Omon Ra:

Omon Ra Viktor Pelevin, 1998 A satire about the Soviet space program finds Omon who has dreamed of space flight all of his life enrolled as a cosmonaut only to learn that his task will be piloting a supposedly unmanned lunar vehicle to the Moon and remaining there to die Literature, History and Identity in Post-Soviet Russia, 1991-2006 Rosalind J.

Marsh, 2007 The aim of this book is to explore some of the main pre occupations of literature culture and criticism dealing with historical themes in post Soviet Russia focusing mainly on literature in the years 1991 to 2006 introd Omon Ra (in Russian Language). , 2011 Endquote Marina Balina, Nancy Condee, Evgeniï Aleksandrovich Dobrenko, 2000 Sots art the mock use of the Soviet ideological clichés of mass culture originated in Soviet nonconformist art of the early 1970s An original and provocative guide Endquote Sots Art Literature and Soviet Grand Style examines the conceptual aspect of sots art sots art poetry and sots art prose and discusses where these still vital intellectual currents may lead Literature in Post-Communist Russia and Eastern Europe Rajendra Anand Chitnis, 2004-11-10 This book considers Russian Czech and Slovak fiction in the late communist and early post communist periods It focuses on the most innovative trend to emerge in this period on those writers who during and after the collapse of communism characterised themselves as liberators of literature It shows how these writers in their fiction and critical work reacted against the politicisation of literature by Marxist Leninist and dissident ideologues rejecting the conventional perception of literature as moral teacher and redefining the nature and purpose of writing The book demonstrates how this quest enacted in the works of these writers served for many critics and readers as a metaphor for the wider disorientation and crisis precipitated by the collapse of communism

Cosmonaut Cathleen S. Lewis, 2023-08-08 Examining material and cultural representations of the cosmonaut program Cathleen Lewis discusses how the public image of the Soviet cosmonaut developed beginning in the 1950s and the ways this icon has been reinterpreted throughout the years and in contemporary Russia L'écriture du bonheur dans le roman contemporain Ruth Amar, 2011-01-18 Through the ages the pursuit of Happiness has been at the heart of the needs and desires each individual would seek to fulfill while as a concept Happiness has always resonated strongly in poetic as well as philosophical sociological and psychological contexts But what about Happiness today in a world dominated by technology driven by productivity and dictated by efficiency Does Happiness still feature in contemporary fiction in any significant way Or has it perhaps gone underground adopting different guises Would we still call that duty of happiness that Pascal Bruckner saw as present at the second half of the twentieth century a relevant force today Or has it waned perceptibly The articles brought together in this volume seek to work out answers to these and similar questions creatively addressing the imminent risks but also eagerly following up the intriguing possibilities one encounters when interrogating Happiness in the contemporary novel Originally based on an international conference organized at the University of Haifa Israel in May 2010 the volume is structured around the axes we found useful as a basis for the various approaches towards Happiness in Europe

How the Soviet Man Was Unmade Lilya Kaganovsky, 2010-06-15 In Stalinist Russia the idealized Soviet man projected an image of strength virility and unyielding drive in his desire to build a powerful socialist state In monuments posters and other tools of cultural production he became the demigod of Communist ideology But beneath the surface of this fantasy between the lines of texts and in film lurked another figure the wounded body of the heroic invalid the second version of Stalin s New Man In How the Soviet Man Was Unmade Lilya Kaganovsky exposes the paradox behind the myth of the indestructible Stalinist era male In her analysis of social realist literature and cinema she examines the recurring theme of the mutilated male body which appears with startling frequency Kaganovsky views this representation as a thinly veiled statement about the emasculated male condition during the Stalinist era Because the communist state was full of heroes a man could only truly distinguish himself and attain hero status through bodily sacrifice yet in his wounding he was forever reminded that he would be limited in what he could achieve and was expected to remain in a state of continued subservience to Stalin and the party Kaganovsky provides an insightful reevaluation of classic works of the period including the novels of Nikolai Ostrovskii How Steel Was Tempered and Boris Polevoi A Story About a Real Man and films such as Ivan Pyrev's The Party Card Eduard Pentslin's The Fighter Pilots and Mikhail Chiaureli's The Fall of Berlin among others The symbolism of wounding and dismemberment in these works acts as a fissure in the facade of Stalinist cultural production through which we can view the consequences of historic and political trauma

Alien Intelligence and the Pathway to Mars Mary Bennett, 2021-05-04 Details how exploratory probes sent to Mars in the 1970s triggered a plethora of anomalous events particularly crop circles glyphs and how these events are messages from ET intelligence to help us send a human mission to Mars Reveals how the anomalous Cydonia region of Mars fits the Golden Ratio Spiral and looks at links between Martian formations and Earth's ancient sites Illustrated throughout with color photographs maps and diagrams In this full color study based on 25 years of research Mary Bennett explores the ancient and modern connections between Mars and Earth as well as how extraterrestrial intelligences are trying to assist us in constructing a viable spacecraft to take a human crew swiftly and safely to Mars She details how exploratory probes sent to Mars in the 1970s triggered over three decades of anomalous yet scientifically validated events including crop circles or crop glyphs She explains how these formations along with related events encode advanced engineering concepts that offer solutions to the fundamental problems presently hindering long haul crewed spaceflight whether to the Moon Mars or beyond Looking at the red planet itself the author reveals the scientifically verifiable evidence pointing to intelligent design on the surface of Mars specifically in the Cydonia region which fits the Golden Ratio Spiral She looks at the covert links between the Martian formations and Earth's ancient sites such as the Avebury landscape in England and the Giza Complex She describes how agencies concerned with space travel have been quietly mirroring areas of Mars through construction projects here on Earth revealing that many of the ET messages have already been partially decoded Taking you from a complex on Mars to the Teotihuacan pyramids in Mexico from phi ratios to the Pentagon from the Great Pyramid to quantum computing this exploration of the hidden influence of Mars shows that our abilities as a future space faring species began in the ancient past and are now coming to fruition

