar Giri, 2017-11-01 Through a unique range of theoretical and practical case studies this collection considers the relationship between the arts understood as the visual arts crafts theatre dance and literature and development creating both a bridge between them that is rarely explored and filling in concrete ways the content of the culture part of the equation culture and development It includes manifestations of culture and the ways in which they relate to development and in turn contribute to such pressing issues as poverty alleviation concern for the environment health empowerment and identity formation It shows how the arts are an essential part of the concrete understanding of culture and as such a significant part of development thinking including the development of culture and not only of culture as an instrumental means to promote other development goals

"this need to dance / this need to kneel" Michael P. Murphy, Melissa Bradshaw, 2019-09-17 That Denise Levertov 1923-97 was one of the most pioneering and skilled poets of her generation is beyond dispute Her masterly use of language innovative experimentations with organic form and the political acuity disclosed by her activist poetry are well marked by critical communities But it is also quite clear that the poems Levertov wrote in the last twenty years of her life with their more explicit focus on theological themes and subjects are among the best poems written on religious experience of any century let alone the twentieth The collection of essays gathered here shed vital light on this neglected aspect of Levertov studies so as to expand and enrich the scope of critical engagement In a mixture of theoretical considerations and close readings these essays provide valuable reflections about the complex relationship between poetry and belief and offer philosophically robust insights into different styles of poetic imagination The abiding hope is to broaden the terrain for discussions in twenty first century theology literary theory poetics and aesthetics honoring immanence exploring transcendence and dwelling with integrity within the spaces between Sensing China Shengqing Wu, Xuelei Huang, 2022-08-16 This book presents the first collection of studies of the senses and sensory experiences in China filling a gap in sensory research while offering new approaches to Chinese Studies Bringing together 12 chapters by literary scholars and historians this book critically interrogates the deeply rooted meanings that the senses have coded in Chinese culture and society Built on an exploration of the sensorium in early Chinese thought and late imperial literature this book reveals the sensory manifestations of societal change and cultural transformation in China from the nineteenth century to the present day It features in depth examinations of a variety of concepts representations and practices including aural and visual paradigms in ancient Chinese texts odours in Ming Qing literature and Republican Shanghai the tactility of kissing and the sonic culture of community singing in the Republican era the socialist sensorium in art propaganda memory and embodied experiences and contemporary era multisensory cultural practices Engaging with the exciting sensory turn this original work makes a unique contribution to the world history of the senses and will be a valuable resource to scholars and students of Chinese Literature History Cultural Studies and Media The Judgment of Sense David Summers,1990-02-23 With the rise of naturalism in the art of the late Middle Ages and the Renaissance there developed an extensive and diverse literature about art which helped to explain justify and shape its new aims In this book David Summers provides an investigation of the philosophical and psychological notions invoked in this new theory and criticism From a thorough examination of the sources he shows how the medieval language of mental discourse derived from an understanding of classical thought

Critical Reflection, Spirituality and Professional Practice Cheryl Hunt, 2021-06-24 This book explores the concept and facilitation of critical reflection and its implications for professional practice It draws on the author s own extensive experience to demonstrate how reflective processes involving metaphor and imagery as well as critique can be used not only to understand and articulate key values underpinning professional practice and to generate new theoretical models but to explore one s own worldview including the ultimate question Who am I The author incorporates practical examples of reflection through writing and other reflective techniques which illustrate how ideas about critical reflection transformative learning authenticity and spirituality are intricately entwined within theories and practices of adult learning and professional development The book highlights the importance of understanding the relationship between personal worldviews values and professional practice It draws on the concepts of vocation and professional psychological wellbeing to consider what it means to act authentically as a professional within an audit culture The book will be invaluable for practitioners academics and students interested in critical reflection educational inquiry autoethnography and the use of the self in and as research the nature and use of metaphor and the development of worldviews

Time, Space and the Human Body: An Interdisciplinary Look Rafael F. Narváez, Leslie R. Malland, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Concerns about the human body and soul and their relationship to the world around us are as old as Western Culture itself Beyond philosophy and theology these sorts of preoccupations have also marked the arts literature and poetry and to be sure they have influenced Western culture and have marked westerners imaginations and our everyday understanding of human nature This book considers various ways in which the body is and has been addressed and depicted over time and it is also a reflection on the ways in which the very spaces that we design and inhabit likewise reflect perceived ideas and misconceptions about the human body

Mirrors and Mirroring from Antiquity to the Early

Modern Period Maria Gerolemou, Lilia Diamantopoulou, 2020-01-09 This volume examines mirrors and mirroring through a series of multidisciplinary essays especially focusing on the intersection between technological and cultural dynamics of mirrors The international scholars brought together here explore critical questions around the mirror as artefact and the phenomenon of mirroring Beside the common visual registration of an action or inaction in a two dimensional and reversed form various types of mirrors often possess special abilities which can produce a distorted picture of reality serving in this way illusion and falsehood Part I looks at a selection of theory from ancient writers demonstrating the concern to explore these same questions in antiquity Part II considers the role reflections can play in forming ideas of gender and identity Beyond the everyday we see in Part III how oracular mirrors and magical mirrors reveal the invisible divine prosthetics that allow us to look where the eye cannot reach Finally Part IV considers mirrors roles in displaying the visible and invisible in antiquity and since

Sensing the Everyday C. Nadia Seremetakis, 2019-03-18 Sensing the Everyday is a multi sited ethnographic inquiry based on fieldwork experiences and sharp everyday observations in the era of crisis Blending sophisticated theoretical analyses with original ethnographic data C Nadia Seremetakis journeys from Greece to Vienna Edinburgh Albania Ireland and beyond Social crisis is seen through its transnational multiplication of borders thresholds and margins divisions and localities as linguistic bodily sensory and performative sites of the quotidian in process The book proposes everyday life not as a sanctuary or as a recessed zone distanced from the structural violence of the state and the market but as a condition of impossibility unable to be lived as such yet still an encapsulating habitus There the impossibility of the quotidian is concretized as fragmentary and fragmenting material forces Seremetakis weaves together topics as diverse as borders and bodies history and death the earth and the senses language and affect violence and public culture the sociality of dreaming and the spatialization of the traumatic in a journey through antiphonic witnessing and memory Her montage explores various ways of juxtaposing reality with the unreal and the imaginal to expose the fictioning of social reality The book locates her approach to ethnography and the native ethnographer in wider anthropological and philosophical debates and proposes a dialogical interfacing of theory and practice the translation of academic knowledge to public knowledge

The Time of Unrememberable Being Klaus P. Mortensen, 1998 This study views the early work of William Wordsworth as partaking in a general Western European cultural movement in which the realm of the numinous is translocated from heaven to earth grand Nature and from there further on into Man s inner Nature In this metaphysical implosion the concept of the Sublime gradually comes to signify the mental godlike powers of Man

The Edinburgh History of Scottish Literature: Modern transformations: new identities (from 1918) Ian Brown, 2007 In almost a century since the First World War ended Scotland has been transformed in many rich ways Its literature has been an essential part of that transformation The third volume of the History explores the vibrancy of modern Scottish literature in all its forms and languages Giving full credit to writing in Gaelic and by the Scottish diaspora it brings together the best contemporary critical insights from three continents It provides an accessible and refreshing picture of both the varieties of Scottish literatures and the kaleidoscopic versions of Scotland that mark literary developments since 1918
