communist and after the Soviet repression of the Hungarian Revolution a former communist Hentea offers a detailed exploration of Tzara's early life in Romania neglected by other scholars a scrupulous assessment of the Dada years and an original examination of Tzara's life and works after Dada The one thing that remained constant through all of Tzara's artistic and political metamorphoses Hentea tells us was a desire to unlock the secrets and mysteries of language Cannibalizing the Canon, 2024-02-06 This rich in depth exploration of Dada's roots in East Central Europe is a vital addition to existing research on Dada and the avant garde Through deeply researched case studies and employing novel theoretical approaches the volume rewrites the history of Dada as a story of cultural and political hybridity border crossings transitions and transgressions across political class and gender lines Dismantling prevailing notions of Dada as a Western movement the contributors to this volume present East Central Europe as the locus of Dada activity and techniques The articles explore how artists from the region prefigured Dada as well as actively cannibalized that is reabsorbed and further hybridized a range of avant garde techniques thus challenging Western cultural hegemony Voices from Four Directions Brian Swann, 2004-01-01 Gathers stories and songs from thirty one native groups in North America including the Inupiaqs the Lushoots the Catawbas and the Maliseets Studies on Romanian National Consciousness Keith Hitchins, 2023-11-27

Everything to Nothing Geert Buelens, 2016-02-16 The poets Great War violence revolution and modernism The First World War changed the map of Europe forever Empires collapsed new countries were born revolutions shocked and inspired the world This tumult sometimes referred to as the literary war saw an extraordinary outpouring of writing The conflict opened up a vista of possibilities and tragedies for poetic exploration and at the same time poetry was a tool for manipulating the sentiments of the combatant peoples In Germany alone during the first few months there were over a million poems of propaganda published We think of war poets as pacifistic protestors but that view has been created retrospectively The verse of the time particularly in the early years of the conflict in Fernando Pessoa or Filippo Tommaso Marinetti for example could find in the violence and technology of modern warfare an awful and exhilarating epiphany In this cultural history of the First World War the conflict is seen from the point of view of poets and writers from all over Europe including Rupert Brooke Anna Akhmatova Guillaume Apollinaire Gabriele D Annunzio Vladimir Mayakovsky Rainer Maria Rilke and Siegfried Sassoon Everything to Nothing is the award winning panoramic history of how nationalism and internationalism defined both the war itself and its aftermath revolutionary movements wars for independence civil wars the treaty of Versailles It reveals how poets played a vital role in defining the stakes ambitions and disappointments of postwar Europe Romania, 1916-1941 Dennis Deletant, 2022-08-19 This study challenges the rose tinted view of the interwar period in Romanian history which is often judged against the darkness of almost five decades of Communist rule Romania like several of the states of Eastern Europe emerged from the First World War as it had entered it as a predominantly agricultural country and one of its major problems was the condition of the peasantry This volume's focus is the drive to improve that condition on the collapse of democracy and the search by Romania's leaders for strategies to secure the state to assert the country's independence and to maintain its territorial integrity in the face of the threat to the European order posed by two totalitarian systems represented by Nazi Germany and the Soviet Union. By examining recent scholarship this volume provides the most up to date account of Romania's predicament in the interwar years. Romania 1916-1941 is a useful resource for upper level undergraduates, postgraduates and scholars interested in foreign policy, politics, society, internationalization and late development in interwar Central and Eastern Europe. The Dawn is Always New Rocco Scotellaro, 2014-07-14. This selection of poetry presents in a bilingual edition what the translators regard as the very best poems of Rocco Scotellaro 1923-1953. Originally published in 1980, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905. The Literature of Nationalism Robert B. Pynsent, 2016-07-27. The Literature of Nationalism concerns literature in its broadest sense and the manner in which in belles lettres, the oral tradition and journalism, language and literature create national, nationalist myths. It treats East European culture from Finland to Yugoslavia, from Bohemia to Romania, from the nineteenth century to today. One third of the book concerns women and ethnic identity and the rest covers subjects as varied as Bulgarian Fascism and the impact of political change on language in Hungary and ex-Yugoslavia. The Avant-Garde and the Margin Sanja Bahun-Radunovic, V.G. Julie Rajan, 2009-03-26. The collection of essays, The Avant-garde and the Margin: New Territories of the Modernist Avant-garde, refigures the critical and historical picture of the modernist avant-garde by introducing a variety of less commonly discussed geo-artistic sites and dynamics. The contributors explore the multifaceted relations established between the avant-garde centers (France, Germany, England, and others) and their counterparts in the cultural periphery (Greece, India, Japan, Poland, Quebec, Romania, and the former Yugoslavia) as well as the unique artistic and literary dialogues which these encounters engendered. The primary concern of the anthology is the set of relations established between the center and the margin, the redefinition of which was pivotal for the formulation of the modernist avant-garde aesthetic project itself. While enriching the kaleidoscopic picture of modernism, the essays in this collection also offer new methodological approaches to this polychrome cultural image. In this way, the collection avoids the pitfalls of both the traditional diffusionist Eurocentric model of the world and the more recent over-relativization of the positions of the margin and the center. In their stead, the anthology proposes a hermeneutics of encounter that is simultaneously spatial and historical, aware of its limits but convinced of its own necessity.

History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2006-09-13. Continuing the work undertaken in Vol 1 of the History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe, Vol 2 considers various topographic sites multicultural cities border areas cross cultural corridors multiethnic regions that cut across national boundaries rendering them permeable to the flow of hybrid cultural messages By focusing on the literary cultures of specific geographical locations this volume intends to put into practice a new type of comparative study Traditional comparative literary studies establish transnational comparisons and contrasts but thereby reconfirm however inadvertently the very national borders they play down This volume inverts the expansive momentum of comparative studies towards ever broader regional European and world literary histories While the theater of this volume is still the literary culture of East Central Europe the contributors focus on pinpointed local traditions and geographic nodal points Their histories of Riga Plovdiv Timisoara or Budapest of Transylvania or the Danube corridor to take a few examples reveal how each of these sites was during the last two hundred years a home for a variety of foreign or ethnic literary traditions next to the one now dominant within the national borders By foregrounding such non national or hybrid traditions this volume pleads for a diversification and pluralization of local and national histories A genuine comparatist revival of literary history should involve the recognition that treading on native grounds means actually treading on grounds cultivated by diverse people

Europe and the Historical Legacies in the Balkans Raymond Detrez, Barbara Segaert, 2008 The enlargement of the EU with the Balkan countries has aroused the skepticism of many Although EU admission is primarily a matter of economic and political concerns questions of cultural import are readily brought into play Does the country in question conform sufficiently to our standards of a European identity The problematic status of the Balkans in this respect largely consists in their common Byzantine and Ottoman legacies By focusing on Bulgaria and its neighbours Romania Greece and Turkey the authors of this collection attempt to elucidate how mutually incompatible the cultural identity of the Ottoman successor states and that of Europe are Ample attention is devoted not only to the perception of the Balkans in the West but also to the self image of people in the Balkans and perceptions they hold of the West If anything like a Balkan identity can be said to exist what is its relation to the various ethnic national religious and linguistic communities Notably what was and is the role played by religion in nation state formation The relationship with Europe forms the thread that runs through the discussion of these issues

The Oxford Handbook of Global Modernisms Mark Wollaeger, Matt Eatough, 2013-10 The Oxford Handbook of Global Modernisms expands the scope of modernism beyond its traditional focus on English and Irish literature to explore the contributions of artists from countries and regions like the US Cuba Spain the Balkans China Japan India Vietnam and Nigeria
