School Jeffrey J. Till, 2015-10-21 Choosing how you will educate your children is probably the biggest decision you will ever make for their happiness their knowledge and their approach to life Rise Above School is a tool to help you make this critical decision It takes a candid and thorough look at what school is and does and explains the opportunities available through home education i e homeschooling Jeffrey Till explains his views on schooling and education through the lens of years of study on the topic and from his own experiences home educating his own three children The table of contents CONTENTS Introduction 1 Why you should rescue your children from school 3 Making the decision is really really hard 6 The Complete Case for Home Education 11 What do you want to be when you grow up 48 Having empathy for your children is critical 62 My personal path to home education 66 Talking about home education 72 How to get started 76 Conclusion 82 Appendix Media resources and acknowledgements 84 The Introduction Introduction This book isn t about the act of home education but rather making the decision to take your children out of school and begin home education In my experience learning about homeschooling was fairly straightforward and knowing the downside of public schooling was fairly intuitive but taking my kids out of school was still a very challenging decision that took me about year to make The biggest obstacles turned out to be that I was schooled myself and had a very hard time imagining not using public schools since they are everybody s default state of nature I also couldn t adequately develop empathy for my own children when it came to what they were enduring in public school and nor thought about what school would ultimately do to them This book is to help inform the decision process to leave school and free your children to learn at home What you do once you get those kids out of school is a topic for another book and luckily there are plenty I chose the title Rise Above School because that s what children do when they opt out The school and culture like to use the term dropping out to suggest that leaving school is a failure of the student somehow We must abandon this victim language once and for all School is not a nice place to succeed in it is something that should be rejected tossed to history s landfill and left to die Ideally we use the term home education instead of homeschooling because the later implies replicating school at home which isn t desirable Only school can be school Instead we want to foster intrinsic inspired learning at home This said homeschooling is common vernacular and I use it interchangeably in this book to mean home education The initial basis of this book was several articles and podcasts I created at my blog site found at <http://www.fivehundredyears.org> As the articles came common themes emerged and it seemed natural to put them together under one cover As background I've self studied education public schooling and home education for two to three years now I unschool my three young children I'm an entrepreneur and a husband I'm an advocate for home education and ending public school And I'm a radical for peace and prosperity If you are new to home education ideas or new to even thinking about public school itself I commend you for trying to learn more regardless of what you decide Despite education being the most important decision families ever make for their children most people don't think about it for even five minutes The choice you are making involves committing your children to 13 years of school representing about 15 000 hours of work all of which can set the direction of your children's entire lives Put the time in to research analyze and process this 15 000 hour whopper of a decision Please

Road School Sue Cowley, 2016-11-30 Frustrated by a regime of statutory testing and keen for a midlife adventure Sue Cowley and her partner decided to step out of the system and set off on the educational adventure of a lifetime with their children Road School is the story of their family's adventures around Europe and across China and what they learned along the way Part comedy travelogue part parenting guide part educational philosophy Road School asks you to consider what an education really means and offers tips for anyone planning their own learning adventure As a parent in the UK you must make sure that your child has a full time education once they are of compulsory school age However this education does not have to take place in a school A growing number of parents are finding that home educating or unschooling either permanently or on a short term basis is a viable and attractive option The national curriculum benchmark tests and exams serve to reinforce the idea that there is a specific set of knowledge which equates to an education However when you are home educating it is entirely up to you what and how you wish to teach your children Or rather what and how you wish your children to learn You might choose to include part or everything that is in the national curriculum or you might not Sue's family found that one of the best things about Road School was the freedom to follow their interests Sue offers plenty of advice based on the lessons her family learned on their Road School adventure such as take into account how learning can happen simply by visiting a place and exploring it Don't feel that you always have to formalise your visit by turning it into a lesson The experience of going somewhere can be memorable and educational in its own right Much of what your children will learn on the road is social and emotional rather than intellectual They learn how to cope how to adapt how to be resilient and how to be brave The challenges and difficulties that you face on the road will teach them all these things without any direct teaching needed at all Involve your children in making decisions about the content of their curriculum particularly when it comes to choosing topics or themes What would they most like to study during your learning journey together You can teach subjects such as English or history through cross curricular themes rather than as discrete lessons Ask your children to decide which topics interest them the most and capitalise on those One of the great things about educating your child yourself is that you get to learn alongside them Not only do you provide a model of lifelong learning but it s also very liberating to learn new things as an adult Remember that teaching is not the same thing as learning You don t have to teach your children directly for a set number of hours each day in order to educate them Learning can take place all the time and anywhere rather than just during school hours It doesn t matter what time of the day or day of the week it is if there is learning happening then your child is being educated Contents include England English Lessons Stepping Out of the System The Netherlands Dutch Lessons The Practicalities Germany German Lessons Cultural Literacy Italy Italian Lessons An Education Portugal Portuguese Lessons Travelling with Children France French Lessons Pussycat Parenting China Chinese Lessons A Road School Curriculum handling family dynamics Includes many of her own experiences and those of other parents as well as experts in the field Provides lists of resources and support groups to help parents in making educational choices for gifted children from preschool age and up Support for Home Education Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Education Committee,2012-12-18 This report supports the right of parents to educate their children at home and accept that home educating families should bear the costs of that provision It is not reasonable however that it should be so difficult to access an exam centre nor that families should pay exam costs on top of everything else Home educators and local authorities LAs have since the Badman Review and its aftermath in 2009 made real efforts to engage and to ensure more constructive relationships and better support but there is clearly some way to go In particular the Committee notes the postcode lottery element of current provision for home educators with different LAs offering starkly different services and patterns of support It calls on the Department for Education to conduct an audit review the home education guidance given to LAs and to support pilots for local offers of support being published The Committee is also concerned that provisions for home educated young people with SEN are not being fully met Bump to baby and beyond Sarah Owen,2013-08-03 When I was pregnant I found that there was a lot of different advice out there but I could not find a comprehensive guide that covered everything This book is a complete guide to cover everything It also has sections for you to record your journey and keep as a keepsake
