The Appeal of Insurance Geoffrey Wilson Clark, Christiane Thomann, 2010-01-01 The Appeal of Insurance is an excellent collection that reflects a growing interest in insurance research within the social sciences Clearly written and accessible to a variety of audiences this is a volume of world class scholarship Luis Lobo Guerrero School of Politics International Relations and Philosophy Keele University In the marketing of its products the insurance industry has always depended on a considerable dose of moral exhortation and enlightened appeal The Appeal of Insurance traces the ways in which insurance over the past three centuries perhaps more than any other business has grown in concert with a clientele largely of its own making Faced with a public that has preferred to avoid confronting the certainty of fatality or the probabilities of catastrophe insurance promoters have had to create a demand for their products first by persuading the public to see the world as ruled less by divine judgments and more by statistical patterns and second by proclaiming a moral imperative of hedging against death and disaster by the prudential recourse to insurance The essays presented here examine the history of insurance as a process of negotiation between the embedded social legal and cultural norms out of which the practice of insurance grew and the new arrangements and sensibilities that insurance itself helped bring into being Today insurance is a global economic colossus and a fixture in the developed countries of the world But neither the financial clout of the insurance industry nor its ubiquity conveys the full measure of its social and political influence The insurance industry has in fact become a primary agent of discipline and control over public and private behaviours by imposing upon them the criterion of insurability By tracing the boundaries of acceptable and compensated from unacceptable and uncompensated risk insurers directly or indirectly govern people products and markets and by this process become one of the most powerful and pervasive agents of social and economic control Geoffrey Clark is a professor in the Department of History at the State University of New York at Potsdam Gregory Anderson is the former Associate Head of the Business School at the University of Salford Christian Thomann is a senior fellow at the Centre for Risk and Insurance at Leibniz University Hanover J Matthias Graf Von Der Schulenburg is the Director of the Centre for Risk and Insurance at Leibniz University Hanover

Pricing and Performance of Initial Public Offerings in the United States Arvin Ghosh, 2017-07-05 In this timely volume on newly emerging financial markets and investment strategies Arvin Ghosh explores the intriguing topic of initial public offerings IPOs of securities among the most significant phenomena in the United States stock markets in recent years Before the 2000 2001 market turndown hardly a week went by when more than a few companies did not become public either in the organized stock exchange or in the Over the Counter OTC market In the often over burdened technology heavy Nasdaq market the role of IPOs was crucial for the market's new vigor and growth Internet stocks were able to find a mode to supply key momentum to the market In the so called New Economy of the 1990s it was the seductively accessible IPO that ushered in the world's information technology revolution Ghosh sets out to examine the pricing and financial performance of IPOs in the United States during the period 1990 2001 In the opening chapter he discusses the rise and fall of IPOs in the preceding decade Chapter 2 further delineates the IPO process from the start of the prospectus to the end of the quiet period and aftermarket stabilization In chapter 3 Ghosh analyzes the mispricing and deliberately deceptive underpricing or flipping of Internet IPOs Chapter 4 delves deeper into the pricing and operating efficiency of Nasdaq IPOs Chapter 5 analyzes the pricing and long run performance of IPOs both in the New York Stock Exchange and in the Nasdaq markets In chapters 6 and 7 the author deals with the pricing and performance of the venture backed and nonventure backed IPOs in general and Internet IPOs in particular In chapter 8 he analyzes the role of underwriters as market makers In chapter 9 Ghosh discusses the accuracy of analysts earnings forecasts In the concluding chapter he summarizes the principal findings of the study and the recent revival of the IPO market and its place in capital formation as well as the latest developments in t
