Rooted In The Chants Of Slaves Blacks In The Humanities 1985 1997:

The History of Blacks in Canada George H. Junne, 2003-03-30 This fascinating bibliography of source materials clearly demonstrates the significant roles blacks have played in the history and culture of Canada from its beginnings as well as their 400 year fight for equity and justice Organized by area of endeavor and by province the source materials detailed here reveal that blacks in Canada have created a rich diverse and complex legacy This volume lists resources that point to blacks history as soldiers prospectors educators cowboys homesteaders entertainers legislators athletes artists servants and writers The most comprehensive bibliography about blacks in Canada that has been published it is well organized to facilitate locating specific topics or people spanning black history Also included are newspapers and videos that add their own unique contribution Academicians researchers students and interested lay people will find an organized compilation of a vast number of primary and secondary sources about blacks in Canada The African-American Male Jacob U.

Gordon, 1999-07-30 The plight of the Black male in American society has been well documented by scholars and practitioners Although Black males represent only 6 percent of the American population they represent about 40 percent of the prison population the number of Black males in prison and jail exceeds the number of Black males in higher education The homicide rates for Black males were 72.5 percent per 100 000 nearly eight times higher than for White males This bibliographic volume explores the extent to which American academia has addressed these problems It will be an invaluable resource for researchers as well as practitioners in social service programs In addition to more than 400 annotated publications the book includes a selected list of works on the African American male and a compilation of doctoral dissertations This publication will serve as a reference in public as well as academic libraries human service agencies government policymaking agencies and in academic courses in gender and ethnic studies criminal justice and social psychology Blacks in the American

West and Beyond--America, Canada, and Mexico George H. Junne, 2000-05-30 Almost a century before their arrival in the English New World Blacks appeared alongside the Spanish in what is now the American West Through their families communities and institutions these Western Blacks left behind a long history which is just now beginning to receive systematic scholarly treatment Comprehensively indexing a variety of research materials on Blacks in the North American West Junne offers an invaluable navigational tool for students of American and African American history Entries are organized both geographically and topically and cover a broad range of subjects including cross cultural interaction health art and law Contains a complete compilation of African American newspapers Bibliography of African American

Leadership Cedric Johnson, Ronald W. Walters, 2000-06-30 Compiled in this volume is the most significant accumulation of works on the subject of African American leadership to date As the field of leadership studies continues to grow this timely work contributes to an understanding of the activities of those people and organizations that have been leaders of people of African descent and have contributed to the cultural and political affairs of the black community as well as the representation of the black community in mainstream American life The annotated entries cover a variety of works on subjects such as dedicated black leadership studies local descriptions and analyses biographies leadership organizations and audio visual materials This reference is an important contribution to the field of leadership studies in general and African American leadership in particular and will serve as a valuable research tool for educators and practitioners alike The entries are organized into six sections which offer a broad overview of the various aspects of African American leadership Part I Critical Studies and Appraisals focuses on the history of works dedicated to both national and local leaders and their politically relevant activities The next section Local Leadership Studies is organized around black leaders who served local communities and the various issues they addressed Part III looks at relevant social movements and ideologies that have highlighted the activities of black leaders Individual leaders who have made contributions to the political life of the black community are included in Part IV while leadership organizations are highlighted in Part V The concluding section of the volume looks at available audio visual materials A thorough index rounds out the bibliography
