France, 2023-09-14 The Definitive Study and Solution to the Centuries old Mystery of the World's Most Sighted Sea Serpent There is a long history of conflating sightings of unidentified marine objects UMOs as purported sea serpents Most sightings are either of an extremely brief duration or made by a single observer and thus often easy to dismiss This is not the case however with respect to the so called Gloucester Sea Serpent which frequented the Massachusetts and New York coasts during the early nineteenth century Witnessed by hundreds of people for extended periods repeatedly over many days the Gloucester UMO is the most sighted sea serpent in history As well due to being the object of study at the time and shortly thereafter by naturalists the mysterious creature remains the most thoroughly investigated of all putative sea serpents For these reasons it has achieved an exalted status among cryptozoologists who maintain it represents the best evidence for the existence of sea serpents For the first time an eminently qualified aquatic biologist and ethnozoologist presents the definitive history of the phenomena and carefully examines the evidence It is concluded that the most parsimonious explanation behind the Gloucester Sea Serpent is as early evidence for what is today recognized as being one of the most serious threats to marine biodiversity entanglement in fishing gear and other maritime debris Therefore although widely considered to be restricted to the advent and widespread use of non degradable plastic in the middle of the twentieth century this new interpretation of the Gloucester UMO suggests that entanglement has a much longer environmental history than is commonly believed Robert L France is a world renowned scientist at Dalhousie University and the author or editor of twenty books and two hundred papers on a wide range of environmental subjects He has undertaken conservation biology research from the High Arctic to the tropics on organisms from bacteria to whales which has been cited many thousands of times in the literature Dr France is a leading authority on many aspects of aquatic zoology including marine ecology and ethnozoology and may be the most qualified person to have recently undertaken research and published peer reviewed articles on the beguiling and befuddling topic of 3 Baruch Alexander Kulik, 2010-03-26 This work provides the key to one of aguatic mystery animals known as cryptids the most enigmatic Jewish Hellenistic texts preserved in Greek and Slavonic Despite the fact that 3 Baruch is one of the major early Jewish apocalypses it has been relatively neglected in modern scholarship probably since 3 Baruch is one of the most difficult works to comprehend and classify Its content differs significantly from that of other writings of the same genre as the book preserves syncretistic ideas and tendencies which are combined in unique ways. The worldview the message and the very textual structure of 3 Baruch are enigmatic in many respects The present study demonstrates that the textual history of 3 Baruch implicit meanings and structural links in its text as well as conceptions behind the text are partly reconstructable Moreover 3 Baruch properly read significantly enriches our understanding of the history of the motifs found in early Jewish lore at times providing missing links between different stages of their development and preserves important evidence on the roots of Jewish mysticism proto Gnostic and proto Christian traditions The study contains the introduction synoptic translation textual notes and detailed commentaries Myths and Symbols: Or, Aboriginal Religions in America Stephen Denison Peet, 1905 The Ante-Nicene Fathers Reverend Alexander Roberts, 2007-05-01 One of the first great events in Christian history was the Council of Nicaea in 325 AD convened to organize Christian sects and beliefs into a unified doctrine The great Christian clergymen who wrote before this famous event are referred to as the Ante Nicenes and the Apostolic Fathers and their writings are collected here in a ten volume set The Ante Nicenes lived so close to the time of Christ that their interpretations of the New Testament are considered more authentic than modern voices But they are also

real and flawed men who are more like their fellow Christians than they are like the Apostles making their words echo in the ears of spiritual seekers In Volume IX of the 10 volume collected works of the Ante Nicenes first published between 1885 and 1896 the series editors return to a collection that they had thought complete Archaeological discoveries presented them with new early Christian texts that needed publication This volume is divided into two parts newly discovered fragments and writings from a variety of sources and additional commentaries by Origen These new fragments include the Gospel of Peter and the Apocalypse of Peter the Diatessaron of Tatian and the Vision of Paul the Apocalypse of the Virgin and the Apocalypse of Sedrach The Testament of Abraham and the Acts of Xanthippe and Polyxena the Narrative of Zosimus and the Epistles of Clement the Apology of Aristides the Philosopher the Passion of the Scillitan Martyrs epistle to Gregory and Origen's Book of Wisdom by John Gill James J. MacCabbee Company, 2009-04 About the Author John Gill 1697 1771 was born in Kettering Northamptonshire In his youth he attended Kettering Grammar School mastering the Latin classics and learning Greek by age eleven The young scholar also had a love for Hebrew which would follow him throughout his life At about twelve years of age Gill heard a sermon from his pastor William Wallis whose text came from Genesis 3 9 And the Lord called unto Adam and said unto him where art thou He reflected often on the message of Wallis sermon and it eventually led to his conversion It was not until seven years later however that young John made a public profession of his faith in Christ when he was almost nineteen years of age His first pastoral work was as an intern at age twenty one and he later became a pastor in Southwark England His pastorate lasted 51 years Gill was an English Bible scholar and a prolific writer who authored among other things an expository commentary on the entire Bible John Gill was a profound scholar whose ministry in some fashion still touches millions of people worldwide About this Book Unlike human wisdom the Book of Proverbs is of divine inspiration The Book of Wisdom is presented as a devotional from John Gill's commentary on these Proverbs Book of Wisdom is a tribute offered by the James J MacCabbee Company to Pastor John Gills lifetime of brilliant work As Proverbs 8 1 Doth not Wisdom cry This daily devotional is prepared for governmental leaders leaders in the news and entertainment industries clergy and laypersons employees and employers spouses parents and children In fact Wisdom is offered to anyone who has ears to hear see Matthew 13 9 Those who receive such Wisdom as presented here will not be disappointed Ante-Nicene Fathers: Fathers of the Early Church (Complete) Philip Schaff, The Church of God which sojourns at Rome to the Church of God sojourning at Corinth to them that are called and sanctified by the will of God through our Lord Jesus Christ Grace unto you and peace from Almighty God through Jesus Christ be multiplied Owing dear brethren to the sudden and successive calamitous events which have happened to ourselves we feel that we have been somewhat tardy in turning our attention to the points respecting which you consulted us and especially to that shameful and detestable sedition utterly abhorrent to the elect of God which a few rash and self confident persons have kindled to such a pitch of frenzy that your venerable and illustrious name worthy to be universally loved has suffered grievous injury For who ever dwelt even for a short time among you and did not find your faith to be as fruitful of virtue as it was firmly established Who did not admire the sobriety and moderation of your godliness in Christ Who did not proclaim the magnificence of your habitual hospitality And who did not rejoice over your perfect and well grounded knowledge For ye did all things without respect of persons and walked in the commandments of God being obedient to those who had the rule over you and giving all fitting honour to the presbyters among you Ye enjoined young men to be of a sober and serious mind ye instructed your wives to do all things with a blameless becoming and pure conscience loving their husbands as in duty bound and ye taught them that living in the rule of obedience they should manage their household affairs becomingly and be in every respect marked by discretion
