Senior Citizenship Retirement Migration And Welfare In The European Union:

Senior citizenship? Louise Ackers, Peter Dwyer, 2002-06-26 This book charts the development of mobility and welfare rights for those citizens exercising their right to move or return home on retirement under the Free Movement of Persons provisions and explores their experiences of international mobility It is set within the context of Citizenship of the Union Senior citizenship draws on substantial primary research material to combine detailed analysis of the framework of EU rights shaping social with in depth qualitative interviews involving retired migrants across six member states Greece Portugal Italy the United Kingdom Sweden and Ireland describe and evaluate an innovative approach to comparative enquiry that combines biographical interviews with legal and qualitative analysis highlight the diverse nature of retirement migration encompassing the experiences of returning workers migrating retirees and post retirement returnees Topics are explored thematically in the context of comparative social policy raising important and topical issues around the future of social citizenship and the implications of the exercise of agency in an increasingly global and mobile world

Senior Citizenship? Louise Ackers, Peter Dwyer, 2002-06-26 Debates about citizenship in Europe are increasingly topical as the EU expands This book charts the development of mobility and welfare rights for retired people moving or returning home under the Free Movement of Persons provisions It raises important issues around the future of social citizenship in an increasingly global and mobile world

Migration, Work and Citizenship in the Enlarged European Union Samantha Currie, 2016-04-22 Drawing upon socio legal research this insightful book considers labour migration within the context of eastward European Union enlargement Specifically this volume explores the legal rights of accession nationals to access employment their experiences once in work and their engagement with broader family and social entitlement By combining analysis of the legal framework governing free movement related rights with analysis of qualitative data gained from interviews with Polish migrants this volume is able to speculate on the significance the status of Union citizenship holds for nationals of the recently acceded CEE Member States Citizenship is conceptualised not merely as rights but as a practice a real lived experience The citizenship status of migrants from the CEE Member States is shaped by formal legal entitlement law in action as it is implemented by the Member States and accessed by the migrants and social and cultural perceptions and experiences on the ground

Social Policy Review 19 Clarke, Karen, Maltby, Tony, 2007-07-11 Social Policy Review provides students academics and all those interested in welfare issues with critical analyses of progress and change in areas of major interest during the past year Contributions reflect key themes in the UK and internationally The first part of the collection focuses on developments and change in core UK social policy areas Part two provides in depth analyses of topical issues from both UK and international perspectives while this year's themed section examines Migration and social policy

Return Migration and Psychosocial Wellbeing Zana Vathi, Russell King, 2017-03-27 Return migration is a topic of growing interest among academics and policy makers Nonetheless issues of psychosocial wellbeing are rarely discussed in its context Return

Migration and Psychosocial Wellbeing problematises the widely held assumption that return to the country of origin especially in the context of voluntary migrations is a psychologically safe process By exploding the forced voluntary dichotomy it analyses the continuum of experiences of return and the effect of time the factors that affect the return process and associated mobilities and their multiple links with returned migrants wellbeing or psychosocial issues Drawing research encompassing four different continents Europe North America Africa and Asia to offer a blend of studies this timely volume contrasts with previous research which is heavily informed by clinical approaches and concepts as the contributions in this book come from various disciplinary approaches such as sociology geography psychology politics and anthropology Indeed this title will appeal to academics NGOs and policy makers working on migration and psychosocial wellbeing and undergraduate and postgraduate students who are interested in the fields of migration social policy ethnicity studies health studies human geography sociology and anthropology

Historical Dictionary of the Welfare State Bent

Greve,2014-03-06 Definitions of the welfare state often focus on how and why a state intervenes in the economy and welfare of the individual citizen A welfare state does not however have to mean state intervention it may merely reflect the state s restrictions and the demands of the labor market families and the rest of civil society This book covers the history of the welfare state from Chancellor Otto von Bismarck s reforms in Germany starting in 1883 to the present day This third edition of Historical Dictionary of the Welfare State covers the history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 hundred cross referenced entries that focus on the definitions and concepts that are the most relevant long lasting and important concepts It provides insights from major areas in social science including sociology economics political science and social work This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the welfare state

Caring Responsibilities in European Law and Policy

Eugenia Caracciolo di Torella,Annick Masselot,2020-02-28 This book explores the emerging engagement of EU law with care and carers The book argues that the regulation of care by the EU is crucial because it enables the development of a broad range of policies It contributes to the sustainability of society and ultimately it enables individuals to flourish Yet to date the EU approach to regulating the caring relationship remains piecemeal and lacks the underpinning of a cohesive strategy Against this backdrop this book argues that the EU can and must take leadership in this area by setting principles and standards in accordance with the values of the treaty in particular gender equality human dignity solidarity and well being The book further makes a case for a stronger protection for carers who should not only be protected against discrimination but should also be supported valued and put in a position to make choices and lead full lives In order to achieve this a proactive approach to rebalancing the relationship between paid and unpaid work is necessary Ultimately the book puts forward a series of legal and policy recommendations for a holistic approach to care in the EU