Russian Love Stories Nadezhda L. Peterson, 2009 Russian Love Stories offers a broad range of narrative styles philosophical agendas and points of view from writers who insist on making love be it familial love or between strangers carnal or platonic real or imagined central in the lives of their characters Although all the authors represented were born in the Soviet period each was molded by a particular set of shared practices and beliefs and all offer a distinctive perspective on their experience The selections are evenly divided between men and women writers and those working in Russia or abroad This anthology is anchored in the period from the middle of the twentieth century to the present offering the reader an insider's view of Soviet and post Soviet life Yet the writer's position sometimes from within that time sometimes from the perspective of a backward glance at the past is emphatically that of an outsider

Mapping Postcommunist Cultures Vitaly Chernetsky, 2007-01-08 In Mapping Postcommunist Cultures Chernetsky argues that Russia and Ukraine exemplify the principal paradigms of post Soviet cultural development In Russia

this has manifested itself in the subversive dismantling of the totalitarian linguistic regime and the foregrounding of previously marginalized subject positions In Ukraine work in these areas shows how the traumas of centuries of colonial oppression are being overcome through the carnivalesque decrowning of ideological dogmas and an affirmation of a new type of community most recently demonstrated in the peaceful Orange Revolution of 2004 Mapping Postcommunist Cultures also critiques the neglect of the former communist world in current models of cultural globalization Fresh Dialogue One Nicholas Blechman, Christoph Niemann, Paul Sahre, 2000-07 Program sponsored by the American Institute of Graphic Arts New York Chapter and held annually since 1984 Literature in Post-communist Russia and Eastern Europe Rajendra A. Chitnis, 2005 This book considers Russian Czech and Slovak fiction in the late communist and early post communist periods It focuses on the most innovative trend to emerge in this period on those writers who during and after the collapse of communism characterised themselves as liberators of literature It shows how these writers in their fiction and critical work reacted against the politicisation of literature by Marxist Leninist and dissident ideologues rejecting the conventional perception of literature as moral teacher and redefining the nature and purpose of writing The book demonstrates how this quest enacted in the works of these writers served for many critics and readers as a metaphor for the wider disorientation and crisis precipitated by the collapse of communism Companion to Victor Pelevin Sofya Khagi, 2022-01-18 Companion to Victor Pelevin a collaborative undertaking by a group of emerging Russianist scholars focuses on the work of one of the most important and hotly debated post Soviet writers It provides a valuable resource to scholars teachers and students including how best to teach Pelevin to university level students and which critical debates invite further investigation The contributors offer new readings of Pelevin texts that cover a broad time span and pay due attention to the philosophical and aesthetic complexities of Pelevin's oeuvre in its development from the early post Soviet years to the second decade of the present millennium Examining all of Pelevin's major works and all Peleviniana currently available in English the Companion aims to prompt further inquiry into this author's intellectually stimulating and socially prescient work Haunted Dreams Jenny Kaminer, 2022-03-15 Haunted Dreams is the first comprehensive study in English devoted to cultural representations of adolescence in Russia since the end of the Soviet Union in 1991 Jenny Kaminer situates these cultural representations within the broader context of European and Anglo American scholarship on adolescence and youth and she explores how Russian writers dramatists and filmmakers have repeatedly turned to the adolescent protagonist in exploring the myriad fissures running through post Soviet society Through close analysis of prose drama television and film this book maps how the adolescent hero has become a locus for multiple anxieties throughout the tumultuous years since the end of the Soviet experiment Kaminer also directly addresses some of the pivotal questions facing scholars of post Soviet Russia Have Soviet cultural models been transcended Or do they continue to dominate The figure of the adolescent an especially potent and enduring source of cultural mythology throughout the Soviet years provides provocative material for exploring these questions In Haunted Dreams Kaminer employs a historical approach to reveal how fantasies of adolescence have mutated and remained constant across the Soviet post Soviet divide focusing on violence temporality and gender and the body Some of the works discussed present the possibility of salvaging the model of the heroic adolescent for a new society Others by contrast relegate this figure to the dustbin of history by evoking disgust or horror or by unmasking the tragic consequences that ensue from the combination of adolescence violence and fantasy

Russia's Carnival Christoph Neidhart, 2003 This colorfully drawn and acutely observed book explores Russia by engaging all our senses Today's Russia smells different from the Soviet Union The country looks and sounds different its touch is different and its food tastes different Thus Christoph Neidhart argues Russia is truly a changed country from the Soviet Union it was little more than a decade ago Russian society is rapidly urbanizing and modernizing as can be perceived by all senses including the awareness of space and the conception of time After almost a century space can be privately owned and freely traded time too has become commodified New role models and new ways to express social status are emerging Russia has become a monetized economy as the old Soviet practice of provision by networking has grown obsolete Russia thus readies itself gradually to grow into a Western style middle class society with a free market and democratic polity The author assesses these rapid changes using the evocative metaphor of the carnival to understand the chaotic inversion of the Communist structure of society He explores the transition's traps and shortcomings such as the privatization of politics and the looting of the state's assets and compares this process to the modernization Western society underwent a century earlier
