Strategic Occidentalism Ignacio M. Sanchez Prado, 2018-08-15 Strategic Occidentalism examines the transformation in both aesthetics and infrastructure of Mexican fiction since the late 1970s During this time a framework has emerged characterized by the corporatization of publishing a frictional relationship between Mexican literature and global book markets and the desire of Mexican writers to break from dominant models of national culture In the course of this analysis Ignacio M Sanchez Prado engages with theories of world literature proposing that world literature is a construction produced at various levels including the national that must be studied from its material conditions of production in specific sites In particular he argues that Mexican writers have engaged in a strategic Occidentalism in which their idiosyncratic connections with world literature have responded to dynamics different from those identified by world systems or diffusionist theorists Strategic Occidentalism identifies three scenes in which a cosmopolitan aesthetics in Mexican world literature has been produced Sergio Pitol's translation of Eastern European and marginal British modernist literature the emergence of the Crack group as a polemic against the legacies of magical realism and the challenges of writers like Carmen Boullosa Cristina Rivera Garza and Ana García Bergua to the roles traditionally assigned to Latin American writers in world literature

Otra modernidad es posible Humberto Beck, 2017-07-10 Las ideas de un filósofo adelantado a su tiempo que alertó sobre los peligros del capitalismo salvaje El supuesto progreso tecnológico industrial y social de las sociedades modernas en vez de liberar a los individuos los ha atado a nuevas servidumbres volviéndolos seres menos creativos y autónomos Las escuelas uniforman el pensamiento y limitan otros modos y espacios para el aprendizaje Los coches proveen una sensación de libertad a quienes los poseen pero en realidad se convierten en una pesada carga para sus dueños quienes deben trabajar para mantenerlos y para las ciudades donde los peatones pasan a ser ciudadanos de segunda. Estas son algunas de las ideas del filósofo Iván Illich, uno de los pensadores más singulares del siglo XX. Entre los años setenta y ochenta del pasado siglo construyó una de las críticas más originales de la modernidad occidental y sus reflexiones sobre la educación, la energía, la movilidad, el medio ambiente y la tecnología son hoy en día igual de pertinentes. Este libro revisa capítulo a capítulo las ideas y propuestas más importantes del filósofo austriaco que propone, contra esa modernidad en la que las herramientas han tomado el control de los hombres, una sociedad convivencial. Llamo sociedad convivencial a aquella en la que la herramienta moderna está al servicio de la persona integrada a la colectividad y no al servicio de un cuerpo de especialistas. Convivencial es la sociedad en la que el hombre controla las herramientas. Además de glosar y analizar las ideas de Illich, el libro se ocupa de contrastar estas ideas con otras teorías contemporáneas y de demostrar su radical vigencia. Illich no solo hace un análisis impecable de las estructuras de dominación en el momento histórico en que nos encontramos, sino que además predice con escalofriante exactitud la crisis en que estamos inmersos desde 2008.

Culturamas Political Ecology of Agriculture Omar Felipe Giraldo, 2019-02-28. This study discusses an original proposal aimed at critically analyzing the power relations that exist in contemporary agriculture. The author endeavors herein to clarify some of the strategies that industrial agribusiness in collusion with the state and multilateral structures sets in motion in order to functionalize the lives of millions of farmers so that their bodies, enunciations and sensibilities can be repurposed in accordance with the dynamics of capital accumulation. The argument is based on the idea that agro-extractivism cannot be thought of exclusively as an economic, political and technological system, but as a complex interweaving of cultural meanings, aesthetics and affections which amalgamated under the abstract name of development act as a support for the whole system's scaffolding. The book also explores the other side of the coin, describing how and under what conditions social movements are responding to the calamities generated by this model. The central thesis is that many ongoing agroecological processes are providing one of the most interesting guidelines at present for visualizing transitions towards post-development, post-extractivism and the construction of multiple worlds beyond the sphere of capital. Political ecology of agriculture joins the calls that question the cultural project of modernity and the predatory sense imposed by the globalized food empire and invites recognition of the importance of agroecology in the context of the end of the fossil fuel era and the likely collapse of our industry-based civilization.

Obra reunida de Patricia Shaw Patricia Shaw, 2000 La vanguardia peregrina. El escritor cubano, la tradición y el exilio Rafael Rojas, 2014-01-01. Los ensayos incluidos en este libro revelan que el exilio para muchos escritores cubanos representa a nivel cultural una ruptura y oportunidad de expansión, no sin muchas y variadas dificultades. En este análisis, Rafael Rojas logra retratar a Cuba como un mar de posibilidades literarias e ideológicas; la isla es metáfora infinita de tránsito entre vanguardia y tradición.
