Millet and His Barbizon Contemporaries, 1985 Millet and His Barbizon Contemporaries, 1985 Millet and His Barbizon Contemporaries Jean-François Millet (französischer Maler), 1985 Artists in Residence Dana Micucci, 2001 This illustrated guide to the homes and studios of eight 19th century painters provides intimate insights into their work and personalities as well as day long itineraries in and around Paris Henry James and the Art of Impressions John Scholar, 2020-05-21 Henry James criticized the impressionism that was revolutionizing French painting and fiction He satirized the British aesthetic movement whose keystone was impressionist criticism So why time and again in important parts of his literary work did James use the word impression Henry James and the Art of Impressions argues that James tried to wrest the impression from the impressionists and to recast it in his own art of the novel Interdisciplinary in its range philosophical and literary in its focus the book shows the place of James s work within the wider cultural history of impressionism It draws on painting philosophy psychology literature and critical theory to examine James s art criticism early literary criticism travel writing reflections on his own fiction and the three great novels of his major phase The Ambassadors The Wings of the Dove and The Golden Bowl It shows how the language of impressions enables James to represent the most intense moments of consciousness of his characters It argues that the Jamesian impression is best understood as a family of related ideas bound together by James s attempt to reconcile the novel s value as a mimetic form with its value as a transformative creative activity Nationalism in Contemporary Western European Cinema James Harvey, 2018-06-21 This book investigates screen representations of 21st century nationalism arguably the most urgent and apparent phenomenon in the Western world today The chapters explore recurrent thematic and stylistic features of 21st century western European cinema and analyse the ways in which film responds to contemporary developments of mounting tensions and increasing hostilities to difference The collection blends incisive sociological and historical engagement with close textual analysis of many types of screen media including popular cinema art house productions low budget independent work documentary and video installation Identifying motifs of nationhood and indigeneity throughout the contributors of this volume present important perspectives and a timely cultural response to the contemporary moment of nationalism Max Liebermann and International Modernism Marion Deshmukh, Françoise Forster-Hahn, Barbara Gaehtgens, 2011-05 Although Max Liebermann 1847 1935 began his career as a realist painter depicting scenes of rural labor Dutch village life and the countryside by the turn of the century his paintings had evolved into colorful images of bourgeois life and leisure that critics associated with French impressionism During a time of increasing German nationalism his paintings and cultural politics sparked numerous aesthetic and political controversies His eminent career and his reputation intersected with the dramatic and violent events of modern German history from the Empire to the Third Reich The Nazis persecution of modern and Jewish artists led to the obliteration of Liebermann from the narratives of modern art but this volume contributes to the recent wave of scholarly literature that works to recover his role and his oeuvre from an international perspective Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition The Idler ,1898 Contemporary Dates George Thomas Earl of Albemarle, 1900 The Edinburgh Review ,1909 The Idler Magazine Jerome Klapka Jerome, Robert Barr, 1898

Unruly Nature Scott Allan, Edouard Kopp, Line Clausen Pedersen, 2016-06-21 Thodore Rousseau 1812 1867 arguably the most important French landscape artist of the mid nineteenth century and a leader of the so called Barbizon School occupies a crucial moment of transition from the idealizing effects of academic painting to the radically modern vision of the Impressionists He was an experimental artist who rejected the traditional historical biblical or literary subject matter in favor of unruly nature a Romantic naturalism that confounded his contemporaries with its bizarre compositional and coloristic innovations Lavishly illustrated and thoroughly documented this volume includes five essays by experts in the field Scott Allan and Edouard Kopp alternately examine Rousseau's diverse techniques and working procedures as a painter and as a draftsman as well as his art's mixed economic and critical fortunes on the art market and at the Salon Line Clausen Pedersen's essay focuses on Mont Blanc Seen from La Faucille Storm Effect an early touchstone for the artist and a spectacular example of the Romantic sublime in the Ny Carlsberg Glyptotek's collection This catalogue accompanies an eponymous exhibition on view at the J Paul Getty Museum from June 21 to September 11 2016 and at the Ny Carlsberg Glyptotek from October 13 2016 to January 8 2017 Academy Notes Buffalo Fine Arts Academy, 1905 Catholic World ,1890

Edward Armitage RA Jill R Armitage, 2017-07-18 Edward Armitage was a highly esteemed 19th century artist who lived and worked at a time when the social fabric of Britain was being transformed by the Industrial Revolution and attitudes towards art were changing in favour of genres more appealing to the emerging middle classes Coinciding with the 2017 bicentenary of Armitage's birth the book is based on Jill Armitage's extensive research into her relative's life and work Born in 1817 to a family of wealthy northern industrialists Edward Armitage trained in Bohemian Paris before making his name in Britain as one of the artists chosen to redecorate the new Houses of Parliament He was one of the first artists to make the long journey to the Crimea during the war against Russia and one of the first to include recent archaeological discoveries in his paintings He was appointed Professor and Lecturer on Painting at the Royal Academy in 1875 where his outspoken views were sometimes controversial But as Armitage grew older his serious French style of painting became increasingly unfashionable In this well illustrated biography Jill provides the first comprehensive account of Armitage s life and work with detailed references to the social historical and cultural context in which he lived The book will appeal to fans of Armitage s paintings as well as those with an interest in art history and the Victorian era Foreign Influences in American Life
