Romans Terrifiants:

Le roman terrifiant ou roman noir Alice M. Killen, 2000      The French Romantics' Knowledge of English Literature (1820-1848) Eric Partridge, 1924      Le roman terrifiant Alice M. Killen, 1915      European Gothic Avril Horner, 2017-06-01

The only collection to concentrate on the European Gothic writing in English French German Russian and Spanish Charts the rich process of cross fertilisation especially regarding Anglo French exchanges in the development of the Gothic novel Emphasises the importance of the impact of translation on the development of the Gothic novel Uses a variety of critical perspectives to reassess the work of authors such as Clara Reeve Sophia Lee Charlotte Smith Ann Radcliffe Matthew Lewis Charles Maturin Coleridge Mary Shelley Jan Potocki Balzac Dostoevsky Gaston Leroux and Djuna Barnes Offers a fresh way of thinking about Gothic lineages and histories      Surrealism and the Gothic Neil Matheson, 2017-08-07 Surrealism and the Gothic is the first book length analysis of the role played by the gothic in both the initial emergence of surrealism and at key moments in its subsequent development as an art and literary movement The book argues the strong and sustained influence not only of the classic gothic novel itself Ann Radcliffe Charles Maturin Matthew Lewis etc but also the determinative impact of closely related phenomena as with the influence of mediumism alchemy and magic The book also traces the later development of the gothic novel as with Bram Stoker's Dracula and its mutation into such works of popular fiction as the Fant mas series of Marcel Allain and Pierre Souvestre enthusiastically taken up by writers such as Apollinaire and subsequently feeding into the development of surrealism More broadly the book considers a range of motifs strongly associated with gothic writing as with insanity incarceration and the accursed outsider explored in relation to the personal experience and electroshock treatment of Antonin Artaud A recurring motif of the analysis is that of the gothic castle developed in the writings of Andr Breton Artaud Sade Julien Gracq and other writers as well as in the work of visual artists such as Magritte      Bibliothèque de la Revue de littérature comparée, 1924      The Politics and Poetics of Everyday Life Kristin Ross, 2023-05-02 The texts in this volume represent Kristin Ross's attempt to think the question of the everyday across a range of discourses practices and knowledges from philosophy to history from the visual arts to popular fiction all the way to the forms taken by collective political action in the territorial struggles of today If everyday life is as many have come to believe the ideal vantage point for an analysis of the social it is also the crucial first step in its transformation The volume opens with a return to Henri Lefebvre's powerful attempt to think the everyday as both residue and resource as the site of profound alienation and by the same token the site where all emancipatory initiatives and desires begin The second section focuses on our attempts to represent our lived reality to ourselves in cultural forms from painting and literature and film to an analysis of the contemporary transformations of the sub genre most embedded in the deep superficiality of everyday life detective fiction The final section turns to present day ecological occupations in the wake of the zad at Notre Dame des Landes and locates the everyday as a site for rich oppositional resources and immanent social
