Love Anthony Walsh, 2016-06-30 Love is a little word with a universe of meanings and has engaged people's interest throughout human history The need to give and receive love lies deep within human nature Philosophers poets theologians sociologists and scientists have all attempted to explain its exact origin but is it an evolutionary adaptation or a social construct Walsh discusses that the nature of and need for love has biological origins He draws upon Darwin's sexual selection theory to define the perceptions of love by infants through the process of experience dependent brain wiring He observes that mother love makes a child capable of loving and that father love makes a child feel worthy of love He appraises the origin and purpose of romantic love in his discussions on sexual reproduction by looking at chemical and neurological responses to love and the influence of love on one's physical and mental health With frequent quotes from literary masters like Shakespeare to orient one's scientific and humanistic understanding of love Walsh goes on to explore various styles of romantic love including monogamy promiscuity bartering love and betrayed love the effects of a skewed sex ratio on dating and mating practices and the age old quest for a perfect society populated by perfect people obeying the biblical command to love one another

Sex Addiction as Affect Dysregulation: A Neurobiologically Informed Holistic Treatment Alexandra Katehakis, 2016-09-20 Examining the neurobiological underpinnings of sex addiction Neuroaffective science studying the integrated development of the body brain and mind has revealed mechanisms linking psychological and biological factors of mental disorders including addiction. Indeed its paradigm shifting theoretical umbrella demonstrated that substance and behavioral dependencies share identical neurobiological workings and thus that problematic repetitive behaviors are genuine addictions a state increasingly understood as a chronic brain disorder. Clinical experience strongly suggests that sex addiction SA treatment informed by affective neuroscience the specialty of Alexandra Katehakis proves profoundly transformative. Katehakis's relational protocol presented here blends neurobiology with psychology to accomplish full recovery. Her Psychobiological Approach to Sex Addiction Treatment PASAT joins therapist and patient through a relationally based psychotherapy a holistic dyadic dance that calls on the body brain and mind of both. Written with clarity and compassion this book integrates cutting edge research case studies verbatim session records and patient writings and art. Katehakis explicates neurophysiological psychological and cultural forces priming and maintaining SA then details how her innovative treatment restores patients interpersonal sexual and spiritual relationality.
