Reading On The Edge Exiles Modernities And Cultural Transformation In Proust Joyce And Baldwin:

Reading on the Edge Cyraina E. Johnson-Roullier, 2000-06-01 Examines the notion of exile and hybrid cultural identity in Proust Joyce and Baldwin with implications for our understanding of modernism and the modernist canon Exiles James Joyce, 2021 James Joyce's only surviving play has divided Joyceans for a century Illuminating the themes of performance that are so prominent throughout Joyce's fiction Exiles sees Joyce staking his claim definitively within the European theatrical tradition European Writers in Exile Robert C. Hauhart, Jeff Birkenstein, 2018-10-26 European Writers in Exile collects a series of original essays that address the writers' universal existential dilemma when viewed through the lens of exile who am I where am I from and what do I write and to whom While we often understand the term exile to refer to writers who have either been forced to leave their home country or region or chosen self-exile this term need not be defined so narrowly and the contributors to this volume explore a range of interesting and evolving definitions Various countries in Europe have long been both a refuge for people and writers from many countries and a strife-torn region which has forced many to flee within the continent or beyond it The phrase in exile involves writers moving across borders in multiple directions and for multiple reasons including for reasons of duress or personal quest and these themes are addressed and critiqued in these essays This volume naturally examines the cataclysmic and near-universal exilic experiences relating to the world wars including essays on Thomas Mann Vladimir Nabokov Hannah Arendt and Leo Strauss Additionally essays address the unique early twentieth-century experiences of Emile Zola Franz Kafka Joseph Conrad and James Joyce More contemporary essay subjects include Milan Kundera Norman Manea Eva Hoffman Caryl Phillips and W G Sebald This collection of transnational globalized European literature studies envisions understanding the intersection of our contemporary world and various writers in exile in new cultural historical spatial and epistemological frameworks How does literary production in an increasingly globalized world when seen from exile affect a view back towards a country or region left behind Or conversely how does exile push a writer to look outward to new transnationalized spaces These and other questions are important to investigate Taken in sum European Writers in Exile offers an academically rigorous important and cohesive volume Critical Companion to James Joyce A. Nicholas Fargnoli, Vice-President of the James Joyce Society and Professor of Theology and English A. Nicholas Fargnoli, Michael Patrick Gillespie, Professor of English Michael Patrick Gillespie, 2014-05-14 Examines the life and writings of James Joyce including a biographical sketch detailed synopses of his works social and historical influences and more James Joyce and the Exilic Imagination Michael Patrick Gillespie, 2015-05-04 In this book Michael Gillespie provides new readings of James Joyce's main oeuvre through the lens of exile studies and in doing so challenges the tendency in Joyce criticism to give more weight to readings that stress his negative view of Ireland A Historical Guide to James Baldwin Douglas Field, 2009-09-24 With contributions from major scholars of African American literature history and cultural studies A Historical Guide to James Baldwin focuses on the four tumultuous decades that defined the great author's life and art Providing a comprehensive examination of Baldwin's varied body of work that includes short stories novels and polemical essays this collection reflects the major events that left an indelible imprint on the iconic writer civil rights black nationalism and the struggle for gay rights in the pre and post Stonewall eras The essays also highlight Baldwin's understudied role as a trans Atlantic writer his lifelong struggle with faith and his use of music especially the blues as a key to unlock the mysteries of his identity as an exile an artist and a black American in a racially hostile era The Gardens of

Desire Stephen Gilbert Brown, 2012-02-01 The Gardens of Desire is at once a model of literary interpretation and a groundbreaking psychocritical reading of a literary masterpiece Marcel Proust's la recherche du temps perdu Remembrance of Things Past Shedding new light on the origins of the creative impulse in general and on the psychological origins of the Recherche in particular the book illuminates the hidden associations between matricidal suicidal sadistic masochistic homoerotic and creative impulses as manifested in Proust's work The book moves beyond traditional Freudian readings of Proust to consider the theories of Otto Rank Jacques Derrida and others and provides provocative readings of the privileged moments that comprise many of the work's critical cruxes as well as a thought provoking rereading of the novel's ending Both elegant and accessible this book boldly explores the violence of desire as it relates not only to Proust's narrator but also to Proustian criticism itself with its own violent desire to appropriate the essence of Proust's masterpiece Salvific

Manhood Ernest L. Gibson, 2019-10-01 Salvific Manhood foregrounds the radical power of male intimacy and vulnerability in surveying each of James Baldwin's six novels Asserting that manhood and masculinity hold the potential for both tragedy and salvation Ernest L. Gibson III highlights the complex and difficult emotional choices Baldwin's men must make within their varied lives relationships and experiences In Salvific Manhood Gibson offers a new and compelling way to understand the hidden connections between Baldwin's novels Thematically daring and theoretically provocative he presents a queering of salvation a nuanced approach that views redemption through the lenses of gender and sexuality Exploring how fraternal crises develop out of sociopolitical forces and conditions Salvific Manhood theorizes a spatiality of manhood where spaces in between men are erased through expressions of intimacy and love Positioned at the intersections of literary criticism queer studies and male studies Gibson deconstructs Baldwin's wrestling with familial love American identity suicide art incarceration and memory by magnifying the potent idea of salvific manhood Ultimately Salvific Manhood calls for an alternate reading of Baldwin's novels introducing new theories for understanding the intricacies of African American manhood and American identity all within a space where the presence of tragedy can give way to the possibility of salvation

James Baldwin Douglas Field, 2011 This study provides an engaging overview and clear analysis of the fiction non fiction and drama of African American writer James Baldwin 1924-1987 Whilst giving close attention to Baldwin's popular works such as Go Tell it on the Mountain and Another Country it also explores the important but less well known themes and texts including the use of the blues masculinity race and sexuality Spaces of Feeling Marta Figlerowicz, 2017-12-15 Can other people notice our affects more easily than we do In Spaces of Feeling Marta Figlerowicz examines modernist novels and poems that treat this possibility as electrifying but also deeply disturbing Their characters and lyric speakers are undone Figlerowicz posits by the realization that they depend on others to solve their inward affective conundrums and that to these other people their feelings often do not seem mysterious at all Spaces of Feeling features close readings of works by Virginia Woolf James Baldwin John Ashbery Ralph Ellison Marcel Proust F Scott Fitzgerald Sylvia Plath and Wallace Stevens Figlerowicz points out that these poets and novelists often place their protagonists in domestic spaces such as bedrooms living rooms and basements in which their cognitive dependence on other characters inhabiting these spaces becomes clear Figlerowicz highlights the diversity of aesthetic and sociopolitical contexts in which these affective dependencies become central to these authors representations of selfhood By setting these novels and poems in conversation with the work of contemporary theorists she illuminates pressing and unanswered questions about subjectivity
