Pinder,2013-04-15 Race ing Art History is the first comprehensive anthology to place issues of racial representation squarely on the canvas Art produced by non Europeans has naturally been compared to Western art and its study which refers to a binary way of viewing both Each essay in this collection is a response to this vision to the distant mirror of looking at the other The Art of Reading Jamie Camplin,Maria Ranauro,2018-10-02 Why do artists love books This volume takes this tantalizingly simple question as a starting point to reveal centuries of symbiosis between the visual and literary arts First looking at the development of printed books and the simultaneous emergence of the modern figure of the artist The Art of Reading appraises works by the many great masters who took inspiration from the printed word Authors Jamie Camplin and Maria Ranauro weave together an engaging cultural history that probes the ways in which books and paintings represent a key to understanding ourselves and the past Paintings contain a world of information about religion class gender and power but they also reveal details of everyday life often lost in history texts Such artworks show us not only how books have been valued over time but also how the practice of reading has evolved in Western society Featuring over one hundred works by artists from across Europe and the United States and all painting genres The Art of Reading explores the two thousand year story of the great painters and the preeminent information providing knowledge endowing solace giving belief supporting leisure enriching pleasure delivering medium of all time the book Readings in Art History Volume One 3rd Edition Spencer Harold,1983
