The Road to Science Fiction: From Wells to Heinlein James E. Gunn, 1977 Anthology of science fiction mostly short stories

Science Fiction from Wells to Heinlein Leon E. Stover, 2002 Wells's most self-conscious descendant is Robert Heinlein whose rapid rise to fame during the magazine era made him the dean of American SF. He so succeeded in winning literary recognition for the genre that it all but vanished into the mainstream save for a lingering identity in classified paperbacks and in television programming

Modern Science Fiction: A Critical Analysis James Gunn, Michael R. Page, 2018-06-07 James Gunn, one of the founding figures of science fiction scholarship and teaching, wrote in 1951 what is likely the first master's thesis on modern science fiction. Portions were in the short-lived pulp magazine Dynamic but it has otherwise remained unavailable. Here, in its first full publication, the thesis explores many of the classic Golden Age stories of the 1940s and the critical perspective that informed Gunn's essential genre history Alternate Worlds and his anthology series The Road to Science Fiction. The editor's introduction and commentary show the historical significance of Gunn's work and its relevance to today's science fiction studies

Science Fiction and the Two Cultures Gary Westfahl, George Slusser, 2009-06-01 Essays in this volume demonstrate how science fiction can serve as a bridge between the sciences and the humanities. The essays show how early writers like Dante and Mary Shelley revealed a gradual shift toward a genuine understanding of science, how H. G. Wells first showed the possibilities of combining scientific and humanistic perspectives, how writers influenced by Gernsback's ideas like Isaac Asimov illustrated the ways that literature could interact with science and assist in its progress, and how more recent writers offer critiques of science and its practitioners

Science Fiction and Empire Patricia Kerslake, 2007-04-01 This book is about the human desire to experiment with empire. In the past it was done with real soldiers and expeditions and slaves and trade and misery and force. In the future it will be done with generation ships and off-world pioneers, robots and invasion, electronic sheep and people who just don't want to be pushed around any more. Beginning with a discussion of who we are, hopefully the good guys, and who they are, anyone who isn't us, this narrative scans the lights of science fiction, looking at the places where humans try to touch a variety of futures. Is SF designed to purge our dark imperialistic fantasies or is it a laboratory of mind experiments, carefully considered trials of political, social, and economic scenarios? Which tomorrow are we more likely to accept where the blood of empire is red or read? Examining such classic SF texts as Lasswitz's Two Planets and Wells' The War of the Worlds, this book investigates Asimov's Robots and Heinlein's Moon as well as Robinson's Mars and Banks' postcolonial Culture. We see the rise and fall of empire through the eyes of Miller, Clarke, and Wyndham, and the apparently inevitable failure of the imperial project as discussed in Solaris, The Dispossessed, and The Forever War. This book offers an insight into the darkest power abuses of mankind where the oppression, silencing, and marginalisation of those who are not us continues and flourishes. Who are the monsters of our future the Others invading from another planet or the unseen and unrecognised Other within
