our anti bias work demands we read this book and use it well From the Foreword by Carol Brunson Day A dynamic blend of child development theory social history and the best pedagogical practice from two distinguished social justice educators every teacher of young children should read it Beverly Daniel Tatum President Spelman College An accessible practical and essential tool for every teacher of young white children I especially appreciated the concrete suggestions and abundance of resources from two of early childhood education s most experienced teachers Paul Kivel educator and author of Uprooting Racism and I Can Make My World a Safer Place By starting with a strong sense of identity that is not race based children can move forward to cultivate an anti racist culture This book offers caregivers excellent frameworks and tools to make this happen TC Record      Multicultural Curriculum Transformation in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics Christine Clark, Amanda VandeHei, Kenneth J. Fasching-Varner, Zaid M. Haddad, 2018-07-27 This volume seeks to engage PK 12 STEM teachers in the work of multicultural curriculum transformation by meeting them in the contexts in which they teach and equip them to continue the work of multicultural curriculum transformation on their own      Deployment Karen Petty, 2009-04-24 Children with parents in the military face unfamiliar and complicated emotions This comprehensive handbook is for civilians and military personnel who work with or care for children who experience separation through deployment death or divorce Written by an internationally known hands on trainer and presenter in the field this book contains theory based practice driven strategies for handling separation and helping young through elementary age children move forward and live full lives      Early Childhood Development and Its Variations Kristine Slentz, 2017-10-03 Provides an overview of development then describes principles and sequences of physical cognitive and social emotional development at the infant toddler preschool and primary levels Individual differences and developmental norms are stressed throughout      Beginnings & Beyond Ann Miles Gordon, Kathryn Williams Browne, 2004 Beginnings Beyond is the tool students need to develop vital skills necessary to become successful teachers and caregivers They will come to thoroughly understand the fundamentals of early childhood education through a discussion of the topic from an historical perspective present day issues and future trends In this sixth edition the authors have emphasized multiculturalism and NAEYC s developmentally appropriate practice to support the viewpoint that there is more than one correct way to care for and educate young children      Project Zero Frameworks for Early Childhood Education: Project Spectrum : early learning activities Howard Gardner, David Henry Feldman, Mara Krechevsky, Jie-Qi Chen, 1998-11-13 The groundbreaking work of Harvard University psychologist Howard Gardner on multiple intelligences and Tufts University psychologist David Henry Feldman on nonuniversal development is fast becoming the standard by which children s intelligence and cognitive development is understood In this landmark three volume set Mara Krechevsky and her colleagues at Project Zero make these insights available for both teachers and scholars alike This curriculum resource provides enriching activities in a wide variety of disciplines including mechanics and construction movement and music      The Early Childhood Curriculum Carol

Seefeldt,1999-01-01 This third edition of The Early Childhood Curriculum provides the same coverage as the first edition and brings it up to date Individual chapters present the research and practice of early childhood education by areas of curriculum content play oral language reading mathematics science social studies movement music and art Introductory chapters include an overview of current developments in early education as well as a discussion of teaching strategies It includes two new chapters on inclusion and the multicultural world of the early childhood classroom an overview of current developments in the field      Multicultural Curriculum Transformation in Literacy and Language Arts Amanda

VandeHei-Carter,Nayelee Villanueva,Christine Clark,2021-10-06 This book focuses on multicultural curriculum transformation in literacy and language arts subject areas The discussion of each area outlines critical considerations for multicultural curriculum transformation for the area by grade level and then by eight organizing tools including content standards relationships with and among students and their families and evaluation of student learning and teaching effectiveness The volume is designed to speak with PK 12 teachers as colleagues in the multicultural curriculum transformation work Readers are exposed to things to think about but also given curricular examples to work with or from in going about the actual concrete work of curriculum change This work supports PK 12 teachers to independently multiculturally adapt existing curriculum to create new multicultural curriculum differentiated by content areas and grade levels and by providing ample examples of what such multicultural transformed literacy and language arts curricula looks like in practice      Good White People Shannon Sullivan,2014-05-15 Argues for the necessity of a new ethos for middle class white anti racism Building on her book Revealing Whiteness Shannon Sullivan identifies a constellation of attitudes common among well meaning white liberals that she sums up as white middle class goodness an orientation she critiques for being more concerned with establishing anti racist bona fides than with confronting systematic racism and privilege Sullivan untangles the complex relationships between class and race in contemporary white identity and outlines four ways this orientation is expressed each serving to establish one s lack of racism the denigration of lower class white people as responsible for ongoing white racism the demonization of antebellum slaveholders an emphasis on colorblindness especially in the context of white childrearing and the cultivation of attitudes of white guilt shame and betrayal To move beyond these distancing strategies Sullivan argues white people need a new ethos that acknowledges and transforms their whiteness in the pursuit of racial justice rather than seeking a self righteous distance from it      Celebrate! Julie Bisson,2002-06-10 Is your early childhood program struggling with how to enjoy holidays in a respectful anti bias way Now you can let the celebrating begin Celebrate is the comprehensive resource to guide you through the sensitive issues surrounding holidays It is filled with strategies for implementing exciting culturally and developmentally appropriate holiday activities so you can party with ease Chapters include Developing a Holiday Policy Selecting Holidays Addressing Stereotypes and Commercialism Evaluating Holiday Activities and more Celebrate tells you how to involve families and get on the road to making holidays something that everyone looks forward to celebrating Includes a preface by Louise Derman Sparks What's Jewish about Butterflies?
