former courtesan house patrons and interviews with former officials and reformers Although a courtesan may never set pen to paper we can infer a great deal about her strategizing and working of the system through the vast cautionary literature that tells her customers how not to be defrauded by her Newspaper accounts of the arrests and brief court testimonies of Shanghai streetwalkers let us glimpse the way that prostitutes positioned themselves to get the most they could from the legal system Without recourse to direct speech Hersatter argues these women have nevertheless left an audible trace Central to this study is the investigation of how things are known and later remembered and how later still they are simultaneously apprehended and reinvented by the historian This pioneering work examines prostitution in Shanghai from the late nineteenth century to the present Drawn mostly from the daughters and wives of the working poor and declass elites prostitutes in Shanghai were near the bottom of class and gender hierarchy

Guilty Aesthetic Pleasures Timothy Aubry, 2018-09-03 For scholars invested in supporting or challenging dominant ideologies the beauty of literature seemed frivolous even complicit with social iniquities Suspicion of aesthetics became a way to establish the rigor of one's thought and the purity of one's politics Yet aesthetic pleasure never disappeared Timothy Aubrey writes It went underground

Black Power and the American People Rafael Torrubia, 2016-09-14 While the history of the non violent Civil Rights Movement from Rosa Parks to Martin Luther King is one of the great American stories of the twentieth century the related Black Power movement has taken a more complex path through the nation's history Formed by a multitude of individuals the long history of the Black Power movement stretches before and beyond its political manifestations Beginning with the folk narratives told on the plantation Black Power and the American People charts a course through the iconoclasm of the Harlem Renaissance the battleground of the American campus the struggle and skill of the Negro Leagues the drama of the boxing ring the killing fields of Vietnam and the cold concrete of the penitentiary right up to the Black Lives Matter movement of the present day Tracing these connected cultural expressions through time Black Power and the American People explores the profound legacy of Black Power from its earliest roots to its most futuristic manifestations its long history in American culture and its profound influence on the American imagination

The Aesthetic Pleasures of Girl Teen Film Samantha Colling, 2017-07-27 What is fun about the Hollywood version of girlhood Through re evaluating notions of pleasure and fun The Aesthetic Pleasures of Girl Teen Film forms a study of Hollywood girl teen films between 2000 2010 By tracing the aesthetic connections between films such as Mean Girls Waters 2004 Hairspray Shankman 2007 and Easy A Gluck 2010 the book articulates the specific types of pleasure these films offer as a means to understand how Hollywood creates gendered ideas of fun Rather than condemn these films as guilty pleasures this book sets out to understand how they are designed to create experiences that feel as though they express desires memories or fantasies that girls supposedly share in common Providing a practical model for a new approach to cinematic pleasures The Aesthetic Pleasures of Girl Teen Film proposes that these films offer a limited version of girlhood that feels like potential and promise but is restricted within prescribed parameters

Publications of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1964-2005 Metropolitan Museum of Art, 2012-10-09 The present volume Publications of The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1964 2005 is a successor to a volume published by the Museum in 1965 entitled Publications of The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1870 1964 These two bibliographic volumes endeavor to list all the known books pamphlets and serial publications bearing the Museum s imprint and issued by the institution during the first 135 years of its existence through June 2005 The first volume was compiled by Albert TenEyck Gardner at the time an Associate Curator of American Paintings and Sculpture and the present volume has been compiled from the Annual Reports issued by the Museum during the relevant years Together the two volumes testify to the tremendous contributions made to knowledge by the curators and conservators of the Metropolitan and by the many other experts who have contributed to the Museum s exhibition catalogues Various issues of the Bulletin emphasize the great sweep of the Museum s acquisitions during these years and the exhibition catalogues a number of them Alfred H Barr Jr Award or the George Wittenborn Award testify to the continuity of the institution s dedicated program to enrich people s lives through knowledge of art This title was originally published in 2006

Return to Philosophy C. E. M. Joad, 2019-01-13 Many people today adopt an instinctively derogatory attitude to reason It is not they say a free activity of the mind reaching conclusions under no compulsion save that of the evidence it is the tool of instinct and the handmaid of desire They are sceptical also in their attitude towards values Beauty they hold is not an intrinsic quality of things it is merely the compliment which we bestow upon the objects which have been fortunate enough to give us pleasure One man s pleasure is as good as another s and all the art criticism in the world is only an elaborate series of variations upon the theme This is what I happen to like As with art so with morals To act rightly is merely to act in a way of which other people approve It is the object of the following pages to criticize this subjectivist attitude and to expose its inadequacy in art in morals and in thought The book is therefore in effect a restatement in modern terms of certain traditional beliefs that reason if properly employed can give us truth that beauty is a real value which exists and that we can train our minds and form our tastes to discern it that some things are really right in a sense in which others are really wrong and that the endeavour to know truth and to discern value is the noblest pursuit of the adult civilized intelligence The best name for this pursuit is philosophy This conclusion is reached by a number of different routes each of which starting from some distinctive characteristic of modern life or thought an aeroplane shed a quasi religious cult or an essay of Aldous Huxley converges upon the same position The defence of reason the affirmation of values and the plea for philosophy thus constitute the underlying theme which links together the various essays which follow Foreword
