Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts Victor Karandashev,2016-12-24 This volume presents a conceptual historical anthropological and sociological review of how culture affects our experience and expression of romantic love What is romantic love and how is it different from and similar to other kinds of love How is romantic love related to sex and marriage in human history and across contemporary cultures What cultural factors mediate attraction in love These are some of the questions the volume explores through its interdisciplinary yet focused lens Much of the current research evidence suggests that love is a universal emotion experienced by a majority of people in various historical eras and in all the world's cultures Yet love displays in different ways because culture has an impact on people's conceptions of love and the ways they feel think and behave in romantic relationships This volume summarizes classical knowledge on love and culture while at the same time focusing sharply on recent studies and cutting edge research that has advanced the field Divided into three parts the volume begins by defining and analyzing the concept of romantic love and interdisciplinary approach to its study in cultural context Part II traces the origin and evolution of romantic love both in various places throughout the world and various time periods throughout history Part III presents the revolutionary expansion of romantic love ideas and practices in the late 20th and early 21st centuries in various parts of the world focusing particularly on the development of romantic love as a cultural ideal of the modern cultures Finally the book concludes by summarizing the major achievements in this field of study and predicts future development A timely and thoughtful addition to the literature Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts delivers thought provoking insights to researchers in relationship scholarship sociology anthropology and cultural studies and all those interested in the universal human concept of love Overall I find Dr Victor Karandashev is an excellent and fine scholar who has a firm grasp of both the fundamental principles of cross cultural research and of anthropology In our increasingly connected world Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts updates and adds to the descriptions and explanations of similarities and differences in romantic love across generations and cultures Romantic love encompasses the life span rather than being a phenomenon largely confined to youthful years The topic of this project concerns the deepest of our sentiments and pervades life from birth to death This book contributes to better knowledge of this phenomenon across generations

Flix Neto Professor of Psychology Faculdade de Psicologia e de Ciências da Educação Universidade do Porto Portugal Romantic Love Yolanda van Ede,2006 Love and Empire Felicity Amaya Schaeffer,2023-11-21 The spread of the Internet is remaking marriage markets altering the process of courtship and the geographic trajectory of intimacy in the 21st century For some Latin American women and U S men the advent of the cybermarriage industry offers new opportunities for re making themselves and their futures overthrowing the common narrative of trafficking and exploitation In this engaging stimulating virtual ethnography Felicity Amaya Schaeffer follows couples romantic interludes at Vacation Romance Tours in chat rooms and interviews married couples in the United States in order to understand the commercialization of intimacy While attending to the interplay between the everyday and the virtual Love and Empire contextualizes personal desires within the changing global economic and political shifts across the Americas By examining current immigration policies and the use of Mexican and Colombian women as erotic icons of the nation in the global marketplace she forges new relations between intimate imaginaries and state policy in the making of new markets finding that women s erotic self fashioning is the form through which women become ideal citizens of both their home countries and in the United States Through these little explored highly mediated romantic exchanges Love and Empire unveils a fresh perspective on the continually evolving relationship between the U S and Latin America

Rethinking Romantic Love Begonya Enguix, Jordi Roca, 2016-11-14

This volume is the result of a thorough exploration of contemporary conceptions of romantic love from different points of view Beginning with an initial text where the meanings of romantic love are discussed theoretically and historically the contributions gathered here present current discussions about love in the present day and in different geographical contexts that range from Hungary to Italy or Spain The first part of the book is devoted to the analysis of mobilities for the sake of love as a result of globalization These mobilities are analysed in relation to love ideals to gender equality and to online searches for the ideal partners The second part of the book deals with the exploration of different imaginaries of love in particular geographical contexts The topics dealt with here include love as sickness love and violence love ideals for men engaged in gender equality and love ideals for those who engage in cross dressing practices In the third part writing about and for love is addressed Love writings to the beloved dead teenage girls blogs and bestsellers such as Fifty Shades of Grey are discussed in particular detail This book addresses current conceptions of romantic love in different social groups through different practices and in different countries and shows that despite the variability of discourses experiences and practices related to love a number of ideas of what love should be like related to the Western ideals of romantic love persist in all these contexts The contributions to this volume are derived from extensive fieldwork and ethnographic research and will be of undoubted interest for the academic milieu However given the topic it deals with the book will also appeal to the general public who will find in these pages many love stories derived from the detailed study of the society which we inhabit and the ideals of love that we breathe
