Reading In A Second Language Process Product And Practice:

Reading in a Second Language A. H. Urquhart, Cyril J. Weir, 1998 Reading in a Second Language William Grabe, Junko Yamashita, 2022-09-08 Understanding reading abilities and their development is fundamental for language comprehension and human cognition Now in its second edition this book draws on research from multiple disciplines to explain reading abilities in both L1 and L2 and shows how this research can be applied in practice in order to support reading development Research into reading has progressed a great deal since the first edition was published so this edition has been completely updated and revised in order to reflect these advances All chapters present updated research studies and completely new chapters are included on the neurocognition of reading reading writing relationships and digital reading If you want to know how reading works no matter the language s involved as well as how it can be taught effectively this book provides a persuasive research foundation and many practical insights It is essential reading for academic researchers and students in Applied Linguistics and TESOL Reading in a Second Language William Grabe, 2009 Abstract The Use of L1 Cognitive Resources in L2 Reading by Chinese EFL Learners Shiyu Wu, 2016-05-20 This book focuses on the effects of L1 cognitive resources on L2 reading e g the effects of L1 reading ability the ability in L1 mental structure building L1 cognitive use in L2 reading and other related cognitive mechanisms and capacities of EFL learners in China It integrated test based and product oriented as well as VPA based verbal protocol analysis and process oriented experiments to address the problems of reading in a second language This book provides several theoretical methodological and pedagogical insights including the multidimensional nature of L2 reading and Vygotskian sociocultural theory as a suitable L2 reading framework combined approaches on L2 studies and the rewarding active use of L1 cognitive resources in L2 learning Exploring the Dynamics of Second Language Writing Barbara Kroll, 2003-04-14 The book addresses issues in the field of teaching academic writing to non native speakers This book provides a series of discussions about multiple aspects of second language writing presenting chapters that collectively address a range of issues that are important to new teachers at the post secondary level The 13 chapters provide scholarly visions insight and interpretation oriented toward explaining the field of teaching academic writing to non native speakers The book is designed to provide foundational content knowledge in this area with each chapter authored by recognized experts in the field In addition to helping train new teachers the book will serve as an updated reference book for practicing teachers and scholars to consult The Longitudinal Study of Advanced L2 Capacities Lourdes Ortega, Heidi Byrnes, 2009-05-07 Researchers and educators routinely call for longitudinal research on language learning and teaching The present volume explores the connection between longitudinal study and advanced language capacities two under researched areas and proposes an agenda for future research Five chapters probe theoretical and methodological reflections about the longitudinal study of advanced L2 capacities followed by eight chapters that report on empirical longitudinal investigations spanning descriptive quasi experimental qualitative and quantitative longitudinal methodologies In addition the co editors offer a detailed introduction to the volume and a coda chapter in which they explore what it would take to design systematic research programs for the longitudinal investigation of advanced L2 capacities The scholars in this volume collectively make the argument that second language acquisition research will be the richer theoretically and empirically if a trajectory toward advancedness is part of its conceptualization right from the beginning and in reverse that advancedness is a particularly interesting acquisitional level at which to probe contemporary theories associated with the longitudinal study of language development Acknowledging that advancedness is increasingly important in our multicultural societies and globalized world the central question explored in the present collection is How does learning over time evolve toward advanced capacities in a second language

Experiential Learning in Foreign Language Education Viljo Kohonen,Riitta Jaatinen,Pauli Kaikkonen,Jorma Lehtovaara,2014-06-11 The goal of foreign language teaching is expanding from communicative competence towards an intercultural action competence Essential in the new orientation is the shift towards a more balanced emphasis between the external factors in the learning environment and the personal capacity conceptions beliefs and assumptions inside the learner s mind As part of the changes assessment is seen as an important means of enhancing the elearning processes emphasising the role of reflective self assessment The text explores and integrates the necessary knowledge base and practices in foreign language education in terms of the basic concepts of experiential learning intercultural learning autobiographical knowledge and teacher development together with the philosophical underpinnings of foreign language education

Academic Discourse John Flowerdew,2014-06-11 Academic Discourse presents a collection of specially commissioned articles on the theme of academic discourse Divided into sections covering the main approaches each begins with a state of the art overview of the approach and continues with exemplificatory empirical studies Genre analysis corpus linguistics contrastive rhetoric and ethnography are comprehensively covered through the analysis of various academic genres research articles PhD these textbooks argumentative essays and business cases Academic Discourse brings together state of the art analysis and theory in a single volume It also features an introduction which provides a survey and rationale for the material implications for pedagogy at the end of each chapter topical review articles with example studies a glossary The breadth of critical writing and from a wide geographical spread makes Academic Discourse a fresh and insightful addition to the field of discourse analysis

Listening in Language Learning Michael Rost,C N Candlin,2014-06-17 Examines listening as both a means of achieving understanding and as a teachable skill The underlying theme of the volume is that an integration of cognitive social and educational perspectives is necessary in order to characterise effectively what listening ability is and how it may develop It introduces listening from a cognitive perspective and presents a detailed investigation of listening in social and educational contexts The study concludes with an analysis of how listening development can be incorporated effectively into curriculum design
