Senses And Sensibilities:

Senses and Sensibilities Jillyn Smith, 1989-05-24 A lively book about the five senses beginning with a history of sensing. Comprehensively treats each of the five senses from concrete explanations and problems of sensory loss and deprivation to the sociological implications of our sensory input. From sensory disorders and individual differences in perception to an exploration of the fine art of tasting and an exploration of therapeutic touch. Engagingly entertains such subjects as eyebrow greetings, artificial noses and the effect of sugar on our moods.

Sensing China Shengqing Wu, Xuelei Huang, 2022-08-16 This book presents the first collection of studies of the senses and sensory experiences in China, filling a gap in sensory research while offering new approaches to Chinese Studies. Bringing together 12 chapters by literary scholars and historians, this book critically interrogates the deeply rooted meanings that the senses have coded in Chinese culture and society. Built on an exploration of the sensorium in early Chinese thought and late imperial literature, this book reveals the sensory manifestations of societal change and cultural transformation in China from the nineteenth century to the present day. It features in-depth examinations of a variety of concepts, representations and practices, including aural and visual paradigms in ancient Chinese texts, odours in Ming-Qing literature and Republican Shanghai, the tactility of kissing and the sonic culture of community singing in the Republican era, the socialist sensorium in art propaganda, memory and embodied experiences, and contemporary era multisensory cultural practices. Engaging with the exciting sensory turn, this original work makes a unique contribution to the world history of the senses and will be a valuable resource to scholars and students of Chinese Literature, History, Cultural Studies and Media.

Directing scenes and senses Peter M. Boenisch, 2015-08-01 As European theatre directors become a familiar presence on international stages and a new generation of theatre makers absorbs their impulses, this study develops fresh perspectives on Regie, the Continental European tradition of staging playtexts. Leaving behind unhelpful clichés that pit the director against the playwright, Peter M. Boenisch stages playful encounters between Continental theatre and Continental philosophy. The contemporary Regie work of Thomas Ostermeier, Frank Castorf, Ivo van Hove, Guy Cassiers, TG STAN and others here meets the works of Friedrich Schiller and Leopold Jessner, Hegelian speculative dialectics and the critical philosophy of Jacques Rancière and Slavoj Žižek in order to explore the thinking of Regie: how to think Regie and how Regie thinks. This partial and sideways look invites a wider reconsideration of the potential of playing theatre today, of its aesthetic possibilities and its political stakes in the global
