Roman Builders A Study In Architectural Process:

Roman Builders Rabun Taylor, 2003-01-09 How were the architectural ideas behind great Roman building projects carried out in practice Each major phase of the building process is considered in the building histories of the Baths of Caracalla the Pantheon the Coliseum and the great temples at Baalbek New hypotheses are advanced on the raising of monolithic columns the construction sequence of the Coliseum and the vaulting of the Pantheon The illustrations include archival and original photographs as well as numerous explanatory drawings The Colosseum Keith Hopkins, Mary Beard, 2005-11-14 Byron and Hitler were equally entranced by Rome's most famous monument the Colosseum Mid Victorians admired the hundreds of varieties of flowers in its crannies and occasionally shuddered at its reputation for contagion danger and sexual temptation Today it is the highlight of a tour of Italy for more than three million visitors a year a concert arena for the likes of Paul McCartney and a national symbol of opposition to the death penalty Its ancient history is chock full of romantic but erroneous myths There is no evidence that any gladiator ever said Hail Caesar those about to die and we know of not one single Christian martyr who met his finish here Yet the reality is much stranger than the legend as the authors two prominent classical historians explain in this absorbing account We learn the details of how the arena was built and at what cost we are introduced to the emperors who sometimes fought in gladiatorial games staged at the Colosseum and we take measure of the audience who reveled in or opposed these games The authors also trace the strange afterlife of the monument as fortress shrine of martyrs church and glue factory Why are we so fascinated with this arena of death Divine

Paul's Political Strategy in 1 Corinthians 1-4 Bradley J. Bitner, 2015-06-25 This volume examines 1 Corinthians 1-4 within first century politics demonstrating the significance of Corinth s constitution to the interpretation of Paul s letter Bradley J Bitner shows that Paul carefully considered the Roman colonial context of Corinth which underlay numerous ecclesial conflicts Roman politics however cannot account for the entire shape of Paul s response Bridging the Hellenism

Judaism divide that has characterised much of Pauline scholarship Bitner argues that Paul also appropriated Jewish biblical notions of covenant Epigraphical and papyrological evidence indicates that his chosen content and manner are best understood with reference to an ecclesial politeia informed by a distinctively Christ centred political theology This emerges as a politics of thanksgiving in 1 Corinthians 14 9 and as a politics of construction in 3 5 4 5 where Paul redirects gratitude and glory to God in Christ This innovative account of Paul's political theology offers fresh insight into his pastoral strategy among nascent Gentile Jewish assemblies

Author and Audience in Vitruvius' De architectura Marden Fitzpatrick Nichols, 2017-10-26 Vitruvius De architectura is the only extant classical text on architecture and its impact on Renaissance masters including Leonardo da Vinci is well known But what was the text's purpose in its own time ca 20s BCE In this book Marden Fitzpatrick Nichols reveals how Vitruvius pitched the Greek discipline of architecture to his Roman readers most of whom were undoubtedly laymen The inaccuracy of Vitruvius architectural rules when compared with surviving ancient buildings has knocked Vitruvius off his pedestal Nichols argues that the author never intended to provide an accurate view of contemporary buildings Instead Vitruvius crafted his authorial persona and remarks on architecture to appeal to elites and would be elites eager to secure their positions within an expanding empire In this major new analysis of De architectura from archaeological and literary perspectives Vitruvius emerges as a knowing critic of a social landscape in which the house made the man
