Readings From Voices Of A Peoples History Of The United States:

Readings from Voices of a People's History of the United States Howard Zinn, Anthony Arnove, 2006-11-07 Bold and empowering words from America's struggles past and present are resurrected here by some of our leading living voices. Authors Howard Zinn and Anthony Arnove are joined here by Danny Glover, Sarah Jones, Paul Robeson Jr, Lili Taylor, Wallace Shawn, Marisa Tomei, and Kurt Vonnegut perform the rousing words of dissent that have shaped and quickened the pulse of a nation. The audio CD consists of twenty-one readings thoughtfully selected by Zinn and Arnove from Voices of a People's History of the United States, the long-awaited primary source companion. Voices of A People's History of the United States Howard Zinn, Anthony Arnove, 2009 This updated companion to Howard Zinn's classic A People's History of the United States Harper Perennial 2005 brings together the powerful words and actions of women and men of all races and creeds who though mostly powerless themselves have made change in America across the centuries. The original source book for Matt Damon's The People Speak series on The History Channel, this classic work from Zinn is a major new release. Voices of a People's History of the United States in the 21st Century Anthony Arnove, Haley Pessin, 2023-11-07 Twenty-first century social movements come to life through speeches, essays, and other documents of activism, protest, and social change. Gathering more than 100 texts from social movements that have shaped the 21st century, this powerful book includes contributions from Angela Y. Davis, Nick Estes, Colin Kaepernick, Rebecca Solnit, Christian Smalls, Viet Thanh Nguyen, Howard Zinn, Rev. William Barber, Bree Newsome, Kimberl Crenshaw, Tarana J. Burke, Dream Defenders, Sins Invalid, Mariame Kaba, Naomi Klein, Keeanga-Yamahtta Taylor, Linda Sarsour, Chelsea E. Manning, Chrishaun CeCe McDonald, Julian Brave NoiseCat, H. Melt, and others. Inspired by the original Voices of a People's History of the United States, the book features speeches, essays, poems, and calls to action from Black Lives Matter, MeToo, Indigenous struggles, immigrant rights activists, the environmental movement, disability justice organizers, and frontline workers during the global pandemic who spoke out against the life-threatening conditions of their labor. Together, their words remind us that history is made not only by the rich and powerful but by ordinary people taking collective action. Rethinking America's Past Robert Cohen, Sonia E. Murrow, 2021-11-01 No introductory work of American history has had more influence over the past forty years than Howard Zinn's A People's History of the United States, which since its publication in 1980 has sold more than three million copies. Zinn's iconoclastic critique of American militarism, racism, and capitalism has drawn bitter criticism from the Right, most recently from President Donald Trump, who at his White House Conference on American History in 2020 denounced Zinn as a Left propagandist and accused teachers aligned with Zinn of indoctrinating students to hate America and be ashamed of its history. Rethinking America's Past is the first work to use archival and classroom evidence to assess the impact that Zinn's classic work has had on historical teaching and learning and on American culture. This evidence refutes Trump's charges, showing that rather than indoctrinating students, Zinn's book has been used by teachers to have students debate and rethink conventional versions of

American history Rethinking America's Past also explores the ways Zinn's work fostered deeper more critical renderings of the American past in movies and on stage and television and traces the origins and assesses the strengths and weaknesses of A People's History in light of more recent historical scholarship A People's History of the United States Howard Zinn, Kathy Emery, Ellen Reeves, 2003 This brilliant and moving history of the American people Library Journal presents more than 500 years of American social and cultural history going well beyond the wars and presidencies contained in traditional texts to tell the stories of working men and women Abridged for use in the classroom Howard Zinn on History Howard Zinn, 2011-06-14 Howard Zinn began work on his first book for his friends at Seven Stories Press in 1996 a big volume collecting all his shorter writings organized by subject The themes he chose reflected his lifelong concerns war history law class means and ends and race Throughout his life Zinn had returned again and again to these subjects continually probing and questioning yet rarely reversing his convictions or the vision that informed them The result was The Zinn Reader Five years later starting with Howard Zinn on History updated editions of sections of that mammoth tome were published in inexpensive stand alone editions This second edition of Howard Zinn on History brings together twenty seven short writings on activism electoral politics the Holocaust Marxism the Iraq War and the role of the historian as well as portraits of Eugene Debs John Reed and Jack London effectively showing how Zinn's approach to history evolved over nearly half a century and at the same time sharing his fundamental thinking that social movements people getting together for peace and social justice can change the course of history That core belief never changed Chosen by Zinn himself as the shorter writings on history he believed to have enduring value originally appearing in newspapers like the Boston Globe or the New York Times in magazines like Z the New Left the Progressive or the Nation or in his book Failure to Quit these essays appear here as examples of the kind of passionate engagement he believed all historians and indeed all citizens of whatever profession need to have standing in sharp contrast to the notion of objective or neutral history espoused by some It is time that we scholars begin to earn our keep in this world he writes in The Uses of Scholarship And in Freedom Schools about his experiences teaching in Mississippi during the remarkable Freedom Summer of 1964 he adds Education can and should be dangerous

