Reading Matters A Reading Connect:

Reading Matters Joseph Tabbi, Michael Wutz, 2018-05-31 The convergence of twentieth century narrative and technology is one of the most important developments in current literary study A decade after the founding of the Society for Literature and Science and the appearance of such influential books as Kathleen Woodward's Culture of Information and William Paulson's The Noise of Culture Joseph Tabbi and Michael Wutz have edited a landmark volume to summarize this still emerging field Twelve original essays and the editors' introductory overview show how these theoretical concerns can contribute to the practical study of narrative Reading Matters covers the range of contemporary literature from the canonical novels of high modernism and postmodernism through subjects new to the academic agenda such as cyberpunk and hypertext fiction In an age that has proclaimed the death of the novel many times over the contributors argue persuasively for the continued vitality of literary narrative By responding in ingenious ways to the capabilities of other media they assert the novel has enlarged and redefined its territory of representation and its range of techniques and play while maintaining its viability in the new media assemblage

Reading Matters Ulrich Marzolph, 2023 The present book is a special gift for a special colleague and friend Defined as an Unfestschrift it gives colleagues students and friends of Regina Bendix an opportunity to express their esteem for Regina's inspiration cooperation leadership and friendship in an adequate and lasting manner The title of the present book Reading Matters is as close as possible to an English equivalent of the beautiful German double entendre Erlesenes meaning both something read a reading and something exquisite Presenting matters for reading the Unfestschrift unites short contributions about readings that mattered in some way or another for the contributors readings that had an impact on their understanding of whatever they were at some time or presently are interested in The term readings is understood widely Since most of the invited contributors are academics the term implies in the first place readings of an academic or scholarly nature In a wider notion however readings also refer to any other piece of literature the perception of a piece of art a painting a sculpture a performance listening to music appreciating a folkloric performance or a fieldwork experience or just anything else whose reading or individual perception has been meaningful for the contributors in different ways Contrary to a strictly scholarly treatment of a given topic in which the author often disappears behind the subject the presentations unveil and highlight the contributor's personal involvement and thus a dimension of crucial importance for ethnographers such as the dedicatee

Nonfiction Matters Stephanie Harvey, 1998 A guide to bringing nonfiction into the curriculum in third through eighth grade classrooms with strategies and ideas for reading nonfiction conducting research and writing reports

Reading Still Matters Catherine Sheldrick Ross, Lynne (E.F.) McKechnie, Paulette M. Rothbauer, 2018-03-01 Drawing on scholarly research findings this book presents a cogent case that librarians can use to work towards prioritization of reading in libraries and in schools Reading is more important than it has ever been recent research on reading such as PEW reports and Scholastic's Kids and Family Reading Report proves that fact This new edition of Reading Matters provides powerful evidence that can be used to justify the establishment maintenance and growth of pleasure reading collections both fiction and nonfiction and of readers advisory services The authors assert that reading should be woven into the majority of library activities reference collection building provision of leisure materials readers advisory services storytelling and story time programs adult literacy programs and more This edition also addresses emergent areas of interest such as e reading e writing and e publishing multiple literacies visual texts the ascendancy of young adult fiction and fan fiction A new chapter addresses special communities of YA readers The book will help library administrators and personnel convey the importance of reading to grant funding agencies stakeholders and the public at large LIS faculty who wish to establish and maintain courses in readers advisory will find it of particular interest

Connecting Children with Classics Meagan Lacy,Pauline Dewan,shady radical,2018-03-14 This guide identifies hundreds of books that can help children develop into engaged readers Children s librarians collection development specialists in public libraries as well as K 8 school librarians and teachers will choose from the best in children s titles This unique readers advisory and collection development guide for librarians and others who work with children focuses on readers and their needs rather than simply categorizing books by their characteristics and features as traditional literature guides do Taking this unusual perspective brings forth powerful new tools and curricular ideas on how to promote the classics and how to best engage with young readers and meet their personal and emotional needs to boost interest and engagement The guide identifies seven reader driven appeals or themes that are essential to successful readers advisory awakening new perspectives providing models for identity offering reassurance comfort strength and confirmation of self worth connecting with others giving courage to make a change facilitating acceptance and building a disinterested understanding of the world By becoming aware of and tapping into these seven themes librarians and other educators can help children more deeply connect with books thereby increasing the odds of becoming lifelong readers The detailed descriptions of each book provide plot summaries as well as notes on themes subjects reading interest levels adaptations and alternative formats translations and read alikes This informative guide will also aid librarians in collection development and bibliotherapy services
