Bishop,Johan Leemans,Hajnalka Tamas,2016-06-21 The studies collected in Preaching after Easter examine the festal history and homiletics of Mid Pentecost Ascension and Pentecost in the late antique Mediterranean world Articles on individual sermons or the work of individual preachers such as John Chrysostom Augustine of Hippo Peter Chrysologus Leo the Great and Severus of Antioch exhibit the richness of late antique festal preaching Questions of authenticity heresiology and theological exegetical or liturgical history are addressed with methodological rigor Complementary contributions that deal with ancient Jewish Christian dialogue art historical reception and contemporary liturgical theology illustrate the wide ramifications of ancient Christian festal practice Students and scholars of these feasts and the interpretive traditions devoted to them will find this volume to be an indispensable source of information and analysis Œuvres françaises Olivier Maillard,1877 Man Made God Luc Ferry,2002-05-15 What happens when the meaning of life based on a divine revelation no longer makes sense Does the quest for transcendence end in the pursuit of material success and self absorption Luc Ferry argues that modernity and the emergence of secular humanism in Europe since the eighteenth century have not killed the search for meaning and the sacred or even the idea of God but rather have transformed both through a dual process the humanization of the divine and the divinization of the human Ferry sees evidence for the first of these in the Catholic Church's attempts to counter the growing rejection of dogmatism and to translate the religious tradition into contemporary language The second he traces to the birth of modern love and humanitarianism both of which demand a concern for others and even self sacrifice in defense of values that transcend life itself Ferry concludes with a powerful statement in favor of what he calls transcendental humanism a concept that for the first time in human history gives us access to a genuine spirituality rooted in human beings instead of the divine
