

ALEXANDRA TRAINING HOMES FOR DOMESTIC SERVANTS.

IN

It was pointed out at a recent meeting of the Union that there were plenty of girls in Victoria ready to become domestic servants under certain conditions. Of course the aspiring servants will be allowed to choose their own conditions, but their prospective mistresses think one essential condition is their complete conversion. The conversion is to be brought about by passing them through a training institution.

OUT

ON WEDNESDAY.

MISTRESS.—Oh, there you are, Mary Ann. I want you particularly. You know it is my day at home.

MAID.—I'm very sorry, but you'll have to change it, ma'am. Wednesday is my day at home.

"I don't want to prevent the girls sticking out for suitable conditions," says Mary Ann. "That's all right; washing is sent out," replies the mistress. "I can't iron." "Ironing is sent out." "I can't scrub." "We have a woman in." "I can't look after children." "Oh," chips in the master, "we have two, but we can kill them."

THE LADY OF THE HOUSE.—Have you seen my husband? Ah, there you are, John. I want you to come with me. You can't have him, THE SERVANT.—Well, you can't have him, ma'am. It's the servants' picnic to-day, and I want him to carry this basket.

MISTRESS.—Why, Susan, those are my things you have on? SUSAN.—Yes, mum. I engaged to be a servant under suitable conditions, and the privilege of wearing your clothes is one of them conditions.

MISTRESS.—What, not satisfied, Jane? Why, we do all the work. MAID.—Yes, ma'am, but you don't do it well enough for me.

Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Environmental Audit Committee,2007-10-29 The Committee's report finds that over the past decade the Government has failed to rise fully to the domestic challenge of climate change and its likely failure to reach its domestic target on reducing carbon dioxide emissions will have a damaging impact on the UK's international leadership role in reaching a post Kyoto agreement Although the Government has introduced some new arrangements for co-ordinating climate change policy more effectively across Whitehall the scale of the challenge and the complexity involved in radically restructuring the economy to bring about the needed emission reduction targets requires further changes There is a need for a strategic review of Government action to ensure that the leadership and responsibility for the development and delivery of climate change mitigation and adaptation policies is clear as well as a new long term policy framework to ensure that policies introduced today do not undermine our ability to reduce emissions in the future The Committee also recommends that a new and authoritative body be established within the Cabinet Office to drive forward policy and to diminish the potential for a conflict of objectives between departments Scientific Methodology in

Models of Charitable Care: Catholic Nuns and Children in their Care in Amsterdam, 1852-2002 Annelies van Heijst, 2008-06-30 Models of Charitable Care analyses the practice of Catholic nuns in Amsterdam in the 19th and 20th century Attention is paid to the ambiguous ascetic spiritual discourse that underpinned their work it encouraged charity as solidarity with strangers but caused intense emotional distance too Historiography is mainly manufactured by religious and lay academics who shared the congregational perspective and presented fairly positive evaluations Criticism from within however is voiced by care leavers who grew up in homes ran by religious Some are grateful others bitter The sisters were living models who combined an anti worldly outlook with a practical concern for vulnerable creatures Relating various theoretical interpretations a typology of three models is developed with agency as the differentiating criterion

Servants of Culture Ambika Natarajan, 2023-05-12 In nineteenth century Cisleithanian Austria poor working class women underwent mass migrations from the countryside to urban centers for menial or unskilled labor jobs Through legal provisions on women s work in the Habsburg Empire there was an increase in the policing and surveillance of what was previously a gender neutral career turning it into one dominated by thousands of female rural migrants Servants of Culture provides an account of Habsburg servant law since the eighteenth century and uncovers the paternalistic and maternalistic assumptions and anxieties which turned the interest of socio political players in improving poor living and working conditions into practices that created restrictive gender and class hierarchies Through pioneering analysis of the agendas of medical experts police socialists feminists legal reformers and even serial killers this volume puts forth a neglected history of the state of domestic service discourse at the turn of the 19th century and how it shaped and continues to shape the surveillance of women

Hypocrisy and the Politics of Politeness Jenny Davidson, 2004-05-06 In Hypocrisy and the Politics of Politeness Jenny Davidson considers the arguments that define hypocrisy as a moral and political virtue in its own right She shows that these were arguments that thrived in the medium of eighteenth century Britain s culture of politeness In the debate about the balance between truthfulness and politeness Davidson argues that eighteenth century writers from Locke to Austen come down firmly on the side of politeness This is the case even when it is associated with dissimulation or hypocrisy These writers argue that the open profession of vice is far more dangerous for society than even the most glaring discrepancies between what people say in public and what they do in private This book explores what happens when controversial arguments in favour of hypocrisy enter the mainstream making it increasingly hard to tell the difference between hypocrisy and more obviously attractive qualities like modesty self control and tact