From Exclusion

to Inclusion in Old Age Thomas Scharf,Norah Christine Keating,2012 Taking a broad international perspective this highly topical book casts light on patterns and processes that either place groups of older adults at risk of exclusion or are conducive to their inclusion      Transnational Families, Migration and the Circulation of Care Loretta Baldassar, Laura Merla, 2013-09-11 Without denying the difficulties that confront migrants and their distant kin this volume highlights the agency of family members in transnational processes of care in an effort to acknowledge the transnational family as an increasingly common family form and to question the predominantly negative conceptualisations of this type of family It re conceptualises transnational care as a set of activities that circulates between home and host countries across generations and fluctuates over the life course going beyond a focus on mother child relationships to include multidirectional exchanges across generations and between genders It highlights in particular how the sense of belonging in transnational families is sustained by the reciprocal though uneven exchange of caregiving which binds members together in intergenerational networks of reciprocity and obligation love and trust that are simultaneously fraught with tension contest and relations of unequal power The chapters that make up this volume cover a rich array of ethnographic case studies including analyses of transnational families who circulate care between developing nations in Africa Latin America and Asia to wealthier nations in North America Europe and Australia There are also examples of intra and extra European Australian and North American migration which involve the mobility of both the unskilled and working class as well as the skilled middle and aspirational classes      The SAGE Handbook of Social Gerontology Dale Dannefer, 2010-09-14 This volume reflects the emergence of ageing as a global concern including chapters by international scholars from Asia Australasia Europe and North America It provides a comprehensive overview of key trends and issues in the field drawing upon the full range of social science disciplines The Handbook is organized into five parts each exploring different aspects of research into social aspects of ageing Disciplinary overviews summaries of findings from key disciplinary areas within social gerontology Social relationships and social differences topics include social inequality gender and ageing the role of religion inter generational ties social networks and friendships in later life Individual characteristics and change in later life chapters in this section examine different aspects of individual aging including self and identity cognitive processes and biosocial interactions and their impact on physical and psychological aging Comparative perspectives and cultural innovations topics in this section include ageing and development ageing in a global context migration and cross cultural perspectives on grandparenthood Policy issues The final section examines some of the main policy concerns affecting older people across the world Topics include developments in social policy long term care technology and older people end of life issues work and retirement crime and older people and the politics of old age This will be essential reading for all students researchers and policy makers concerned with the major issues influencing the lives of older people across the globe      Transnational Migration and Home in Older Age Katie Walsh, Lena Näre, 2016-03-10 This book examines the transformations in home lives arising in later life and resulting from global migrations It provides insight into the ways in which contemporary demographic processes of aging and migration shape the meaning experience and making of home for those in older age Chapters explore how home is negotiated in relation to possibilities for return to the homeland family networks aging and health care cultures and belonging The book deliberately crosses emerging sub fields in transnationalism studies by offering case studies on aging labour migrants retirement migrants and return migrants as well as older people affected by the movement of others including family members and migrant care workers The diversity of people s experiences of home in later life is fully explored and the impact of social class gender and nationality as well as the corporeal dimensions of older age are all in evidence

Handbook on Gender in Asia Shirlena Huang,Kanchana N. Ruwanpura,2020-07-31 The Handbook on Gender in Asia critically examines through a gender perspective five broad themes of significance to Asia the Theory and Practice of researching in Asia Gender Ageing and Health Gender and Labour Gendered Migrations and Mobilities and Gender at the Margins With each chapter providing an overview of the key intellectual developments on the issue under discussion as well as empirical examples to examine how the Asian case sheds light on these debates this collection will be an invaluable reference for scholars of gender and Asia

