and the Hidden Messages of Children's Films M. Keith Booker, 2009-11-25 This work is a wide ranging survey of American children's film that provides detailed analysis of the political implications of these films as well as a discussion of how movies intended for children have come to be so persistently charged with meaning Disney Pixar and the Hidden Messages of Children's Films provides wide ranging scrutiny of one of the most lucrative American entertainment genres Beyond entertaining children and parents and ringing up merchandise sales are these films attempting to shape the political views of young viewers M Keith Booker examines this question with a close reading of dozens of films from Disney Pixar Dreamworks and other studios debunking some out there claims The Ant Bully communist propaganda while seriously considering the political content of each film Disney Pixar and the Hidden Messages of Children's Films recaps the entire history of movies for young viewers from Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs to this year's Up then focuses on the extraordinary output of children's films in the last two decades What Booker finds is that by and large their lessons are decidedly comfortably mainstream and any political subtext more often than not is inadvertent Booker also offers some advice to parents for helping children read films in a more sophisticated way *Catalog of Copyright Entries. Trafficking with Demons Martha Rampton,2022-01-15 Trafficking with Demons explores how magic was perceived practiced and prohibited in western Europe during the first millennium CE Through the overlapping frameworks of religion ritual and gender Martha Rampton connects early Christian reckonings with pagan magic to later doctrines and dogmas Challenging established views on the role of women in ritual magic during this period Rampton provides a new narrative of the ways in which magic was embedded within the foundational assumptions of western European society informing how people understood the cosmos divinity and their own Christian faith As Rampton shows throughout the first Christian millennium magic was thought to play a natural role within the functioning of the universe and existed within a rational cosmos hierarchically arranged according to a great chain of being Trafficking with the demons of the lower air was the essence of magic Interactions with those demons occurred both in highly formalistic ritual settings and on a routine and casual basis Rampton tracks the competition between pagan magic and Christian belief from the first century CE when it was fiercest through the early Middle Ages as atavistic forms of magic mutated and found sanctuary in the daily habits of the converted peoples and new paganisms entered Europe with their own forms of magic By the year 1000 she concludes many forms of magic had been tamed and were by the reckoning of the elite essentially ineffective as were the women who practiced it and the rituals that attended it
