

LE LENDemain
à dix heures,
il y avait une foule.

Il avait écrit son carton le soir même de l'assassinat de sa sœur aînée et il était dans son hôtel
particulier de Bonn.

Il était là, tout seul et désolé, songeant à sa sœur...

... à l'assassinat
qu'il venait de commettre.

Il me fait singulièrement agité, préoccupé, comme si un mystérieux combat se fit dans son âme.

Comme de l'époque où le grand service que j'avais à me demander était d'aller chercher chez moi dans le secrétaire de ma chambre, les notes d'assassinat.
Ces notes étaient donc à la fois mon secret.

Je ne puis croire de ce soir de l'assassinat de sa sœur aînée, car il me fait une impression d'assassinat et de silence absolu.

Quant à moi,
je ne suis pas un homme de me défendre dans cette maison.

"Voilà la clef de cette chambre que j'ai fermée moi-même en sortant, et la clef de son secrétaire."

de l'assassinat de sa sœur aînée,
car il me fait une impression

Repair the World Alexandre Gefen, 2024-08-19

Talk of repair has become ubiquitous in recent years In the age of trauma culture art and literature have a new purpose to do justice to console comfort and heal Drawing on works of twenty first century French language literature this monograph shows how literature can not only serve as a means of personal development but expand our capacity for empathy help repair the brokenness implied in victimhood and redress individual and collective traumas Centered on a critical reflection on discourses of repair and reparations it questions the canonical theories on the functions of literature and proposes a new way of writing and reading literary history Praise Repair the World is an invigorating and essential call to arms The modern category of the literary it declares is being outpaced by the contemporary uses of literature as a medium of exorcism empathy reparation testimony commemoration existential renewal and ethical or political connectivity Neither celebrating nor condemning such uses Gefen models a much needed style of criticism interdisciplinary pragmatic relational that comes to grips with their importance Rita Felski the John Stewart Bryan Professor and Professor of English at the University of Virginia USA In an era where self help memoir and autobiography command more than their fair share of publisher s lists in France it s tempting some fifty years after post structuralism s heyday to ascribe an impending death of literature to a taste for narcissistic exhibitionism in French literary culture But why bemoan the waning relevance of the question what is literature asks Alexandre Gefen when evidence abounds in the new century that literary writing increasingly posits itself as a restorative reparative act In the best instances authors who give form to embodied experience imaginatively forge with their readers empathetic bonds of the sort that secular and religious institutions long sustained Repair the World is not only a capacious study of writers who hail from surprisingly broad sectors of French society from health and social workers to skilled laborers journalists and educators it s a situated call for a pragmatics of reading that makes of each book an intervention into the fabric of the real Harnessing sources in affect theory trauma studies ethics and cognitive science Alexandre Gefen performs a critically reparative act all his own reminding us that the notion of literature as autonomous object was itself a historical construct in short an ideology Reading and writing have always conjoined care for the self and care for others and it s upon that reciprocity that the communities of sense of tomorrow can flourish in a spirit of reparative humanism Derek Schilling Professor of French Director of the Centre Louis Marin Department of Modern Languages and Literatures Johns Hopkins University USA Alexandre Gefen s wide ranging thought provoking study takes stock of a paradigm shift in contemporary French literature away from a model of autonomy and intransitivity to ways of writing and reading that seek to repair restore reassure and rebuild From the varied forms of expressivity found in self narratives to the empathetic projections of fiction Repair the World maps out an expanding literary territory that seeks not critical negativity but rather the power to intervene for good in individual and collective life While reserving judgment on the actual extent of literature's effects Gefen demonstrates that contemporary projects and discourses undeniably center the therapeutic and remediative uses of literature With its nuanced readings and keen insights Repair the World has been rightly influential in France its powerful diagnosis of contemporary sensibilities resonates far beyond revealing both the promises and predicaments of literature in the twenty first century Alison James Professor of French and Chair of the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures at the University of Chicago USA What would it mean to ask Sartre's post war question What is literature in the 21st century In this wonderful essay Alexandre Gefen argues convincingly that the main purpose of literature today is to repair a broken world and memorialise forgotten lives Taking examples from predominantly contemporary French literature he proposes that literature as therapy has replaced religions of salvation a politics of emancipation and formal experimentation Today literature's mission is to heal traumatised individuals and communities resurrect the lives of the vulnerable and commemorate their deeds in the face of the forces of oblivion For Gefen Patrick Modiano's Dora Bruder 1997 is the contemporary literary archetype of these lost identities to be rehabilitated and reinhabited Gefen describes this new role for literature without taking sides the writing is lucid compelling and non partisan In an age of victimhood testimony empathy self expression and identity Gefen's reparative paradigm is as persuasive as Sartre's political version in the age of ideology Max Silverman Professor of Modern French Studies University of Leeds UK Religious and Theological Abstracts, 2003 Proceedings of the Seventh International Congress of Egyptologists, Cambridge, 3-9 September 1995 Christopher Eyre, 1998 This volume of proceedings contains 139 revised papers originally given at the Seventh International Congress of Egyptologists in Cambridge from 3rd 9th September 1995 They provide an overview of the range and agenda of Egyptological research in the 1 Les contes de Perrault et les récits parallèles Pierre Saintyves, 1923 Official Index to the Times, 1918 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Times educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement KPFA Program Folio KPFA (Radio station : Berkeley, Calif.), 1958 Bulletin of Bibliography and Magazine Subject-index, 1917 Bulletin of Bibliography and Dramatic Index, 1915 Traditions of Heroic and Epic Poetry: The traditions Robert Auty, 1980 A Terrible and Terribly Interesting Epoch Alexandra Garbarini, Jean-Marc Dreyfus, 2021-11-15 Published in association with the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum This extraordinary wartime diary provides a rare glimpse into the daily life of French and foreign born Jewish refugees under the Vichy regime during World War II Long hidden the diary was written by Lucien Dreyfus a native of Alsace who was a teacher at the most prestigious high school in Strasbourg an editor of the leading Jewish newspaper of Alsace and Lorraine the devoted father of an only daughter and the doting grandfather of an only granddaughter In 1939 after the French declaration of war on Hitler's Germany Lucien and his wife Marthe were forced by the French state to leave Strasbourg along with thousands of other Jewish and non Jewish residents of the city The couple found refuge in Nice on the Mediterranean coast in the south of France Anti Jewish laws prevented Lucien from resuming his teaching career and his work as a newspaper editor But he continued to write recording his trenchant reflections on the situation of France and French Jews under the Vichy regime American visas allowed his daughter son in law and granddaughter to escape France in the spring of 1942 and establish new lives in the United States but Lucien and Marthe were not so lucky Rounded up during an SS raid in September 1943 they were deported and murdered in Auschwitz Birkenau two months later As the only diary by an observant Jew raised bi culturally in French and German Dreyfus s writing offers a unique philosophical and moral reflection on the Holocaust as it was unfolding in France