Moving People and Knowledge Louise Ackers,Bryony Gill,2009-01-01 The book can be seen as a welcomed contribution to this field of study it raises some important questions and problems of scientific mobility H gni Kals Hansen Papers in Regional Science This is a very timely book looking at East West migration which has recently become a hot political issue in various West European countries It does an excellent job in laying out the intricacies of mobility that affect different groups particularly knowledge migrants The book successfully shows that knowledge migrants follow different motivational routes than other groups of migrants in their choice of mobility between institutes and nations It makes a valuable contribution to a growing body of research that seeks to change established thinking and rhetoric about migration and to shift it from a dualistic thinking of migration in terms of economic vs non economic migrants What this book shows is that the professional identity of people often supersedes their nationalities in relation to why and where they move Sami Mahroum NESTA UK Based on excellent empirical research on migrating scientists from Poland and Bulgaria to the UK and Germany this book follows an innovative agenda which is crucial to the world today the movement of people and the movement of knowledge It achieves this by a creative blend of analysing personal stories embedded in their professional and family networks on the one hand and macro scale discussions of brain drain brain gain and national and European policy implications on the other Russell King University of Sussex UK This book makes a timely contribution to understanding the circulation of scientific knowledge via international mobility It skillfully combines an analysis of structural and institutional changes with a focus on individual circumstances life courses and motivations The outcome is a compelling account of the role of international migration in the transfer of knowledge across borders and in shaping the careers of individual scientists This places people and human mobility at the heart of the debate about how the knowledge economy is produced and reproduced Allan Williams London Metropolitan University UK Moving

People and Knowledge provides a fresh examination of the processes of highly skilled science migration Focusing on intra European mobility and in particular on the new dynamics of East West migration the authors investigate the movement of Polish and Bulgarian researchers to and from the UK and Germany Key questions include who is moving how long for and why In addressing the motivations and experiences of mobile scientists and their families insights into professional and personal motivations are provided demonstrating how relationships networks and infrastructures shape decision making This book provides a useful perspective on the implications of increasing researcher mobility for both sending and receiving regions and the individuals concerned which is necessary for the construction of future policies on sustainable scientific development This empirical account provides a nuanced analysis of the duration and flow of scientific mobility showing the prevalence of repeat and shuttle moves in science careers It will be of particular interest to researchers in European social policy migration studies and EU law as well as policymakers in the field of highly skilled migration especially those working on the free movement of persons provisions and the European Research Area and European Area of Higher Education

Transnational Aging Vincent Horn, Cornelia Schweppe, 2015-09-16 This book focuses on the diverse interrelationships between aging and transnationality It argues that the lives of older people are increasingly entangled in transnational contexts on the social as well as the cultural economic and political levels Within these contexts older people both actively contribute to and are affected by border crossing processes In addition while some may voluntarily opt for adding a transnational dimension to their lives others may have less choice in the matter Transnational aging therefore provides a critical lens on how older people shape organize and cope with life in contexts that are no longer bound to the frame of a single nation state Accordingly the book emphasizes the agency of older people as well as the personal and structural constraints of their situations The chapters in this book reveal these aspects by approaching transnational aging from different methodological angles such as ethnographic research comparative studies quantitative data and policy and discourse analysis Geographically the chapters cover a wide range of countries in Africa Asia Europe North and South America such as Namibia Thailand Russia Germany the United States and Ecuador Working futures? Roulstone, Alan, Barnes, Colin, 2005-11-16 Working futures looks at the current effectiveness and future scope for enabling policy in the field of disability and employment By addressing the current strengths and weaknesses of disability and employment policy the book asks Is the dichotomy of work for those who can and support for those who cannot appropriate to the lives of disabled people Does current and recent policy reduce or reinforce barriers to paid employment What lessons from other welfare regimes can we draw on to further disabled people s working futures The book is original in bringing together a wide range of policy insights to bear on the question of disabled people s working futures It includes analyses of recent policy initiatives as diverse as the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 Draft Disability Bill the benefits system New Deal for Disabled People job retention policy comparative disability policy the role of the voluntary sector and new policies for a new workplace

Contributions from academics NGOs the OECD and the disabled peoples movement bring multiple theoretical professional and user perspectives to the debates at the heart of the book

Processes of Immigration in Rural Europe Stefan Kordel Igor Jelen, Tobias Weidinger, 2019-01-18 Contemporary immigration processes such as forced migration and labour induced mobility as well as lifestyle and leisure oriented movements increasingly affect areas in Europe that are considered as peripheral or rural This edited collection sheds light on the diversity of in migration its specific implications for development and strategies for coping Contributions from various sub disciplines of the social sciences including human and cultural geography sociology and spatial planning with different regional foci encourage theoretical discussions enhancing empirical knowledge and providing stimuli for practitioners involved in migration and development issues The structure of the volume therefore follows four main themes 1 conceptual reflections on immigration to peripheral rural areas and development prospects 2 patterns and types of immigration processes drawing on various case studies from all over Europe 3 realms of integration namely housing economy and social life 4 immigration management with a special emphasis on regional and local strategies undertaken by policy makers the private sector and civil society
