Roni Horn Index Cixous:

Index Cixous Roni Horn, 2006-03 Artwork by Roni Horn      Index Cixous Roni Horn, 2005-01-01 Inspired by the philosopher and writer Helene Cixous which whom the photographer and artist Roni Horn has collaborated before Index Cixous questions the nature of language in its most fundamental sense and proposes a version one without words but which can be read as any other Both Horn and Cixous are concerned with communication wrought out of material space Cixous writes about women's language arising from the female body and she argues for a new language one not in thrall to patriarchy but that acknowledges the life giving force and history of the feminine      Animal Question in Deconstruction

Lynn Turner, 2013-08-20 Explores the political and poetic understanding of the deconstruction of the animal question How does deconstruction understand relations between humans and other animals This collection of essays reveals that across Jacques Derrida's work as a whole as well as that of Helene Cixous and Nicholas Royle deconstruction has always addressed questions about animality In this collection for example Cixous asks after human intervention between the death of a wild bird and the predation of a domestic cat Kelly Oliver pursues Derrida's analysis of what or whose gaze is at stake when a King oversees the autopsy of an elephant Royle examines in what sense the vulnerable impressions made by the tunnelling of a mole might be thought of as the traces of a text Re-examining how we relate to other animals has far reaching implications for how we think of ourselves Across this collection authors bring to attention the politics and the ethics of a less anthropocentric world Even when this world is grasped      Poetry in Painting Helene Cixous, 2012-04-04 The first book by Helene Cixous on painting and the contemporary arts This collection gathers most of Helene Cixous texts devoted to contemporary artists such as the painter Nancy Spero the photographer Andres Serrano the visual artist Roni Horn the fashion designer Sonia Rykiel and the choreographer Karine Saporta among others The artworks belong to different genres and media photography painting installations film choreography and fashion design while the commentaries all deal with some of Helene Cixous privileged themes exile war violence against women and exclusion as well as love memory beauty and tenderness Neither art criticism nor a collection of critical essays Helene Cixous responds to these artworks as a poet reading them as if they were poems Written between 1985 and 2010 most of these essays are unpublished in English or published only in rare catalogues or art books      Frieze Art Fair Yearbook, 2006      Red Dirt Revival: a poetic memoir

in 6 Breaths Tim'm West, 2014-06-28 Red Dirt Revival a poetic memoir in 6 Breaths is a collection that offers personal meditations that speaks to vastly diverse and often unanticipated audiences naming vital specifics and moving to the poetic universality of pain and redemption A decade after his brave authorial debut Tim'm West is still here to honor the dexterity and resilience of a book that has been everywhere from spoken word stages to black gay men's book clubs to feminist classrooms This expanded edition offers a 7th Breath speaking to the work's enduring power As Christina Accomando writes in the new introduction Red Dirt Revival not surprisingly is both a classic text and a living breathing work of art communication and community      Hélène Cixous Metka Zupančič, 2007 This is a collection of personal essays dealing with the writings of French novelist Helene Cixous from 1990 to the present day The author Metka Zupancic examines Cixous's literary output through the mythical symbolical and alchemical figures of a New Eurydice and the feminine versions of Hermes and Orpheus In addition Cixous's commitment to literature and aesthetics are closely studied and elaborated This is a highly technical study suitable only for students and scholars of French feminist literature      Women, Practice,

Architecture Naomi Stead, 2016-01-08 The image of the architect is undeniably gendered While the male architect might be celebrated as the ideal man in Hollywood romantic comedies blessed with practicality and creativity in equal measure to impeccable taste and an enviable lifestyle the image of the woman architect is not so clear cut While women have been practicing and excelling in architecture for more than a hundred years their professional identity as constructed in the media is complex and sometimes contradictory This book explores the working lives and aspirations of women in architectural practice but more than this it explores how popular media newspapers magazines and websites serve to define and describe who a woman architect should be what she should look like and how she should behave Looking further into the way that professional characteristics are reinforced through awards like the Pritzker Prize the book demonstrates how idealised characteristics such as sensitivity and vision are seen to be neither entirely masculine nor feminine but instead a complex hybrid owing much to historic concepts of genius Drawing on history sociology media analysis and feminist theories of architectural practice the book will be of interest to all of those who seek to better understand the image and identity of the architect This book was published as a double special issue of Architectural Theory Review      French XX Bibliography

William J. Thompson, 2007-09 Provides the listing of books articles and book reviews concerned with French literature since 1885 This is a reference source in the study of modern French literature and culture It contains nearly 8 800 entries

Stigmata Hélène Cixous, 2005-02-01 A wilful extremist according to the London Times Hélène Cixous is hailed as one of the most formidable writers and thinkers of our time Acclaimed by luminaries such as Jacques Derrida her writing has nonetheless been misunderstood and misread to a surprising extent With the inclusion of Stigmata one of her greatest works into the Routledge Classics series this is about to change Questions that have long concerned her the self and the other autobiographies of writing sexual difference literary theory post colonial theory death and life are explored here woven into a stunning narrative Displaying a remarkable virtuosity the work of Cixous is heady stuff indeed exciting powerful moving and dangerous      The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2006      Flash Art , 2008      Deutsche which memoir and autobiography fused with theory and philosophy In this book Lauren Fournier extends the meaning of the term applying it to other disciplines and practices Fournier provides a long awaited account of autotheory situating it as a mode of contemporary post 1960s artistic practice that is indebted to feminist writing art and activism Investigating a series of works by writers and artists including Chris Kraus and Adrian Piper she considers the politics aesthetics and ethics of autotheory     Roni Horn Aka Roni Horn: Subject index Roni Horn,2009     American/Medieval Goes North Gillian R. Overing,Ulrike Wiethaus,2019-10-07 One of the great virtues of American Medieval Goes North is its wide range of contributors with fascinatingly diverse relationships to the main terms of analysis There are academic scholars poets filmmakers tribal elders teachers at various levels there are Indigenous people people from settler colonial cultures expats immigrants Their analytic and imaginative encounters with the North catch at the intensely symbolic and political charge of that locus At a time when Medieval Studies cannot afford to ignore the period's popular uptake cannot continue with business as usual in the face of white supremacists brazen appropriations of the Middle Ages this volume points to new possibilities for grappling with the uneasy relationships between the American and the medieval Prof Carolyn Dinshaw New York University     White Ink Helene Cixous,Susan Sellers,2014-12-05 Helene Cixous is widely regarded as one of the world's most influential feminist writers and thinkers White Ink brings together her most revealing interviews available in English for the first time Spanning over four decades and including a new interview with the editor Susan Sellers this collection presents a brilliant running commentary on the subjects at the heart of Cixous writing Here Cixous discusses her books and her creative process her views on and insights into literature philosophy theatre politics aesthetics faith and ethics human relations and the state of the world As she responds to interviewers questions Cixous is prompted to reflect on her roles and activities as poet playwright feminist theorist professor of literature philosopher woman Jew Each interview is a remarkable performance an event in language and thought where Cixous celebrated intellectual and poetic force can be witnessed in action The accessibility of the interview format provides an excellent starting point for readers new to Cixous while those already familiar with her work will find unexpected insights and fresh elucidations of her thought     Livres hebdo ,2006     La Quinzaine littéraire ,2005     Livres de France ,2005