Howard Zinn on Race Howard Zinn, 2011-06-14 Howard Zinn on Race is Zinn's choice of the shorter writings and speeches that best reflect his views on America's most taboo topic As chairman of the history department at all black women's Spelman College Zinn was an outspoken supporter of student activists in the nascent civil rights movement In The Southern Mystique he tells of how he was asked to leave Spelman in 1963 after teaching there for seven years Behind every one of the national government's moves toward racial equality writes Zinn in one 1965 essay lies the sweat and effort of boycotts picketing beatings sit ins and mass demonstrations He firmly believed that bringing people of different races and nationalities together would create a more compassionate world where equality is a given and not merely a dream These writings which span decades express Zinn's steadfast belief that the people have the power to change the status quo if they only work together and embrace the nearly forgotten American tradition of civil disobedience and revolution In clear compassionate and present prose Zinn gives us his thoughts on the Abolitionists the march from Selma to Montgomery John F Kennedy picketing sit ins and finally the message he wanted to send to New York University students about race in a speech he delivered during the last week of his life Howard Zinn on War Howard Zinn,2011-06-14 Howard Zinn began work on his first book for his friends at Seven Stories Press in 1996 a big volume collecting all his shorter writings organized by subject The themes he chose reflected his lifelong concerns war history law class means and ends and race Throughout his life Zinn had returned again and again to these subjects continually probing and questioning yet rarely reversing his convictions or the vision that informed them The result was The Zinn Reader Five years later starting with Howard Zinn on History updated editions of sections of that mammoth tome were published in inexpensive stand alone editions This second edition of Howard Zinn on War is a collection of twenty six short writings chosen by the author to represent his thinking on a subject that concerned and fascinated him throughout his career He reflects on the wars against Iraq the war in Kosovo the Vietnam War World War II and on the meaning of war generally in a world of nations that can t seem to stop destroying each other These readings appeared first in magazines and newspapers including the Progressive and the Boston Globe as well as in Zinn s books Failure to Quit Vietnam The Logic of Withdrawal The Politics of History and Declarations of Independence Here we see Zinn s perspective as a World War II veteran and peace activist who lived through the most devastating wars of the twentieth century and questioned every one of them with his combination of integrity and historical acumen In his essay Just and Unjust War Zinn challenges us to fight for justice with struggle but without war He writes in After the War 2006 that while governments bring us into war their power is dependent on the obedience of the citizenry When that is withdrawn governments are helpless In Howard Zinn on War his message is clear The abolition of war has become not only desirable but absolutely necessary if the planet is to be saved It is an idea whose time has come Realizing the Impossible Josh MacPhee,Erik Reuland,2007-01-01 Looks at the history of the depiction of anti authoritarian social movements in art

Howard Zinn Speaks Howard Zinn,2012-11-06 A wide ranging collection of speeches many published here for the first time by the historian and author of A People s History of the United States Howard Zinn has illuminated our history like no other US historian This collection of his speeches on protest movements racism war and American history covers more than four decades of his active engagement with the audiences he inspired with his humor insight and clarity This volume features Zinn s impassioned and erudite statements on the war in Vietnam abolishing the death penalty the legacy of Emma Goldman the myth of American exceptionalism the Obama Administration and much more Reading Howard s spoken words I feel that I am almost hearing his voice again his stunning pitch perfect ability to capture the moment and the concerns and needs of the audience whoever they may be always enlightening often stirring an amalgam of insight critical history wit blended with charm and appeal Noam Chomsky leading public intellectual and author of Hopes and Prospects With ferocious moral clarity
