explains and for that reason cannot kill himself Augusto asserts that he exists even though he acknowledges internally that he doesn't and threatens Unamuno by telling him that he is not the ultimate author Augusto reminds Unamuno that he might be just one of God's dreams Augusto dies and the book ends with the author himself debating to himself about bringing back the character of Augusto He establishes however that this would not be feasible Following on from his translation of Abel Sanchez John Macklin's edition provides a much needed new English translation alongside the Spanish text together with a substantial introduction
