Real Feelings Heaven On Earth:

Real Feelings Brother Bob,1996 Embracing Our Complexity Catherine Hudak Klancer,2015-08-31 This book discusses what a religiously grounded authority might look like from the viewpoints of the European Catholic Thomas Aquinas 1225 1274 and the Chinese Neo Confucian Zhu Xi 1130 1200 The consideration of these two figures immensely influential in their respective traditions reflects the conviction that any responsible discourse on authority must consider different cultural perspectives Catherine Hudak Klancer notes that both Zhu Xi and Aquinas conceive wisdom as including yet surpassing human reason Both express an explicit faith in the moral order of the cosmos and the ethical potential of human beings The systematic idealistic approach common to both provides the cosmic anthropological and ethical elements needed for a comprehensive exploration of how to exercise and limit authority Ultimately Klancer writes authority requires a particular virtue hitherto latent in both scholars work and in their lives as well A person with this virtue humble authority is properly grounded in the sacred order and fully cognizant in theory and in practice of the parameters of human nature and the responsibilities attendant upon the human role The Taoist I Ching Lui I-ming,2005-05-03 The I Ching or Book of Change is considered the oldest of the Chinese classics and has throughout history commanded unsurpassed prestige and popularity Containing several layers of text and given numerous levels of interpretation it has captured continuous attention for well over two thousand years It has been considered a book of fundamental principles by philosophers politicians mystics alchemists yogins diviners sorcerers and more recently by scientists and mathematicians This first part of the present volume is the text of the I Ching proper the sixty four hexagrams plus sayings on the hexagrams and their lines with the commentary composed by Liu I ming a Taoist adept in 1796 The second part is Liu I ming s commentary on the two sections added to the I Ching by earlier commentators believed to be members of the original Confucian school these two sections are known as the Overall Images and the Mixed Hexagrams In total the book illuminates the Taoist inner teachings as practiced in the School of Complete Reality Well versed in Buddhism and Confucianism as well as Taoism Liu I ming intended his work to be read as a guide to comprehensive self realization while living an ordinary life in the world In his attempt to lift the veil of mystery from the esoteric language of the I Ching he employs the terminology of psychology sociology history myth and religion This commentary on the I Ching stands as a major contribution to the elucidation of Chinese spiritual genius The Philosophy of Human Nature Zhu, Xi,1922 Supporting documents United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations,United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on International Organizations,1978 The Heart of Philosophy Jacob Needleman,2003-08-25 Philosophy as it is frequently taught in classrooms bears little relation to the impassioned and immensely practical search for self knowledge conducted by not only its ancient avatars but also by men and woman who seek after truth today In The Heart of the Philosophy Jacob Needleman provides a user s guide for those who would take philosophy seriously enough to understand its life transforming qualities
