Septembers Shadows:

September's Shadows Edward L. Allum, 2002 September's Shadows is a story about a young man from Detroit Michigan who upon graduation from high school in 1968 is forced to make the most agonizing and important decision of his lifetime He must either report for induction in to the Military and serve his country during the Vietnam War or go on the run and possibly leave the country for Canada September's Shadows will touch you with its portrayal of the MacMurry family its values and its history and their willingness to love and support each other through very difficult times September's Shadows will allow the reader to experience the pain and anguish that runs through Lewis MacMurry's soul as he commits a most reprehensible sin September's Shadows will transport the reader on a journey of hope and forgiveness as Lewis MacMurry faces new challenges and many obstacles along the way September's Shadows will take the reader on a scenic tour of Michigan's shoreline and many of its small towns and villages sharing their nautical heritage and their reliance on the Great Lakes Shipping and tourism September's Shadows will introduce you to the Robertson family and the impact they had in Lewis's life and the love of his life Mary September's Shadows will excite the reader with life on the Great Lakes the challenges and tragedies that the weather water and luck bring with them September's Shadows presents the reader with many twists and turns that confront Lewis on a daily basis in his search for a place to settle down and find happiness September's Shadows reflects on the politics of America in the mid to late seventies and the effect it had on over 10 000 draft dodgers
