Mourning Ruby:

Mourning Ruby Helen Dunmore, 2004-05-27 FROM THE AUTHOR OF INSIDE THE WAVE THE COSTA BOOK OF THE YEAR 2017 Rebecca was abandoned by her mother in a shoebox in the backyard of an Italian restaurant when she was two days old Her life begins without history in the dark outdoors Who is she where has she come from and what can she become Thirty years later married to Adam she gives birth to Ruby and to a new life for herself But when sudden tragedy changed the course of that life for ever and all the lives that touch hers Rebecca is out in the world again searching Mourning Ruby explores identity and maternal ties and is bestselling author Helen Dunmore's eighth novel Moments that bring the reader to tears a fascinating often brilliant novel The Times Bold and unusual miraculously written Dunmore's drama of loss and regeneration pieces together shattered lives Daily Mail Emotionally restrained beautifully observed Daily Telegraph Helen Dunmore has published eleven novels with Penguin Zennor in Darkness which won the McKitterick Prize Burning Bright A Spell of Winter which won the Orange Prize Talking to the Dead Your Blue Eyed Boy With Your Crooked Heart The Siege which was shortlisted for the 2001 Whitbread Novel of the Year Award and for the Orange Prize for Fiction 2002 Mourning Ruby House of Orphan Counting the Stars and The Betrayal which was longlisted for the Man Booker Prize 2010 She is also a poet children's novelist and short story writer Risking Intimacy and Creative Transformation in Psychoanalysis Lauren Levine, 2023-04-05 In this compelling book Lauren Levine explores the transformative power of stories and storytelling in psychoanalysis to heal psychic wounds and create shared symbolic meaning and coherence out of ungrieved loss and trauma Through evocative clinical stories Levine considers the impact of trauma and creativity on the challenge of creating one's own story resonant with personal authenticity and a shared sense of culture and history Levine sees creativity as an essential aspect of aliveness and as transformative emergent in the clinical process She utilizes film dance poetry literature and dreams as creative frames to explore diverse aspects of psychoanalytic process As a psychoanalyst and writer Levine is interested in the stories we tell individually and collectively as well as what gets disavowed and dissociated by experiences of relational intergenerational and sociopolitical trauma She is concerned too with whose stories get told and whose get erased silenced and marginalized This crucial question what gets left out of the narrative and the potential for an intimate psychoanalytic process to help patients reclaim what has been lost is at the heart of this volume Attentive to the work of helping patients reclaim their memory and creative agency his book will prove invaluable for psychoanalysts and psychotherapists in practice and in training The Children of Eliza Jessalyn Adamson, 2012-09 Ruby Reddings has only known life in her small peaceful village until the beast from the tales attack killing her sister and leaving the village in fear With one kiss on the forehead from Ruby her sister rises from the dead changing her world and helping her unearth the secrets of The Children of Eliza Including the discovery of nine others with abilities no one else possesses when one turns against them they have to come together with the help of Eliza to save the present and the future Mortuary

Monuments and Burial Grounds of the Historic Period Harold Mytum, 2012-12-06 Burial grounds strike an immediate chord with all who visit them They are land scapes full of pathos and cultural associations which many find attractive though a minority feel are too morbid to deserve detailed attention This book is designed to offer a framework for studying historic burial ground monuments and contains a certain amount of information regarding below ground archaeology as some projects will involve the study of both Moreover from a research perspective above and below ground archaeology together can throw considerable light on the process of dying body disposal and commemoration that formed a continuum for those involved However the more easily accessible graveyard memorials can be used to study many aspects of past culture beyond that directly associated with death and they are the focus of the book Most people who become interested in historic graveyard memorials come to the subject via the material itself Only rarely does a research question get posed and graveyard data seem like an appropriate arena for investigation This has the advantage that many researchers have some ideas about the data available but the disadvantage that they may not have clear questions to ask of it nor how to set their discoveries in a wider intellectual context

Melidora Ryan Z. Dawson, 2014-11-11 When a girl washes onto the beach half drowned she wakes with no memory of what s happened to her how she survived or even who she is She soon finds herself caught in the last war of a dying land fighting desperately to rediscover herself before she and everything she loves is obliterated completely Enter Melidora a kingdom in the teeth of a disease that eradicates memory Learn the secret history of the Halcyon Melidora s creatrix and follow the shipwrecked girl s rise to power over the wolf shadows of the Cradle Spire Can she stand against the Nixian hordes to save Melidora or will she be swallowed up and forget herself forever

Contemporary English Novel Sandra Dinter,2019-10-10 Since the 1980s novels about childhood for adults have been a booming genre within the contemporary British literary market Childhood in the Contemporary English Novel offers the first comprehensive study of this literary trend Assembling analyses of key works by Ian McEwan Doris Lessing P D James Nick Hornby Sarah Moss and Stephen Kelman and situating them in their cultural and political contexts Sandra Dinter uncovers

both the reasons for the current popularity of such fiction and the theoretical shift that distinguishes it from earlier literary epochs The book's central argument is that the contemporary English novel draws on the constructivist paradigm shift that revolutionised the academic study of childhood several decades ago Contemporary works of fiction Dinter argues depart from the notion of childhood as a naturally given phase of life and examine the agent's interests and conflicts involved in its cultural production Dinter also considers the limits of this new theoretical impetus observing that authors and scholars alike even when they claim to conceive of childhood as a construct do not always give up on the idea of its natural core Accordingly this book reconstructs how the English novel between the 1980s and the 2010s oscillates between an acknowledgment of constructivism and an endorsement of childhood as the last irrevocable quintessence of humanity In doing so it successfully extends the literary and cultural history of childhood to the immediate present     Protection Helen Dunmore, 2011-12-01 Penguin Specials are designed to fill a gap Written to be read over a long commute or a short journey they are original and exclusively in digital form This is a chilling tale by Helen Dunmore It was nothing she tells herself but her body knows better Florence lives in the country lapped by miles and miles of darkness She feels safe there until a noise wakes her in the middle of the night Protection is a short story by bestselling author Helen Dunmore that will cause your skin to prickle and make you ask yourself how far you would go to protect your family     The Book Club Bible Michael O'Mara Books, 2011-07-31 With a foreword by Lionel Shriver author of We Need To Talk About Kevin The Book Club Bible is the essential guide to the best book club reads     Contemporary British Novelists Nick Rennison, 2004-12-31 Featuring a broad range of contemporary British novelists from Iain Banks to Jeanette Winterson Louis de Bernieres to Irvine Welsh and Salman Rushdie this book offers an excellent introductory guide to the contemporary literary scene Each entry includes concise biographical information on each of the key novelists and analysis of their major works and themes Fully cross referenced and containing extensive guides to further reading Fifty Contemporary British Novelists is the ideal guide to modern British fiction for both the student and the contemporary fiction buff alike     Heritage Interpretation Marion Blockley, Alison Hems, 2013-01-11 An essential guide to present practice and policy concerning issues in heritage management Heritage Interpretation draws on the accumulated expertise and international reputation for excellence of the UK heritage industry to describe and analyze best practice in heritage interpretation The contributors all responsible for developing best practices come from a range of heritage organizations including English Heritage The National Trust Historic Scotland CADW and National Parks They draw on examples from throughout the UK from public art and twentieth century military remains to cathedrals and urban heritage and discuss the range of interpretive options available and how they can be appropriately tailored to specific places and audiences Providing practical guidance on interpretive techniques the book provides insights into the philosophies and thinking that underpins their adoption in particular contexts This clear and easy guide is an valuable addition to the reading list of any student of history or heritage studies     The Land Lubbers
