September 11th Families For Peaceful Tomorrows Turning Tragedy Into Hope For A Better World:

September 11th Families for Peaceful Tomorrows David Potorti, September 11th Families for Peaceful Tomorrows, 2003 Put together by a non profit group of family members of September 11 victims who have dedicated their time to finding alternatives to war as a response to personal and national tragedies this book offers a collection of essays from the group's members and high profile supporters Representing more than 50 family members as well as more than 2000 supporters the group has spoken in 25 states and eight foreign countries and has sent delegates to both Afghanistan and Iraq to meet with people who have also lost loved ones due to terrorism and war

September 11th Families for Peaceful Tomorrows David Potorti, Peaceful Tomorrows, 2003-09-01 The true story of a group of people devastated by loss and inspired to save others from the same heartbreak Very personal and moving accounts Publishers Weekly Told through essays and correspondence this is the tale of Peaceful Tomorrows an anti war organization made up of survivors of the 9 11 attacks as well as friends and family members of those who died that day In the midst of shock rage and a rush to war these are people who though they had every reason for anger consciously chose a different path persisting even as others accused them of naiveté cowardice or a lack of patriotism In the hope of sparing others from the suffering they had endured they protested the dropping of bombs on civilians in Afghanistan and Iraq and advocated for nonviolent solutions to the problem of terrorism to seek justice and problem solving rather than a cycle of retaliation and were twice nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize This is their remarkable story
