The Seven Points of Mind Training Rinpoche Thrangu, Zhyisil Chokyi Ghatsal Trust, 2006-05-01

An Extensive Commentary on the Seven Point Mind Training

Lobsang Gyatso, 2017-01-01 The mind training tradition that developed in Tibet has its source from the great Indian masters Nagarjuna and Shantideva and it was brought into Tibet by Atisha in the eleventh century The practice of Mind training is based on the essential Mahayana teachings of impermanence compassion and the exchange of self and other The lojong teachings are a source of inspiration and guidance shared by masters of all Tibetan traditions The Seven Point Mind Training is a popular Tibetan Buddhist text by a twelfth century Kadampa master Geshe Chekawa An Extensive Commentary on the Seven Point Mind Training is a commentary on The Seven Point Mind Training by Geshe Lobsang Gyatso In this book he explains the practice of Mind Training as the synthesis of all the various trainings of Mahayana Buddhism into one practice with nothing omitted whatsoever He constantly emphasizes the daily practice of the Mind Training teachings over mere study or memorization and enjoins us to place whatever intellectual understanding we may have into pure Dharma practice right now Since the root text used here comprises pithy statements handed down by the great Kadampa masters of Tibet that require further elucidation Gen Lobsang Gyatso explains them with the expertise of an individual who has lived these teachings for many years and has come to a personal experiential mastery of them He espouses them as the fundamental antidote to our samsaric suffering and afflictive emotions the adamant antidote that crushes our own worst enemy our self centered attitude Among many text on Mind Training Geshe Chekawa's Seven Points for Training the Mind is widely used Chekhawa was said to possess all the marks of a great being right from his birth He received the Milarepa instructions from Rechungpa and had many other great teachers like Geshe Tsan Jayulpa and so forth It is said that he had memorized over one hundred scriptures but always felt incomplete thinking that there must be some other teaching for achieving enlightenment Then at thirty he met the great teacher Sharawa who gave him experiential teaching for twelve years Geshe Chekhawa was very satisfied as we see at the end of his text on the Seven Points of Mind Training where he says Now I have no regrets even if I die Sharawa gave this practice of exchanging oneself for the other as a secret teaching to Chekhawa Thus the special focus of this text is how to eliminate self cherishing attitudes which are the source of all the sufferings and problems that we face in our life Lojong Mind Training in Seven Points , The Seven-point Mind Training B. warm kinship with others which occurs with the cultivation of cherishing others even more than oneself This mind training technique is especially well suited for an active life It does not require that we withdraw into seclusion but that we re examine all of our relationships to family friends enemies and strangers and gradually transform our responses to whatever life throws our way Book jacket The Path to Awakening Shamar Rinpoché,2009 Mind Training is a comprehensive practice that is suitable for all types of students It contains the entire path and does not depend on a person s background Mind Training nurses and cultivates the Buddha Nature that pure seed of awakening that is at the very heart of every sentient being It has the power to transform even egotistical self clinging into self lessons Put into practice diligently it is enough to lead all the way to awakening In The Path to Awakening Shamar Rinpoche gives his own detailed commentary on Chekawa Yeshe Dorje s Seven Points of mind Training a text that has been used as a basis for transformative practice in Tibetan Buddhism for close to a thousand years Clear accessible and yet profound this book is filled with practical wisdom philosophy and meditation instructions Amazon com Mind Training Ringu Tulku,1995 This small accessible book contains the essence of the Seven Point Mind Training expressed in the intimate colloquial style that distinguishes Ringu Tulku s teachings The Seven Point Mind Training a lojong practice assumes no prior special training or preparation It does not require practitioners to enter seclusion or change the way they live their lives It asks that they examine their relationships with all those around them and make a strong determination to become enlightened for others sake rather than for their own It gives instructions for tonglen breathing practice that ties the concepts of lojong to the physical act of breathing Mind Training focuses simply on giving up self cherishing and transforming self centered thinking into compassion egoistic feelings into altruism desire into acceptance and resentment into joy "A Concise Manual of Lojong - Seven Points of Mind Training" by H.E.
