Isaiah 1-39 Gary V. Smith, 2007 One in an ongoing series of esteemed and popular Bible commentary volumes based on the New International Version text Reading David and Goliath in Greek and Hebrew Benjamin J.M. Johnson, 2015-10-05 The story of David and Goliath existed in antiquity in two variant literary editions a short version found in the Greek tradition of Codex Vaticanus LXXB and a longer version found in the Hebrew tradition of the MT Benjamin J M Johnson proposes that each version is worthy of study in its own right and offers a close literary reading of the narrative of David and Goliath in the Greek text of 1 Reigns 16 18 The author explores a method for reading the Septuagint that recognizes it is both a document in its own right and a translation of a Hebrew original In offering a reading of the septuagintal version of the David and Goliath narrative the literary difference between the two versions of the story and the literary significance of the Greek translation are highlighted Life of Christ Robert Geis, 2013-03-08 Life of Christ bridges the gap between commentaries and devotional accounts of Christ s ministry Applying the requisite analytical tools it addresses the question is His life worth studying The Resurrection event would confirm it is as would the Gospel miracle accounts neither of which Geis argues skeptical response disproves Salvation history necessitates the reality of Mary s virginity which the author develops lexically and theologically Jesus teachings and parables bring out a Christ Whose moral precepts are rooted in His Divinity and not in western philosophic nostrums Geis discussion of Christ on marriage and His commandment of love sharpens this observation with lexical application He also addresses the inconsistent objectives and circular reasoning of various exegetical schools which have no place in a study of the Gospels

The Process of Authority Jan Dušek, 2016-09-26. The authority of canonical texts, especially of the Bible, is often described in static definitions. However, the authority of these texts was acquired as well as exercised in a dynamic process of transmission and reception. This book analyzes selected aspects of this historical process. Attention is paid to biblical master texts and to other texts related to the biblical worlds in various historical periods and contexts. The studies examine particular texts, textual variants, translations, paraphrases, and other elements in the process of textual transmission. The range covered spans from the Iron Age through the Old Testament texts, their manuscripts, and other texts from Qumran, the Septuagint, down to the New Testament, Apocrypha, Coptic texts, Patristics, and even modern translations of the Bible. The book is particularly intended for those interested in the history of reception and transmission of biblical texts and in textual criticism. Tehillah le-Moshe Mordechai Cogan, Barry L.
