Revista del ejército, 1927 American Druggist and Pharmaceutical Record, 1903 Proyectos, realidades y utopías: la transformación de la Farmacia en México (1919-1940) Rogelio Trinidad Godínez Reséndiz, Patricia Aceves Pastrana, 2014-06-16 Este libro analiza el profundo proceso de transformación de la Farmacia ocurrido entre 1919 y 1940 en el escenario de las cambiantes condiciones políticas económicas y sociales del México posrevolucionario. En este periodo tuvo lugar la aparición de la industria farmacéutica en territorio nacional y el predominio en el mercado de la medicina de patente y la especialidad farmacéutica. El farmacéutico despojado de la propiedad de las boticas perdió su papel como preparador de las recetas y se convirtió en un expendedor de los medicamentos envasados muchos de ellos provenientes del extranjero. Asimismo esta obra examina cómo influyeron estos cambios en la transición hacia un nuevo modelo terapéutico y sus efectos sobre las agrupaciones farmacéuticas de la época. En la investigación contenida en sus páginas se utilizaron fuentes de información hasta ahora escasamente consultadas por los historiadores que permiten delinear los rasgos principales de los factores que condujeron a una nueva reestructuración de la Farmacia. Las reflexiones presentadas en torno a los temas anteriores le permitirán al lector entender la situación actual del sector químico farmacéutico mexicano así como la génesis de los diversos problemas que obstaculizan su desarrollo
