FAITH Sidney St. James,2020-04-21 hen came Peter to him and said Lord how oft shall my brother sin against me and I forgive him Till seven times Jesus saith unto him I say not unto thee Until seven times but Until seventy times seven KJV Matthew 18 21 22 Reverend Loyce Estes with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church at the funeral services on December 23 1969 addressed the congregation The dignified First Lady of the Louisiana Presbytery is dead Vibrantly alive are the articles of faith that constitute our legacy May her mantle fall on us prayerfully Reverend Mrs Ada Caston Slaton Bonds is one of the most colorful ministers ever produced by the great Cumberland Presbyterian Church Beyond a doubt she overcame more difficulties and passed through more heartaches than any minister ever known to preach the Whosoever Will gospel Miss Ada as all affectionately called her possessed countless prodigies By way of the corridors of her ministerial career she helped shape the lives and mold the character of a great number of young ministers who today rise up and call her blessed God sent her His Divine calling to preach She then learned to preach She carved out a place for herself among the clergy that was unique without comparison With bottomless emotion genuine poise and true dignity Miss Ada became the First Lady of the Cloth in the Louisiana Presbytery and had the highest honor bestowed upon her the title of Mother of All Presbyteries Brother Kerans finished the Sunday morning services by calling on Reverend Paul Covey Johnson standing by her frail and physical body awaiting its final resting place in the Old Bethany Cumberland Presbyterian Church cemetery outside Coushatta Louisiana He began her final epitaph I m walking along the seashore A ship is floating near to me spreading her white sails as it begins a voyage that takes Miss Ada further and further out into the ocean She s a powerful vessel one of beauty and strength I watch her until she looks like a disappearing speck of a fluffy cloud where the horizon of the sea and sky intermingle with one another Then I realized her diminished size is in me not in her Look there She is gone Nelson along with Ada s brother Lilburn are standing together with eager eyes watching from one of the twelve gates to heaven There are beautiful angels stationed at each of the entrances Looking more closely she sees her mother and father standing near Lilburn There are smiles on all of their faces and a happy and content look to their demeanor standing and waiting there to take up the welcomed shout HERE SHE COMES Many times throughout the writing of her memoirs I came to respect her inner strength her compassion and her gentleness Never in my life have I delved into the scriptures and analyzed what each meant more so than when I put her memoirs on paper To bring these memoirs to a close I attended the homecoming services at the Progress Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Pleasant Hill Louisiana as they celebrated their 100th Anniversary Miss Ada is still spoken of highly Her last letter written to the church on December 10 1969 still hangs on the walls of the sanctuary Brother Lawson led the congregation in the singing of many gospel tunes and delivered the Sunday morning message I close this description with a quote from Brother Lawson Miss Ada set the standards high for being a minister in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church She was an anomaly for her time Still today we find the bar for preaching the word of God set high for all young men and women entering the ministry If one listened closely they would have heard the words echo from my namesake Sidney Slaton Mamma Was a Preacher

Sermons On Selected Lessons Of The New Testament St. Augustine of Hippo,2012 This is the extended and annotated edition including an extensive biographical annotation about the author and his life The Sermons of St Augustine besides their other excellencies furnish a beautiful picture of perhaps the deepest and most powerful mind of the Western Church adapting itself to the little ones of Christ In them he who has furnished the mould for all the most thoughtful minds for fourteen hundred years is seen forming with loving tenderness the babes in Christ Very touching is the child like simplicity with which he gradually leads them through what to them were difficulties watching all the while whether he made himself clear to them keeping up their attention pleased at their understanding dreading their approbation and leading them off from himself to some practical result Very touching the tenderness with which he at times reproves the allowance which he makes for human infirmities and for those in secular life if they will not make their infirmities their boast or in allowed duties and indulgences forget God But his very simplicity precludes the necessity of any preface His Sermons explain themselves They appear from a passage in the Commentary on the Psalms to have been often taken down in writing at the time by the more attentive sort of hearers as were those of St Chrysostom Possidius states that this was done from the commencement of his presbyterate and that thence through the body of Africa excellent doctrine and the most sweet savour of Christ was diffused and made manifest the Church of God beyond seas when it heard thereof partaking of the joy Seventy Times Seven, Etc. What Do You Believe? Michelle Brignone, 2025-03-18 Almost 80 percent of Americans say they believe in God with most religions teaching peace love and understanding yet crime lies hate racism misogyny discrimination and violence all seem to be reaching pandemic proportions Maybe we don't believe what we think we do There is a disconnect between our actions and what we say we believe and it's tearing us apart Society cannot afford for this disconnect to continue Either we don't know what we truly believe or we just don't care anymore I am an optimist and hoping the answer is people don't really know or don't remember what their true beliefs are What Do You Believe does not tell people what to believe it merely asks questions to encourage readers to figure out for themselves what exactly they believe and why they believe it It then asks readers to consider how their beliefs influence or not their actions to help readers bring their actions and beliefs into harmony
